EXTRA! EXTRA! EXTRA!

RAIN CLOUDY FAIR SNOW WARMER COLDER
THE WEATHER
HIGH TIDE
7:30 A. M.
7:51 P. M.
SUN
Rises 5:24 A. M.
Sets 8:17 P. M.
Light All Vehicles at 8:47 P. M.

BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN
A HOME PAPER FOR PEOPLE WHO THINK

NIGHT LATEST

VOL. 23—No. 99
New England Newspaper Pub. Co.
BOSTON, TUESDAY, JULY 20, 1926
2 CENTS WITHIN 50 MILES OF BOSTON. ELSEWHERE 3 CENTS

United States Tourists Insulted in France

☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆ ☆

SECOND GIRL DIES UNDER KNIFE
DR. HANSON HELD IN $25,000

Very Latest News

PAWTUCKET MAN KIIKILLS SELF WITH GAS

Pawtucket, R. I., July 2(20 (A.P.).—Locking himself in the kitchen of his home WaWalter Wood, 54, turned on the gas and was dying when forfound.

HUNT 3 ALIENS WHO D FLEE SHIP; 10 CAUGHT

New Bedford, July 20 () (A.P.).—Three aliens who escaped with 10 others fromm the Portuguese packet Lina are being hunted on Cape C Cod today. The other 10 were captured, eight in Warehamm and two here and are in jail.

"CZAR" OF BROOKLYN V WATERFRONT SHOT DEAD

New York, July 20 (I.I.N.S.).—Carmine Venatiempo, "Czar" of the Brooklyn wawaterfront, was the victim of enemies today who put a a bullet through his heart to even an old score. Carminine and his friends were celebrating the feast of St. Roccco when someone called him outside and shot him. Twowo men were arrested, but denied knowledge of the shoobting.

Today

Broken and Shoshones
Holding Up the Mirror
A Clergyman in Earnest
We Are Very Rich

By Arthur Brisbane

(Copyright, 1926, by Star Co.)

STOCKS WENT UP, new high prices were recorded, the price of money went down. You could speculate cheaply, francs collapsed, bears shed tears, bulls said, "I told you so." That was yesterday's financial record.

WHILE THESE things happened, Indians of the Bannoc and Shoshone tribes were dancing wildly around their totem pole near Pocatello, Idaho, to please the sun god. Aged warriors dropped in their tracks. Authorities allowed the dance on condition that the Indians would not, as in former days, insert thongs of deer skin under the muscles of their backs and hang themselves from branches of trees, staying there until muscles or thongs gave way. Whites call that shocking. Indians think it pleases the sun god.

Perhaps, where the Angel Gabriel sits, the difference between Indians dancing around the totem pole and brokers dancing around the General Motors' pole is not so great.

TO HOLD the mirror up to modern times, read headlines in newspapers, and listen to the radio.

Young people park their cars along roadsides to indulge in affectionate demonstrations. Samuel Hurd, farmer, objected. One of the young people shot him dead. Hurd will know better next time, if he returns to this plane. Youth will be served.

THE REV. DR. NORRIS, earnest clergyman of Fort Worth, Texas, refers to himself as a "hellfire and damnation" preacher, and lives up to the description.

He attacked the mayor of his town on religious and other grounds. When a friend of the mayor called to remonstrate, Dr. Norris sent three bullets through his body. It was self-defense, he said, and thousands crowded to his church to shake hands with him.

AT CANTON, OHIO, Don R. Mellett, who used to publish a paper, is dead. He interfered with the operations of men engaged in bootlegging and similar enterprises, neglected a warning that he was to be killed, and was killed, as predicted.

The great war that made kill-

Continued on Page 20, Column 5.

Looking for a better room? Cooler, lighter, larger?

Turn to the next-to-the-last pages. There you will find a good selection of desirable rooms listed alphabetically and grouped by districts in the Classified Ads.

"If I Should Die Before I Wake—"

—Boston Evening American Staff Photo

MANGLED BABY SOBS IN VAIN FOR MAMMA'S GOOD-BY KISS

Sylvia Johnson, three, who is dying at Haymarket Relief Hospital, one of her tiny legs crushed off and her little body mangled otherwise by an Atlantic avenue trolley car. Her one wish is for "Mamma"—lost somewhere in the pitiless grimness which is life and wrecked hopes and dreams. Mrs. Johnson, separated from the child's father, left the child with a Boston friend and has been living in Portland, Me. But where? The police are making frantic efforts to answer little Sylvia's prayers before she dies—so that the glad light of baby love, rewarded in mother's recognition, may shine in her eyes, when the Death Angel, drawing ever nearer, shall arrive to waft her baby spirit away.

(Story on Page One of Second Section.)

SUBWAY CAR JUMPS TRACK

Traffic in the Tremont street subway was tied up for nearly half an hour during the rush period today when a southbound trolley jumped the tracks between Park street station and Scollay square.

The car was filled with passengers, who were shaken up, but as far as could be learned escaped without injury.

Winter Hill Co-operative Bank
Dividends at the rate of 6% paid since 1923 on Matured Share Certificates
ASSETS $8,000,000
SURPLUS $130,000
6%
Ordinary shares June series now on sale.
Somerville is a well-governed city. Somerville has four Co-operative Banks, two Savings Banks, two Trust Companies, one National Bank. They are all sound institutions and worthy of your patronage. Consider them when in need of new banking accommodations.
WinterHill Co-operative Bank
Ray R. Rideout, Treasurer
88 Broadway
Branches: Teele Square, Union Square
SOMERVILLE, MASS.

AMERICAN TOURISTS INSULTED AT PARIS

Paris, July 20 (I.N.S.).—A wave of anti-American feeling is sweeping France today.

American tourists were brazenly insulted last night while dining in an open-air restaurant in Montmartre. A scuffle ensued in which the police intervened, arresting several Frenchmen.

Resentment against the American, or "Yanqui," is particularly rife among the working classes, who are told at every opportunity by street orators and newspaper editorials that the United States is responsible for all their ills, particularly the waning purchasing power of the franc.

Throughout the Latin quarter, American tourists have been having trouble with quarrelsome and argumentative natives. Most of these runins, while not serious, do much to mar the pleasure of the visit to Paris.

Agents for the large steamship companies reported that the July bookings of the America-bound steamers were unusually heavy, in some cases record-breaking. The homeward rush does not usually start until August. The premature rush was attributed in part to the

Continued on Page 4, Column 1

SIMPSON SPRING BEVERAGES
Those days of all days THEY'RE GREAT

SUFFOLK LAW SCHOOL
Largest in N. E. 4 yr. LL.B. course—day or evening. Leads in all recent bar exams. Registration daily; Mon. and Fri. evenings. 18-24 Derne St. (Rear of State House.) Han. 0836.

MANNIX CALLS ON NICHOLS

By JAMES WALSH.

"Americans are enjoying a freedom which they ought to be anxious to have conferred upon Ireland, and upon every other nation still looking for it," declared Archbishop Daniel Mannix, eminent churchman from Melbourne, Australia, lover of Ireland, his native land, and known the world over for his views on an absolutely free and independent Erin.

The famous archbishop from the Antipodes reached Boston today from Philadelphia. He is to speak on Ireland at Symphony Hall tomorrow night.

Tall and spare of build, but vigorous, with long brown-gray hair, inclined to be curly at the ends, he is a man of very few words but as

Continued on Page 4, Column 5.

Dr. True's Elixir
Known as reliable worm expeller
The True Family Laxative

BROOKLINE DOCTOR HELD IN NEW CASE

Lillian McCullough, eighteen, of Waltham, is dead, and Dr. James P. A. Nolan, prominent Brookline physician, is under arrest today, in a new illegal surgery case following closely on the heels of the Edith L. Greene tragedy.

Richard A. King, 21, of Crescent avenue, Waltham, was also arrested as an accessory in connection with the death of the McCullough girl, as was Abbie A. Graham of Moody street, Waltham.

The police charge the operation, which is alleged to have resulted in the death of the girl, took place in the Graham home.

Dr. Nolan, Mrs. Graham and King appeared in Newton court, pleaded

Continued on Page 2, Column 5.

A woman judge fixed bail of $25,000 today for Dr. J. Leo Hanson in Jefferson Market Police Court, New York, where he is held as a fugitive from Massachusetts justice in connection with the dismemberment of the corpse of Edith L. Greene, victim of the New Calvary Cemetery tragedy.

High bail was set by Magistrate Jean Norris in spite of a vigorous plea by Hanson's counsel who promised that, if he were released on lower bail, he would board a train for Boston immediately and face the charges here.

Unable to provide the $25,000

Continued on Page 2, Column 1.

24 DEAD AS HEAT WAVE SWEEPS MIDDLE WEST

Chicago, July 20 (A.P.).—Twenty-four deaths have been caused through the Middle West from the heat wave which is prevalent over the entire country from the Rockies eastward, Chicago alone recording twelve fatalities.

The high mark of 94.2 reached here was far exceeded, however, in portions of South Dakota, Nebraska, Iowa and Kansas, where temperatures generally ranged between 98 and 107, the latter in Mitchell and Pierre, S. D.

Of other deaths, one was reported in Nebraska, two in Missouri, two in South Dakota, three in Minnesota, one in Wisconsin and three in Indiana.

BRIDE WHO LOST FOOT IS MARRIED IN BED

Love, which sometimes surmounts all obstacles, has surmounted one in Malden, where the pluck of twenty-three-year-old Concetta Verrillo has made her the bride of Arthur Pittore, despite the loss of her foot under the wheels of a trolley car.

Lying in bed at her home, No. 207 Pearl street, Malden, "Concetta the pretty" was married under a cardinal's special dispensation while the wedding guests marveled at her courage and her bearing of the pain.

Hidden beneath the spotless counterpane was the bandaged raw stump that had failed to set aside the marriage plans of the couple and had only postponed them a comparatively few days.

And when the home ceremony allowed by Cardinal O'Connell had been completed by the Rev. F. J. Mulrey, pastor of St. Peter's Italian Church, Malden, pretty Concetta was gayest in the group that joked and laughed and frolicked.

Concetta did her frolicking with her snapping black eyes while, with her new husband seated on the bed beside her, she watched the funmaking of the guests.

Late in June the girl, accompanied by her fiance, Arthur, who lives at No. 104 Emerald street, Malden, started for Boston to purchase her trousseau for the wedding on July 4.

In the Fellsway at Emerald street she was hit by the trolley car, was hurled beneath the wheels before Pittore could seize her, and suffered a foot crushed so badly that it was amputated at the Malden Hospital.

But Concetta is laughing again today.

"THE TAXI DANCER"---A GIRL'S DESPAIR---BEGIN IT TODAY ON PAGE 13

PRINCIPALS IN LOVE TRAGEDY THAT ROCKED HUB AND OFFICIALS WHO PROBE CHARGES AGAINST DOCTORS

WANTS FACTS
Governor Fuller, who has demanded a sweeping investigation of the "Edie" Greene "box tragedy." (Photo copyrighted by Oppenheim.)

EXPLAINS CASE
Commissioner of Public Welfare Richard K. Conant, under whose jurisdiction "Edie" Greene came as a ward of the State.

FUGITIVE DOCTOR
Dr. J. Leo Hanson, who was arrested in New York as a fugitive in connection with "Edie" Greene's death.

ACCUSED DOCTOR
Dr. Thomas E. Walsh, out under $15,000 bail on indictments charging illegal surgery upon Edith Louise Greene.

HACKED VICTIM
Edith Louise Greene, whose hacked body was found near Calvary Cemetery after an operation forbidden by the State.

"MAN IN THE CASE"
James Vincent Ford, who admitted to police he was involved in "Edie's" plight and who involved the Walshes.

DEAD GIRL'S CHUM
Betty Landry, chum of Edith Greene. She has given the police much information that helped solve the case.

PROSECUTOR
District Attorney O'Brien, who has directed the investigation and who helped to trail Dr. J. Leo Hanson to New York.

HANSON READY TO RETURN

Continued from First Page.

surety demanded, the accused doctor went back to a cell in "the Tombs," where he must stay until the Massachusetts authorities go for him with the necessary credentials.

Magistrate Norris said in reply to quests for low bail that it was entirely outside of the authority of the court to fix a small surety simply on the strength of the defendant's promise to return to Boston if released.

Hanson denies having seen Dr. Thomas E. Walsh, the other physician arrested in the case, within the last five years, but an assistant of District Attorney O'Brien's declared today that witnesses have been found who saw them together here on the day preceding the fatal operation on the 18-year-old girl.

TRY FOR INDICTMENT.

If Hanson is unable to raise the $25,00 bail in New York, he must remain in a cell until August 6, and in the meantime, according to District Attorney O'Brien, the local authorities will go before the Grand Jury that convenes August 2 and attempt to obtain an indictment to suplant the lower court warant that is thus far the only one issued against Hanson.

O'Brien explained thathe does not wish to seek extradition of Hanson on the lower court warrant because that would necessitate uncovering all the evidence in the possession of the State, a thing he does not wish to do at present.

A fourth Boston doctor was questioned by the district attorney today but exonerated. His name was withheld. A third doctor, in addition to Walsh and Hanson, is still under investigation, police say.

"Jimmie" Ford, arrested sweetheart of the dead girl, asked Medical Examiner Leary for permission to bury the body in New Calvary Cemetery.

As thrilling as any of the preceding chapters in the story of Edith Greene and her untimely death through an illegal operation, was the story of the chase for Dr. Hanson. Time after time he was within grasp of the police during his three day "spree" which took him from one State to another just ahead of the pursuers.

BLUSTERS WHEN TAKEN.

It was at the Motor Vehicle Bureau at 40th street and Seventh avenue that William Wagner of the Pinkertons and New York Detectives Joseph Innella and John Kacinski placed Hanson under arrest. His companions were attempting to obtain New York license plates for a car registered in Pennsylvania.

"What is this all about!" he blustered as officials informed him that he was under arrest.

"You are charged and indicted in Suffolk County with cutting up the girl who died of a criminal operation in Boston; the operation, according to the charges, having been performed by Dr. Thomas E. Walsh," was the retort of Detective Wagner. Wagner was the investigator who trailed Hanson through four States.

"ALL FOOLISHNESS," HE SAYS.

"It's all foolishness," answered Hanson. "I havent seen Dr. Walsh for five years."

Then followed the trip to New York police headquarters where the three men who accompanied Dr. Hanson showed their credentials and were released.

Attempts at questioning Hanson proved unsuccessful. With an air of bravado he adopted a jocular pose that, to police, was all but pitiful. Vague and irrevelant answers came from his lips as questions were put to him.

Information was elicited from him, however, to the effect that he had engaged an apartment at No. 101 West 109th street, and to this apartment journeyed the investigators in search of evidence which might be useful to the Boston authorites in the probing of "Edie" Greene's death.

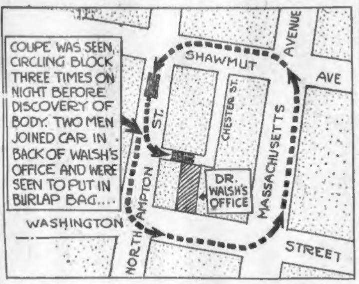
FIND SURGEON'S KIT.

A suit case containing a full kit of surgeon's tools as well as hypodermic syringes and other medical paraphernalia was found in the rooms. Another package—a bundle of clothing—was also taken by the authorities.

Hanson seemed to become a more sober man as he made the trip with the investigators. All the bravado which characterized his arrest, however, was not gone. It was not until today that he fully recovered from the shock of his arrest.

But the second grilling to which he was subjected by Inspector Carey was more fruitful to the police mind.

MAP OF AREA COVERED BY MYSTERY AUTO



COUPE WAS SEEN, CIRCLING BLOCK THREE TIMES ON NIGHT BEFORE DISCOVERY OF BODY. TWO MEN JOINED CAR IN BACK OF WALSH'S OFFICE AND WERE SEEN TO PUT IN BURLAP BAG....
SHAWMUT AVENUE
AVE
ST.
CHESTER ST.
MASSACHUSETTS
DR. WALSH'S OFFICE
WASHINGTON
NORTHAMPTON
STREET

WHO DROVE CAR OVER THIS ROUTE?
Hunt is still going on for the car that, according to a witness the police claim to have found, was seen to thrice circle the block in which Dr. Thomas E. Walsh's office is located, on the night that the dismembered body of Edith Louise Greene was taken away and disposed of in Mattapan. A woman was driving. Finally she stopped it in the alley behind Dr. Walsh's office building and transferred her car to two men who carried away a mysterious sack, according to the witness.

FORD SEEKS TO BURY 'EDIE'

"Jimmie" Ford wants to bury "Edie" Greene, the girl who never had a chance."

The boy, who now suffers the pangs of remorse, wants to redeem himself for the "girl who paid."

Last week, the Boston Evening American learned today, young Ford sought friendly advice from John E. Meehan, South Boston undertaker, as to just "what chance" he had in "doing right" with the remains of the girl victim in the Mattapan box-brutality.

Ford wanted to know if he could claim the mutilated body of his "Edie" when Medical Examiner Leary was through, or could the State establish a priority claim to the pretty ward.

EAGER TO ATONE.

If it was the last thing he did, he said, he wanted to give decent burial to the girl whose implicit faith and trust in him led to such a tragic and appalling downfall.

Young Ford is not alone in his desire of atonement.

The May family, uncle and aunt of the dead girl, it is understood, have expressed their wish to bury Edith in New Calvary Cemetery. Maybe beside the girl's mother, so the two who lived together, were blithed and thwarted, might meet in the Great Beyond as one.

With his brother Ford, also named in the grand jury indictment as an alleged accessory, "Jimmie" sought out Meenan, the undertaker. He expressed an earnest desire to take the body of the girl and a promise to meet burial costs.

VOUCHES FOR PAYMENTS.

William Ford, vouched for the payments and also requested a respectable burial for Edith.

Should the Mays be permitted to take the body "Jimmie" acquiesces his agreement.

At least one order for one casket lined with overflowing sentiment and belated devotion signed "Jimmie" awaits fulfillment in the undertaking parlors of John E. Meenan when the Commonwealth and the hand of the law releases the pitable Edith Greene's body.

CHARGES EX-HUSBAND $690 SHY ON ALIMONY

Louis J. Calabrese, well known Boston and New York orchestra leader, has failed to pay the $40 per week alimony awarded by the court to his wife when she divorced him last February and is now $690 in arrears, according to contempt proceedings instituted against him yesterday in Middlesex Probate Court by Mrs. Ina M. Bentley Calabrese of Newton.

DOCTOR, 2 HELD AS GIRL DIES

Continued from First Page.

not guilty and their cases were continued for one week. The physician was held in $20,000 for illegal surgery, and the others at $2,000 each as accessories.

It was learned that Dr. Nolan's license as a practicing physician was revoked in 1923 by the State Board of Registration in Medicine.

2 ADMITS GUILT.

The license was issued in 1905, records show, in which year Nolan received his degree from Tufts Medical School.

The arrest of the three persons followed within seven hours the death of the McCullough girl, and were understood to have resulted from information which she gave.

The police say that both Mrs. Graham and King have admitted their part in the case, the young man stating he was responsible for the girl's conditino and that he paid money to Mrs. Graham.

The police declare Mrs. Graham has admitted receipt of the money and that she inturn paid $50 to Dr Nolan.

According to the police, Miss McCullough's parents separated a year or two ago and the girl continued to makeh er home with her father, the owner of a substantial brick house in the Bleachery section of Waltham.

FIRST OPERATION FAILS.

Mrs. Sarah McCullough, the mother, who left Waltham, was at one time proprietress of the Dale Rest Hospital in that city. At that time Mrs. Graham was friendly with her, the police say.

In the charges against Dr. Nolan, King and Mrs. Graham, the police say the first operation on Lillian McCullough was performed May 16 without success. On June 10 the second was performed, which resulted in peritonitis.

A local physician was then called, but he refused to have anything to do with the case, and the girl was taken to the Newton Hospital.

Mrs. Graham and King were unable to obtain bail after the court proceedings, and were taken to the Waltham police station, where they were questioned by Assistant District Attorney Ralph Stearns. Medical Examiner West will perform an autopsy on the girl's body.

ARRESTED IN MANSION.

Dr. Nolan was arrested at his palatial Beacon street home by State Officers Sherlock and O'Neil and Lieut. Peter J. Tracy of the Waltham Department. The physician was taken into custody a few hours after the death of the girl, who was the daughter of Thomas F. McCullough of No. 165 River street, Waltham.

Medical Examiner George O. West notified the Waltham police of the death, and Chief Curran immediately ordered the arrest of Dr. Nolan, Mrs. Graham and young King.

Dr. Nolan's bonds were furnished by Victor C. von Detten and Mrs. Lucy C. von Detten, who gave their addresses as No. 1265 Beacon street, Brookline, the same as that of the physician.

PHYSICIAN IS WEALTHY.

The police contend that two operations were performed on the McCullough girl at the Graham home, the second having taken place two weeks ago. The girl was employed as bookkeeper in the Waltham Bleachery. The police say that Mrs. Graham, who is married and has two children, paid the doctor.

Dr. Nolan, who is fifty-five years old and unmarried, is well known in Greater Boston, having made his home for many years in Centre street, Jamaica Plain. A few years ago he purchased the large house in Beacon street where he now makes his home, and opened an office there.

The physician furnished his home expensively, maintained two automobiles and built a tennis court on his own land.

On May 15, 1922, he was indicted by the Norfolk Grand Jury for performing illegal surgery on Anna L. Kelley of Somerville, it being alleged the operation took place April 25 of that year.

35-FOOT FALL NOTHING IN HER YOUNG LIFE

TUMBLED FROM WINDOW.
Esther E. Conto of Roxbury was only slightly jarred by her 3-story drop. Photo shows her after being examined for injuries at the City Hospital.

'RUDY' WOULD FIGHT EDITOR

New York, July 20.—Rudolph Valentino arrived in New York today and said he was itching to fight the man who wrote an editorial, "Pink Powder Puffs," published in a Chicago newspaper.

The editorial avowed tha the shiek of thes movies "should have been drowned years ago," and concluded with: "Rudy, the beautiful gardener's boy, is the prototype of the American male." He admitted writing a letter to the newspaper about it.

"As soon as had written the letter," he said, "I handed it to my publicity agent and let him do the rest."

"I'm mad," Valentino rasped out to reporters. "I'll make whoever wrote that foul stuff look like a full moon. This is no publicity stunt. I'm really mad.

"I can't understand how the editor let that editorial get into the paper. But it is more than a coincidence. This happened just as I was passing through Chicago. I read the editorial just before I arrived in Chicago. I immediately wrote the letter.

"I am not angered by the reference to my being the son of a gardener," he added. "What made me mad is the whole tone of the insulting thing. In Italy in the absence of the name of the writer of an article, the editor may be challenged. I regret that system is not in vogue here."

Valentino displayed true gallantry when asked if he intended to marry Pola Negri, noted vamp, he refused to commit himself.

"But she already has announced it," he was fold.

"If she said, so, why it must be so," replied Rudolph.

PERE MARQUETTE FOR NICKEL PLATE MERGER

New York, July 20 (I.N.S.).—Directors of the Pere Marquette Railroad Company, at their meeting here today, approved the report of the subcommittee, at their meeting here today, approved the report of the subcommittee favoring the new terms for the inclusion of the Pere Marquette road into the Nickle Plate merger.

Dismiss Petition

The Public Utilities Commission today dismissed the petition of citizens of Hull in which the commission was asked to order the Hingham Water Company to install meters at a rate to be fixed by the commission. The petitioners, when the case was heard, contended the rates charged are excessive.

JOHN DREW SAYS ANNOUNCEMENT OF RETIREMENT PREMATURE, BUT FRIENDS INSIST HE WILL QUIT SOON

ONE OF HIS FAVORITE ROLES
In "Major Pendennis," John Drew scored one of his most famous latter day successes. The dean of the American stage is 73.

NOTED STARS OF THE AMERICAN STAGE.
John Drew and Mrs. Leslie Carter have appeared in the same cast on several occasions. At a volunteer firemen's dinner at East Hampton, L. I., the veteran actor intimated, it is claimed, that he was considering retirement.

"PREMATURE"
When word was flashed that he would retire, the actor announced that such an intimation was a bit premature.

AT LONG ISLAND HOME
Born to the stage, has parents having been noted stars, John Drew has been 53 years portraying characters. (I.N.R.).

DREW FAMILY AT SUMMER HOME
John Drew made his first stage appearance in 1873, under the direction of his mother. Last year he appeared at the Knickerbocker, New York.

‘Girl Who Never Had Chance’--Edie Greene

All your wants are waiting for you in alphabetical order in the Classified Ads.

BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN
A HOME PAPER FOR PEOPLE WHO THINK
BOSTON, TUESDAY, JULY 20, 1926

GENERAL NEWS SECTION

SORROWS CROSS HER PATH EARLY IN LIFE

By PAUL WHELTON

CHAPTER II.

Through the murky drab of a boarding house she stared in her first, but quite unseeing, glance at the world.

Again—the dull drab of a boarding house was her last home.

Immeasurable time between—long, bitter hours that drag; hours of toil and drudgery, of disappointment, of grief and envy and striving for something beyond the grasp, like the blind grope—to miss and stumble and fall.

Striving—by a girl who never had a chance!

Immeasurable time! Swift moments of excitement squeezed out between the blacker hours; furtive snatchings at happiness so long awaited and yet so brief in duration; a will to laugh when there is no laughter; kisses wafted at misfortune to return as blows.

Back of the blinds and the dingy curtains of the Main street boarding house in Winchester where Dr. James Blenkhorn of Stoneham toiled in the dawn of an October day, Edith Louise Greene began on the long, tragic journey that was to end in mystery beside a dew-dampened wall at Calvary Cemetery.

Happiest of her years were those of the Winchester boarding house; childish years that brook no care; that see no sorrow; that draw pleasure from tiniest things in greatest measure.

Vaguely she understood that there was no father to juggle her on his knee, as in the case of her playmates; no big gruff man to overwhelm a little girl with kindness, despite his gruffness of tone.

Vaguely, too, she realized that her little dresses and her hats and her shoes were not the same as those of other little girls, and that her mother sighed not a little as she adjusted the threadbare garments—the best that she could afford with her earnings, cut down through the growing weariness in the mother's pain-wracked legs.

Edith Bereft of Both Parents

Big brown eyes, those eyes of Edith Greene the child, as she watched her mother's wearied hobblings—and wondered.

"Those beautiful eyes of yours some day will sell your soul," the little girl was often told in jest by Mrs. Caroline Murray, the Irish widow of Winchester, who had befriended the deserted mother.

Idle jests, dressed with laughter.

And in the great unseen, a gruesome ogre laughed, ebon cheeks glinting a cruel sheen in the workings of an evil countenance.

The face of Fate, wrinkling in an eerie grin—but no one knew.

Sheet by sheet, the months fluttered from the calendar, building the pile in sheaves of years—1907, 1908, 1909, 1910, 1911, 1912, 1913.

Edith Louise Greene was six and without a mother. As she had been since birth with an absent father, now she was bereft of another parent.

Disease that would not be stayed; toil that was unbending; weariness that was ever-growing, had crumpled at last the legs of Mrs. Greene and her days of earning were over.

They call it formally the State Infirmary at Tewksbury. By blunt, dull persons, sometimes, it is called the home for paupers of the State.

And She Became a State Ward

Broken, disillusioned, her courage shattered, Edith's mother had collapsed and had been sheltered in the Infirmary. Tuberculosis of the bones is a dread enemy to a woman who must work. But she would never work again.

Veritably a full orphan, Edith Louise Greene found herself in a new home—the home of a Mrs. Doherty in Roseclair street, Dorchester, a vaguely distant relative.

But not as a relative was Edith in the home. She was there as a State ward, a child of charity for whom life was to hold little charity as the years rolled on and the sorrows merged overwhelmingly to blot out joy.

Dishes to wash, interminable dusting to be done. Dust gathers so! A big broom to help sweep floors that somehow always needed sweeping.

Playtime in the outdoors with strange children, prettily dressed, who looked at her curiously.

"Edith has no Mama; Edith has no Mama!"

Childen are cruel to their fellows. It is hard to produce a Mama whose bent and pain-wracked legs will not permit the leaving of her bed; whose frail, thinning body is growing feather-light and whose blue-veined hands are opaque in their pitiful frailness.

Rare visits to Tewsbury with the strange people of her new home, Edith made. Then, suddenly, visits to the big City Hospital in Boston. Nearer, and not so long a car ride. No train ride either. But more frequent sights of that wan-faced woman whose kisses now were always damp with tears.

"Treatments" That was the word Mrs. Doherty used in telling neighbors of Mrs. Greene

Then, strangely, there was no more mention of "treatments," and the visits were farther apart and again to Tewsbury.

Edith didn't know then, but it was in September of 1914 that the necessity for further visits to Tewksbury ceased. Gravely, she lay in her bed, watching the stars high up in the black canopy of night beyond the window, and pondered over the reason why her mother had gone away as they said.

She was in the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. G. May at No. 1754 Columbia road, South Boston, then. A new home to which she had been transferred after the puzzling "treatments." But the stars seemed just the same—unchanged.

Evidently when Mamas went away, things went on just the same.

A star fell to Earth with a thin trail of light; then blackness and the twinkle of its fellows again—calm, serene.

Edith wondered—and slept!

This is the second instalment of the life story of Edith Louise Greene, "The Girl Who Never Had a Chance." The third will appear in tomorrow's Boston Evening American. Watch for it. Read it! Perhaps some day you may have opportunity to help a girl—another "girl who never had a chance."

RECEIVING HER MILK IN STYLE

BY AID OF BLUE-COATED LAW

Despite strike of milk wagon drivers, deliveries are being carried out on schedule in Greater Boston, with policemen guarding the wagons. In the picture, left to right, Patrolman Walter McAuley, Miss Mae Caufield, Jack Mahoney, driver, and Patrolman Andrew Connolly.

Poem Depicts Tragic Life of Box Victim

The poem, "The Judgment of Valhalla," expresses so aptly the unfortunate case of Edith Louise Greene, victim of the Mattapan dismemberment tragedy, that Miss Gertrude Ellis of Bennett street, Manchester, has copied an excerpt and sent it to this newspaper that other readers of the Boston Evening American may appreciate it.

The poem follows:

"Woman's gamble' (There's only one),
And it takes some pluck to play
When the rules are broke ere the game's begun—
When, lose or win, she must pay!
It's a double wager on human kind,
A limitless risk, and she goes it blind!
"For she stakes at love, on a single throw,
Pride, Honor, Scruples and Tears,
And dreams no lover can hope to know
Of the gold of the after years—
And all for a man (and there's no man lives
Who is worth the odds that a woman gives)."

$1,500,000 DAIRY SYSTEM POOL MADE

Springfield, July 19.—Organization of a $1,500,000 dairy system pool was completed when stockholders of the Springfield Dairy System voted to ratify terms of a merger with the Manchester (N. H.) and Worcester dairy systems.

Stockholders of the Springfield Dairy System will receive 12½ shares of stock in the new organization, the United Dairy Systems, for every 10 shares of Springfield system stock. The new organization is established as a New Hampshire corporation.

WARREN SLAYER IS RELEASED IN $40,000

Providence, R. I., July 20 (A.P.).—Charles R. Maxfield of Warren, charged in warrants with the murder of two youths near his home last Tuesday night, was admitted to bail of $40,000 by Judge Edward W. Blodgett in Superior Court here today. Imediately after his release Maxfield was served with writs of arrest for $15,000 in each of two civil suits brought by the parents of Angelo Cuzzone and Luigi Di Christofano, the slain youths. His aged mother furnished bail in the civil suits.

COPS MUSTN'T DELIVER MILK

Warning policemen guards to maintain a neutral policy in the struggle between the Alden Brothers Company and its striking milk wagon drivers, Superintendent of Police Michael Crowley made it plain that strike-breaking officers will not be tolerated.

The warning was conveyed to the guard of patrolmen assigned to the milk wagons in an order read at roll call in the station houses.

Complaints by strikers that policemen were aiding strike breakers was responsible for the order.

According to the strikers, some of the policemen had exceeded their duties by driving the wagons, reading the customers' lists and in some instances even going as far as delivering bottles of milk.

WAVE WRECKS ITALIAN PLANE

Pisa, Italy, July 20 (A.P.).—Commander Francesco de Pinedo, known for his record-breaking flight to Japan and return last year, had a narrow escape today when the seaplane in which he plans to make a world flight was struck by a high wave and overturned while speeding low over the water four miles from the coast near here.

Major Luigi Conti, one of his former companions on the test flight, was drowned. De Pinedo and the others were injured, but clung to the overturned plane until rescued. De Pinedo was treated at a hospital and then allowed to go to his home.

U. S. IN DRY PLEA TO WORLD

Andrews, With Success Near in Britain, May Ask Europe to Plug Rum Flow

London, July 20 (A.P.).—A bid for world-wide co-operation of foreign governments in the enforcement of prohibition in the United States may be the outcome of the present Anglo - American discussion here, if plans materialize as anticipated by Washington.

In the event an agreement is reached with the British, it is considered likely other governments, particularly in Europe, will be approached by the United States with a view of opening similar discussions designed to bring about international understanding which ultimately would deal a death blow to the rings of transoceanic bootleggers.

Brig.-Gen. Lincoln S. Andrews prohibition enforcement chief, said to the Associated Press today:

"If we are successful in our present mission, it is quite probable other governments may be appealed to in our pleadings to interrupt activities of the rum-runners, who have constantly broken our laws.

"In the event we are successful here, and everything thus far is working as smoothly as was expected, it is more than probable that Washington would be tremendously impressed and encouraged and would see fit to sound other governments, with hopes of beginning similar discussions aimed to bring more intimate relations in our anti-rum activities."

While much alcoholic drink is reaching the United States from Great Britain, amounts are said also to be constantly arriving from Holland, Belgium, Germany and France.

As is contemplated in discussions with the British, the Americans would aim to persuade other foreign governments to agree to aid in checking the rum shipments by keeping in touch with Washington and "tipping off" the American enforcement officials of shipments.

MRS. SCOTT TO SEE SONS

Detroit, July 20 (I.N.S.).—Happy and smiling in anticipation of a visit from her eldest sons, Mrs. Catherine Scott today entered the tenth day of her self-imposed fast on the stage of a local theatre.

The two boys, Dudley, nine, and Robert, eight, are to arrive here either today or tomorrow from an orphanage in Rochester, N. Y. Mrs. Scott is staging her fast to raise funds to save her husband, Russell, from the gallows.

The rapid loss of weight, which always occurs during the first few days of a fast, is ceasing. Her respiration, pulse and heart action is almost normal.

SWEDE QUEEN'S PLIGHT REMAINS VERY SERIOUS

London, July 20 (A.P.).—A Stockholm dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph says the general state of health of Queen Victoria of Sweden who has been suffering from bronchitis and heart trouble, remains unchanged. Her cough has been very troublesome and she has had several more heart attacks.

SHE'S THIRD WIFE OF HER THIRD HUSBAND

When Miss Edna Hubbard, brunette in the play "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes," married Lester Bryant, theatrical manager, she said the theory of the play was "all wet." She divorced her second husband and Bryant has had two previous wives.

Parents Who Drink Are Blamed for 'Flaming Youth'

Chicago, July 20 (I.N.S.).—Fathers and mothers who drink in their homes and use their homes as clandestine drinking parlors were blamed today by the Rev. H. E. Rompel of Joliet for the problems of "flaming youth."

His statement was made at one of the camp meetings of the M. E. Church, which are being held at Des Plaines, near here.

"As long as fathers and mothers drink at home and patronize bootleggers; as long as our so-called prominent and substantial citizens continue to drink liquor in their clubs; just that long will young people continue to drink," the speaker declared.

$2,000,000 STATE LOAN FOR NATIONAL SHAWMUT

State Treasurer Youngman has awarded on an interest to follow basis, a $2,000,000 Commonwealth of Massachusetts loan, dated July 21 and due November 22, to Shawmut Corporation at 3.26 per cent. plus $' premium.

JAIL WELLMAN FOR DEBT

New York, July 20 (A.P.)—Walter Wellman, of unsuccessful balloon flight, fame, is in the Ludlow Street Jail for failure to pay a debt of $280.

Wellman admitted he is indebted to Andrew K. Reynolds of Washington. Mr. Reynolds brought action for collection, but Wellman failed to appear for examination on the day set.

He was incarcerated on a charge of contempt of court. He claimed he had not been notified of the date for the examination.

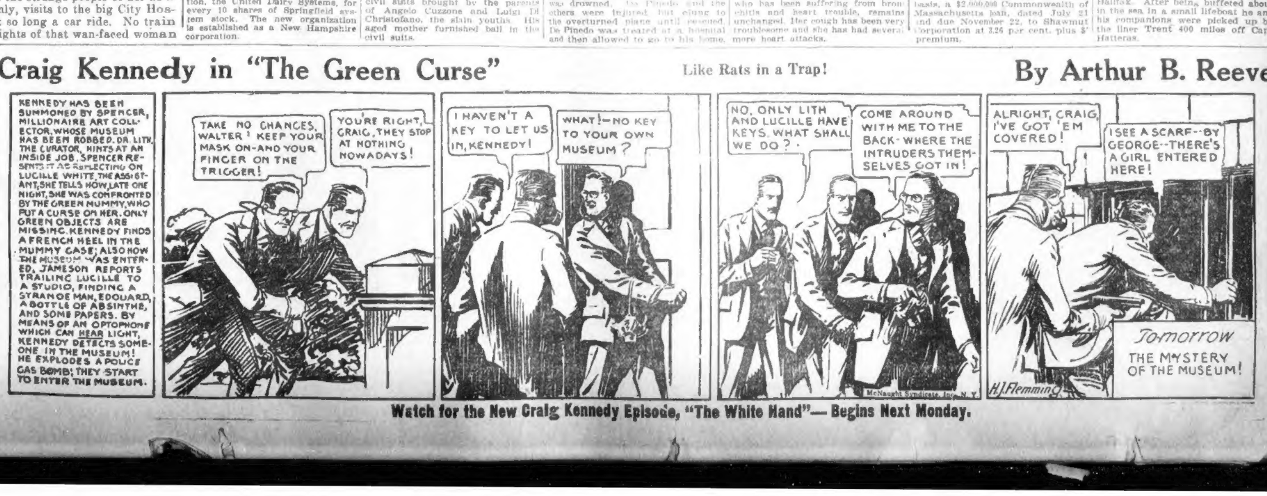
In 1907, when he made his first attempt to fly over the pole in a balloon, a storm brought him down on a glacier, where a rescue ship found him. An explosion ended a second attempt to fly over the pole two years later and again he was rescued.

He then tried to cross the Atlantic in a balloon. He and his party set out on the perilous trip from Atlantic City. The balloon fell south of Halifax. After being buffeted about in the sea in a small lifeboat he and his companions were picked up by the liner Trent 400 miles off Cape Hatteras.

Craig Kennedy in "The Green Curse"

Like Rats in a Trap!

By Arthur B. Reeve



KENNEDY HAS BEEN SUMMONED BY SPENCER, MILLIONAIRE ART COLLECTOR, WHOSE MUSEUM HAS BEEN ROBBED. DR. LITH, THE CURATOR, HINTS AT AN INSIDE JOB. SPENCER RESENTS IT AS REFLECTING ON LUCILLE WHITE, THE ASSISTANT, SHE TELLS HOW, LATE ONE NIGHT, SHE WAS CONFRONTED BY THE GREEN MUMMY, WHO PUT A CURSE ON HER. ONLY GREEN OBJECTS ARE MISSING. KENNEDY FINDS A FRENCH HEEL IN THE MUMMY CASE; ALSO HOW THE MUSEUM WAS ENTERED. JAMESON REPORTS TRAILING LUCILLE TO A STUDIO, FINDING A STRANGE MAN, EDOUARD, A BOTTLE OF ABSINTHE, AND SOME PAPERS. BY MEANS OF AN OPTOPHONE WHICH CAN HEAR LIGHT, KENNEDY DETECTS SOMEONE IN THE MUSEUM! HE EXPLODES A POLICE GAS BOMB; THEY START TO ENTER THE MUSEUM.

TAKE NO CHANCES, WALTER! KEEP YOUR MASK ON-AND YOUR FINGER ON THE TRIGGER!
YOU'RE RIGHT, CRAIG, THEY STOP AT NOTHING NOWADAYS!
I HAVEN'T A KEY TO LET US IN, KENNEDY!
WHAT!—NO KEY TO YOUR OWN MUSEUM?
NO, ONLY LITH AND LUCILLE HAVE KEYS. WHAT SHALL WE DO?
COME AROUND WITH ME TO THE BACK- WHERE THE INTRUDERS THEMSELVES GOT IN!
ALRIGHT, CRAIG, I'VE GOT 'EM COVERED!
I SEE A SCARF--BY GEORGE--THERE'S A GIRL ENTERED HERE!
Tomorrow
THE MYSTERY OF THE MUSEUM!
McNaught Syndicate, Inc., N. Y.
H.J. Flemming

Watch for the New Craig Kennedy Episode, "The White Hand"— Begins Next Monday.

U. S. TOURISTS INSULTED IN PARIS

America Blamed by French Working Class for Low Value of Franc

Continued from First Page.

anti-American feeling in France today.

Herriot Government Given Week of Life

Paris, July 20.—The new government of Edouard Herriot is not conceded more than a week of life by the most optimistic commentators today.

If it survives the attack of the Chamber of Deputies, it is certain to fall before the Senate, which is the more reactionary of the two bodies. It has been suggested that Herriot must have had a trump card up his sleeve, otherwise he would not have torpedoed the Briand-Caillaux government.

Whatever the card may be, it has thus far failed to convince the traders in foreign exchange. Neither apparently have the assertions of Anatole De Monzie, the new Finance Minister, had any effect. The franc opening weakly dropped 40 points within an hour, going to 47.90 to the dollar.

The new Cabinet is almost exclusively radical Left, containing none of the country's big leaders. The Cabinet follows:

Premier and Minister of Foreign Affairs—Edouard Herriot.

Minister of Finance—Anatole De Monzie.

Minister of Justice—Maurice Colat.

Minister of War—Paul Painleve.

Minister of Marine—Rene Renoult.

Minister of the Tutenol—Camille Chautemps.

Minister of Commerce—Louis Loucheur.

Minister of Public Works—Andre Hesse.

Minister of Education—Charles Daladie.

Minister of Agriculture—Andre Queille.

Minister of Colonies—Challes Dalac.

Minister of Labor—Anee Pasquet.

Minister of Pensions—Georges Bonnet.

Camera Vet Retires

Springfield, July 20.—D. J. Borjaux, for 38 years a photographer here, has announced his retirement. He has been noted as a photographer of animals and has made negatives of more than 3,000 prize pets.

EAST SIDE BOY ENJOYS COUNTRY SPORT

TRYING TO DO IT IN ONE

"Al" Smith, New York's Governor, scintillates in his new golf togs on the St. Regis links at Paul Smith's in the Adirondacks.

JUST AS IF HE'D CAUGHT IT

The Governor smiles happily as he holds the big pike captured and sent to him by the President from White Pines. (I.N.R.)

SPEEDS 'CANDY' KID'S' DOOM

Baltimore, Md., July 20 (I.N.S.)—Richard Reese Whittemore, the "Candy Kid" thug, will not die on Friday, the 13th.

Instead, he will be hanged at 11:30 p. m., Thursday, August 2, at Maryland Penitentiary.

Warden Brady today sent out the first tickets to witness the hanging. He shoved the time ahead half an hour. Governor Ritchie had set the date as August 13. The warden was privileged to make the change.

Eighteen tickets will be issued. The first five were sent to the Baltimore newspapers.

Whittemore was convicted of the murder of Robert H. Holtman, prison guard. He has told prison officers he wanted "to get the thing done quickly, the quicker the better."

An African Native, Fed by A. E. F. Aids Explorer

Chicago, July 20 (I.N.S.)—Through the kindness of an A. E. F. cook, who gave a meal to a Betsilee (African) tribesman during the war, Ralph Linton, who is heading a Field Museum expedition into Madagascar, has been able to pursue his work more freely.

"The meeting was described by Mr. Linton in a message received today by D. C. Davies, director of the museum. Mr. Linton declared he was able to convince the natives of the sincerity of the expedition only through the member who had been fed by the American cook.

SAVE 3 INMATES IN $15,000 FIRE

Lunenburg, July 20.—Five cows and a horse were burned to death, three aged inmates were rescued, and damage estimated at $15,000 was caused when fire destroyed the local Town Farm today.

The blaze, of undetermined origin, started in the big barn containing the livestock, hay and farming implements, and spread to the main building, in which were the three inmates, the overseer, the matron and their families.

Perched on a hill off the State highway, the Town Farm was a landmark, and the flames were visible for miles. The main building contained 12 or 15 rooms, but there were only three town charges occupying it. They were asleep at the time, but were aroused and taken to safety.

Feeding on hay, the flames swept the barn, consuming it, and then spread to the house, from which the occupants escaped only with their nightclothing.

The Fitchburg Fire Department sent two pieces of apparatus, which made a record eight-mile run to the scene, and succeeded in preventing a further spread of the flames. An investigation of the cause of the fire is to be made.

Gas Blast Hurts Soldier

Fort H. G. Wright, Fishers Island, N. Y., July 20.—Private Douglas Patterson of New London, Conn., was injured by an explosion that wrecked a gasoline pump house.

If you need tires or accessories turn to the Classified Ads.

MANNIX GIVEN RECEPTION AT HOTEL

Australian Prelate in Hub for the First Time; Calls on Mayor Nichols

Continued from First Page.

quick as a rifle shot in making up his mind and answering questions.

Asked about Ireland, Archbishop Mannix said:

FIRST TIME IN BOSTON.

"O, never mind about that now. All I have to say about Ireland I will say tomorrow night. That is all I will talk about. This is the first time I have come to Boston, and I am glad to have the opportunity of meeting the friends of Ireland in Boston.

"I have no doubt that I will find them as enthusiastic in their adhesion to the code of Irish liberty as I have found the Irish-Americans in San Francisco, Chicago, New York and Philadelphia.

"I have been in America before, but I think I can say that I see her no wat her very best. The country never was more beautiful, and so far as I can see, never more prosperous than it is now."

It was then that the Australian primate declared that America is enjoying a freedom it ought to be anxious to see conferred upon other nations still looking for it.

WAIT AT STATION IN VAIN.

Archbishop Mannix was due at the South Station at 10:28 daylight time. A large committee headed by Dr. James T. Gallagher of Charlestown was at the station to greet him. When the train arrived the committee learnedt hat the archbishop had left at Huntington avenue station and had gone directly to the Copley-Plaza.

It was at the Copley-Plaza that the reporters and committee greeted him.

Following the reception at the hotel the committee escorted Archbishop Mannixe to the Mayor's office.

Mayor Nichols told him it gave him the greatest pleasure to meet him and to extend to him the heartiest welcome to Boston. Also that hew as confident the distinguished prelate from Australia would find the citizenry of the Hub on a par with the best in the world.

IN MAYOR'S OFFICE.

Then the Mayor pointed out photographs of his predecessors in the Mayor's office. Photographers snapped the prelate and Mayor shaking hands.

Then the archbishop was escorted to the Copley-Plaza for lunch. This afternoon he will be taken on a sightseeing trip around historic Boston. This evening he will rest.

Tomorrow at noon the Governor will receive the archbishop in the executive chamber in the State House.

The committe who greeted Archbishop Mannix included:

Dr. James T. Gallagher, John Morton, Dr. P. J. Tyban of South Boston, the Rev. T. F. McDermott of SS. Peter and Paul's, South Boston; Michael O'Reilly, State secretary of the A. A. R. I. R.; Michael J. Casey, James O'Rourke, Captain William Corcoran of the Clan-na-Gael, John Regan, Charles Hickey, Michael Maynes, William J. Lynch and many others.

MRS. JAMES GOULD GETS PARIS DIVORCE

Paris, July 20 (I.N.S.).—Mrs. James Gould, nee Richard, an American citizen, was granted a divorce by the Seine Tribunal today. No details of the divorce were available, but it was reported that Mr. Gould's home is in Minneapolis.

FIRST NATIONAL STORES INC.
WHERE NEW ENGLAND BUYS ITS GROCERIES
O'Keeffe - CONNOR - GINTER

TEA SALE

Your choice of several delightful, high-grade blends of well-known Teas—at Special Low Prices. Personally and carefully selected by our own buyers in the Far East—skillfully blended to bring out all the exquisite fragrance and flavor of the Orient.

Savings 10c per Pound

Orange Pekoe Ceylon Lb. 59c
Oolong Mixed or English Breakfast Lb. 49c

Butter — Fresh Creamery Finest Quality Obtainable — Lb. 45c
Eggs — Large Choice—Fresh Selected Every Egg Warranted — Doz. 37c
Bread — Unsurpassed in quality. Made in our own Sunlight Bakeshops. Priced Boston District — Lge. Loaf 9c
Lard — Pure White Highest Quality Lb. 18c
Gold Medal — Or Pillsbury's FLOUR 1-8s bag 1.39
Loaf Cheese — For Hunger Appeasing, Picnic Sandwiches. Lb. 33c
Campbells Soups 3 Cans — Any Kind, Quickly Prepared. 25c
Kellogg's Corn Flakes — Or Post Toasties 3 Pkgs. 25c
Sunshine Sodas 6 Pkgs. — Wonderfully Good With Cold Milk 25c
Campfire Marshmallows — Make Delicious Summer Desserts Lb. 35c
Fi-na-st Mayonnaise — Pt. Bot. 43c 8 oz. Jar 23c Sm. Jar 10c
Flour 1-8s bag — Best Family Bread $1.25 Fancy Pastry $1.15
Coffee — Mocha & Java Lb. 53c A Very Pleasing Blend at a Popular Price Lb. 39c
Jar Rings — Fresh New Stock Pkg. 10c
E-Z Seal Jars — Dozen Quarts 1.09 Dozen Pints 99c

The 20th Century Limited

Leave Boston 12:30 p. m.
Arrive Chicago 9:45 a. m.

Saves a Business Day

BOSTON & ALBANY RAILROAD

NEW YORK CENTRAL LINES

R.H.White Co.

Mail Orders Filled—Boston 8 Telephone Orders Filled—Hancock 4100

Wednesday and Thursday
Women's Printed and Dotted Crepe Dresses $7.53
Model sketched is of printed crepe with roll collar. Narrow tie, panel down front and inserts at waist line of plain crepe, flare side over drapes, full sleeves, narrow cuffs, button trimming down front.
Other models with circular flare in front, collar and bands of plain crepe, plain skirts with fancy trimming, ties, and narrow string belts.
Light and dark colors.
Ready Made Dress Dept., 2nd Floor

Wednesday and Thursday
Radium and Crepe de Chine Slips $2.76
Attractively lace trimmed top and bottom, in white.
Beautiful Striped or Floral Batiste Gowns 91c
Lace trimmed in blossom colors.
2nd Floor

Wednesday and Thursday
Infants' Ivory Nursery Baskets $1.88
Several different shapes.
Infants' Hand Made Hand Embroidered Dresses $1.40
Long and short.
Infants' Dept., 2nd Floor

Wednesday and Thursday
Men's and Women's Black Umbrellas $1.87
Rain proofed by the Cravenette process.
Street Floor

Wednesday and Thursday
Men's Tan Crepe Sole Oxfords $4.19
Goodyear welts. Sizes 5½ to 10. Widths C and D.
2nd Floor

Wednesday and Thursday
Radium Dial Alarm Clocks $1.48
Waterbury movement. See the time in the dark.
Walnut Room, Street Floor

Wednesday and Thursday
Men's 2-Trouser Worsted Suits $30
Grays, blue grays, silk mixtures.
Worsteds and undressed worsteds.
Regular sizes 36 to 44.
Men's Clothing, Mezzanine

Wednesday and Thursday
Men's Fancy Figured and Striped Four-In-Hands 58c
Street Floor

Wednesday and Thursday
Brown and White Lace-to-Toe Tennis Shoes 97c
23 sizes.
Child's size 8 to Boy's size 6.
Street Floor

Wednesday and Thursday
Beautiful Vase Table Lamps $3.75
A high grade imported lamp beautifully designed in rich gold color decoration. Complete with two pull chain sockets, cord and plug, and attractive black wood base. Height about 23 inches.
4th Floor

Wednesday and Thursday
Steamer Wardrobe Trunks $23.12
Built of Basswood, covered, bound and reinforced with hard fiber, round edge, open top, attractive cretonne lining, combination dust proof curtain and laundry bag. 4 drawers, locking bar, shoe pockets. Heavy steel corners, spring lock, full assortment of hangers, for carrying men's or women's clothing.
3rd Floor

Wednesday and Thursday
Rayon and Cotton Bed Spreads $3.00 each
Double bed size, made extra long, so does not require separate sham; four beautiful colors for selection.
"Gold Seal" Pillow Cases 23c each
Fine quality hemmed bleached pillow cases, torn size 42x36 inches.
"Madeira" Hand Embroidered Scarfs $2.09 each
Fine pure linen "Madeira" scarfs, 18x44 and 18x52 inch sizes, in beautiful hand embroidered eyelet patterns.
Pure Linen Bridge Sets $1.19 set
Heavy pure linen refreshment sets, handsome color effects for selection.
3rd Floor, South

FOREST FIRES DESTROY TOWN IN CALIFORNIA

Sacramento, Cal., July 20 (I.N.S.).—With one town virtually wiped out and two others threatened, the inferno of forest, brush and grass fires which have raged for twenty four hours continued throughout Northern California with unabated fury today.

The old mining village of Quartz, Tuolumne County, was almost entirely destroyed by flames which are reported sweeping on over brush and ranch lands between Tuolumne River and the timber town of Standard.

Reports received by the State Board of Forestry said twenty-seven houses were burned at Quartz.

Refugees were rushed from the devastated area to Jamestown, according to a report from Thomas Doyle, town marshal at Sonora. Doyle estimated that fifty houses and outbuildings had been razed by the blaze.

Meantime, in Yolo County, a fierce conflagration is sweeping through the fertile Capay Valley and a turn of the wind, according to reports, has placed the town of Guinda in danger. Hundreds of fire fighters were combatting this fire.

Trapped Forest Men Fight Way Out

Missoula, Mont., July 20 (I.N.S.)—The forest fires raging at Penddoreille, north of Sand Point, Idaho, and at Hay Creek, west of Glacier Park, were unchecked today.

Forty-five forest service men and two strings of pack animals, trapped in the Penddoreille fire, fought their way through burning timberlands to safety.

GIRL INJURED IN GAS BLAST

Leaking gas, exploding in her home at No. 68 East Lenox street, South End, seriously burned nine-year-old Evelyn Sullivan today and blew out part of a partition in the bathroom.

The girl is in a serious condition at City Hospital with first and second degree burns on the arms and face.

Gas had been flowing from a partly open cock on the heater, it is believed, and when the girl entreed the bathroom and lighted a match to start the heater, the leaking gas exploded.

BUTLER AND MOSES AT G. O. P. OUTING TOMORROW

The Bay State Republican outing, postponed last week because of the death of John W. Weeks, will be held tomorrow at Princemere, Grapevine road, Wenham. Frederick H. Prince will be host. Senator William M. Butler will be the central figure and Senator Moses of New Hampshire will be the orator. Others to speak are Col. A. Piatt Andrew, Congressman from the sixth district; Wilfred W. Lufkin, collector of the port of Boston; Wellington Wells, president of the Senate, John C. Hull, speaker of the House, and Frederick H. Tarr, president of the Essex Club.

GUNMEN BELIEVED TO HAVE KILLED MELLET

Canton, O., July 20 (A.P.).—Theories that Pittsburgh gunmen killed Don R. Mellett, Canton publisher, were strengthened at a conference today between Lieutenant Peter Conner of the Pittsburgh homicide squad and Ora Slater, Cincinnati detective.

Conner went back to Pittsburgh to fight habeas corpus procedings brought by George Psialis, "George the Greek," held in the investigation of the murder.

500 AMERICANS TO BE PARTY GUESTS OF KING

London, July 20 (A.P.).—King George and Queen Mary will have 5,000 guests at their garden party at Buckingham Palace Thursday if the weather proves fine. Of this number it is expected at least 500 will be from the United States.

CURTISS

Baby Ruth

America's 5c Favorite

CURTISS CANDY CO.
NEW YORK CHICAGO SAN FRANCISCO

SEA MARRIAGE LEGAL, CAPT. HARTLEY HOLDS

New York, July 20.—Capt. Herbert Hartley of the Leviathan, whose marriage of Harry C. (Bud) Fisher has been questioned in court, believes ceremonies performed by ship's captains are just as binding as those performed by a minister. The United States Shipipng Board ruled that there is no Federal law that gives American sea captains legal right to perform marriages, after "Bud" Fisher, the cartoonist, moved to have his marriage to the Countess Aedita de Beaumont annuled. Justice Ford in New York ruled the marriage was legal, whereupon the Shipping Board issued its statement.

Capt. Hartley holds that authority for marriages at sea is contained in the revised statutes of the navigation laws of the United States, which provide that "every marriage taking place on board, with names and ages of parties, should be entered in the log book."

MUSSOLINI DUEL IS BEING FORCED

Rome, July 20 (I.N.S.).—The duel between General Bencivenga and Arnaldo Mussolini, brother of the Premier, which had apparently been abandoned, now seems likely to be forced.

Arnaldo Mussolini has renewed his attack upon the General, characterizing him as a "hack politician" and charging that he has been sympathetic with conspiracies against the life of the Premier.

TWO BLACK BEARS SLAIN IN RAID ON PIGGERY

Mt. Kineo House, Me., July 20.—Two large black bears of a pack of four were killed on the Deerhead farm at the Mt. Kineo House, five miles distant, while making off with a litter of pigs. The squealing of the porkers aroused Oswald H. Harvey, in charge of the farm, who shot two of the marauders.

START PROBE ON SLAYER-PASTOR

Fort Worth, Tex., July 20 (A.P.).—The Tarrant County Grand Jury began its investigations today into the slaying Saturday of D. E. Chipps, lumberman, by Rev. Dr. Frank Norris in the office of the First Baptist Church of which Norris is pastor. Norris is at liberty under $10,000 bonds.

Fourteen witnesses are expected to be called, among them being Dr. Norris and L. H. Nutt, a deacon in Dr. Norris' church and supposedly the only eyewitness to the shooting.

Two possible alternatives lie before the Grand Jury, which includes nine of the pastor's fellow-townsmen. The jury may indict for murder or may vote a "no bill." A future Grand Jury may still indict should a "no bill" be returned.

Dr. Norris said last night he had cancelled an engagement to speak at the Calvary Baptist Church in

SUPREME TASK OF YOUTH TO END WAR--LLOYD GEORGE

London, July 20 (A.P.).—"The supreme task of the generation now arising is to achieve the substitution of organized justice for organized violence," said former Premier Lloyd George in addressing the seventh world convention of Christian Endeavor in the Crystal Palace today.

"We old fellows," he said, "were brought up in a world that regarded armaments, with occasional wars, as part of the grim essentials of human civilization. The most horrible, the most devastating and the greatest of wars will have yet to come, unless youth tears that idea from the heart of civilization."

New York August 1. He declined to comment on reports that the rector of the New York church would ask him to cancel the engagement if the story of the shooting was authentic. He said he would conduct revival meetings here instead.

Carol Not Invited Back

London, July 20 (I.N.S.).—Formal denial of reports that Prince Carol has been invited to return to Rumania and resume his royal privileges as crown prince was issued by the Rumanian legation today.

IF ECHO ANSWERS FIRM LOSES $5,000

Clinton, July 20.—Rev. Nathan H. Gist will have at least two anxious auditors next Sunday when he preaches his $5,000 sermon in the remodeled First Congregational Church here.

For 25 years there has been a bothersome echo in the church auditorium, mysterious voices blending with the minister's. Acoustic engineers were hired to remodel the place and get rid of the mysterious echo. They think they have done this, but the test comes on Sunday. If there is an echo the acoustic engineers forfeit $5,000.

MABEL CHOATE MAKES GIFT

Stockbridge, July 20.—The old mission house, built in 1740 by John Sargent, Indian missionary, has been purchased by Miss Mabel Choate of New York and will be turned over to this town as a museum.

Mrs. Mabel Choate

Antiques which are now in Miss Choate's villa, "Naumkeag," will be turned over to the museum when it is moved to Stockbridge Plain and restored to its original condition by Henry Sleeper, Boston architect.

The gift is made by Miss Choate as a memorial to her father, the late Joseph H. Choate, once ambassador to Great Britain.

Bebe 'll Be a Lady When She Weds 'Sir Sprint'

Hollywood, Cal., July 20 (A.P.).—Bebe Daniels learned for the first time and with much glee that Charles Paddock, to whom she announced her engagement, has title to knighthood as well as title to sprinting honors.

"That's a good one; wait until I tell Charlie," said Bebe when an interviewer asked her what title she would claim after she marries "Sir Charles," whom she has known only five weeks.

When assured that the King of Montenegro knighted the sprint King in Paris in 1919, Miss Daniels gasped:

"That's just like Cinderella. Imagine marrying a real knight!"

Summer Store Hours
9 to 5 P. M.
Closed Saturday

GILCHRIST'S

One of the Great Stores of the American Retailers Association, Inc.

Mail Orders Filled
Phone Lib. 9700
Write Shopping Service

SALES MANAGER'S SPECIAL

EVERY ITEM must pass the following tests before it is put on sale:

1---It must be greatly in demand at the time.

2---The price must be much lower than the same item sells for elsewhere in town.

(Note—Mail, 'phone and telegraph orders will be filled at this price only while the advertised quantity lasts)

On Sale WEDNESDAY!

300 New Washable

Silk Dresses

$5

LOW COST DRESS SECTION—SECOND FLOOR

From the Maker of the $7.95 and $10.95 Dresses of Which We Have Sold Thousands!

Washable Silks—Gay Stripes
Coin Dot Silks—Light and Dark
A Few Radiums--Washable Colors
Crepe de Chines—Sports Style

Styles for Daytime and Evening Occasion
Sizes 16 Misses' up to 44 Women's

If You Have Gray Hair!

Two Hair Goods Specials $7.50

Transformations — All around. Gray and gray mixtures Switches, triple stem. All first quality. One may do their hair in many attractive ways with additional hair.

THIRD FLOOR

The Wave of Fashion!

Marcel Water Wavers 50c

Set of six. Simply insert combs in slightly damped hair and the result will be very satisfactory. Easily carried on vacation and week-end trips.

Jewelry Dept.—Street Floor

—for Summer chic!

Over 500 Sold Last Week!

New! Lingerie Clasps 50c

This new vogue prevents one's straps from slipping annoyingly over the shoulders. Gold and silver plated clasps are artfully connected by linked chain in a new and clever manner.

Street Floor, GILCHRIST CO.
Phone Orders Lib. 9700

SALES MANAGER'S SPECIAL

EVERY ITEM must pass the following tests before it is put on sale:

1---It must be greatly in demand at the time.

2---The price must be much lower than the same item sells for elsewhere in town.

(Note—Mail, 'phone and telegraph orders will be filled at this price only while the advertised quantity lasts)

On Sale WEDNESDAY!

1000 Yards 40-Inch

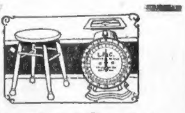
Printed Silks

$1.39 yd.

These Patterns Were Designed by a French Dressmaker and Sold This Season for $3.50 and $4!

The quality silk smartly dressed women appreciate! Faultless in weave, rich in texture and flattering colors—deep reds, light and dark blues, brilliant greens, all the new tan shades with bold, vivid designs. Smart for sports and dress frocks and lovely negligee.

FOURTH FLOOR



Household Specials

At the Lowest Price We Know!

$1.00 each

Household Scales—Useful during the preserving season. Choice of gray or black. Registers 24 lbs. by ounces, $1.00

Bathroom Stools—White enamel finish—strongly constructed. 18 inches high, $1.00.

Sixth Floor, GILCHRIST CO.
Mail Orders Filled—Phone Orders Lib. 9700

Three Special Summer Values for BOYS

Extraordinary Purchase

600 Boys' Cotton Pajamas

95c

Usually $1.35 and $1.50

Fine percales in plain colors and figured effects. Will launder and wear satisfactorily. Cut full! One-piece style 6 to 16; two-piece style 8 to 18.

A Very Special Price!

Boys' Play Suits

69c

Usually $1.00

Blue or khaki colored drill—low neck, short sleeves. Fast colors. Great for play—cool, comfortable, inexpensive. Red or blue trimmed. Sizes 2 to 6.

Value! Boys' Wash Suits

$1.35

The little fellows come in for a big value! Middy or button-on styles, in plain or combination effects. Sizes 2 to 10.

Street Floor, GILCHRIST CO.—Mail Orders Filled—Phone Orders Lib. 9700

Legal stamps given and redeemed

Announci

Colonial Gas

WITH ETHYL (TRADE MARK)
REG. U.S. PATENT OFF.
BRAND OF ANTI-KNOCK
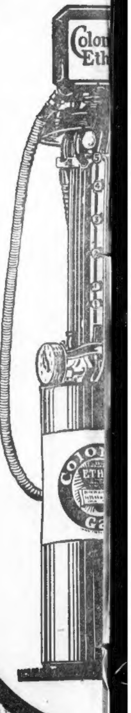
COMPOUND
ETHYL GASOLINE
CORPORATION
NEW YORK, U.S.A.
KNOCKS OUT THAT "KNOCK"



Turns Carbon into Power

The Most Important News for Motorists

Since Sept. 5, 1925, when we introduced New Colonial Gas.

Colonial Ethyl Gas

A SENSATIONAL new gasoline that lets your engine feast on carbon—and turns carbon into power. The more carbon in your engine—the more amazing its performance with Colonial Ethyl Gasoline.

For higher cylinder pressure means better performance—and carbon increases the pressure. But—with all ordinary gasolines—this higher pressure means engine knock. So that to escape the knock, the carbon has to be cleaned out periodically, and the cylinder pressure thus kept down.

COLONIAL ETHYL GASOLINE positively will not knock under increased cylinder pressure—the more carbon and the higher the pressure the more astonishing its pick-up, performance and power. The crack racing drivers use Ethyl. Every winner at Indianapolis the past four years rode to victory on Ethyl Gasoline. Every driver at Rockingham on July 4th was using Ethyl. The Navy airplanes all run on Ethyl gas—the giant dirigible Los Angeles uses it exclusively.

With Colonial Ethyl Gasoline, you can jam down the throttle to the flocr boards—you can hang in high on the steepest hill—with never a murmur or sign of gasoline "knock". It requires no alteration to engine—no special carburetor setting. Just drain your tank—fill up with Colonial Ethyl—and enjoy a new brilliancy of performance such as you never thought possible in your car.

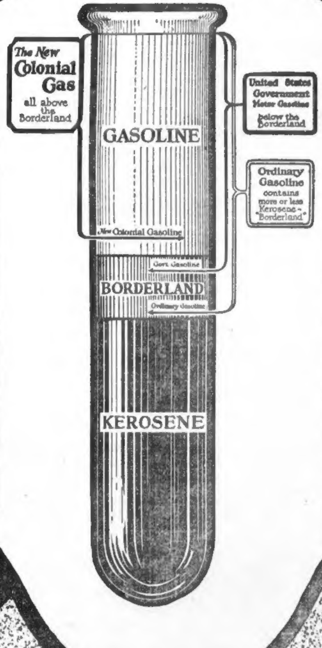
Colonial Ethyl Gas

is now available at most Colonial Filling Stations. It costs only 3c. per gallon extra. It saves its cost many times over in greater satisfaction from your motoring, lower depreciation and less wear-and-tear. Try it—a tankful tells the story.

New Colonial Gas

will still be available—in the same high quality as heretofore—and at the same price as ordinary gasoline. In freedom from knock and swift acceleration—it is second only to Colonial Ethyl Gasoline. And its high quality will be maintained.

COLONIAL FILLING STATIONS DIVISION
BEACON OIL COMPANY



The New Colonial Gas all above the Borderland
GASOLINE
New Colonial Gasoline
Govt. Gasoline
BORDERLAND
Ordinary Gasoline
KEROSENE
United States Government Motor Gasoline below the Borderland
Ordinary Gasoline contains more or less Kerosene-"Borderland"

COP DENIES HE'S FATHER OF TWO

Discharged from the police department a week ago on recommendation of a trial board, former Patrolman James E. Taylor, colored, was given a public hearing today by Police Commissioner Wilson.

Taylor's dismissal grew out of charges unbecoming an officer. The complaint was made by Mrs. Alice Jones of Flagg street, South End, that Taylor was the father of two children born to her daughter, Miss Frances Jones, 20, of Rutland street, South End.

The officer and Miss Jones denied the charge, but both he and the girl admitted on child was born while the Jones girl was living with his mother and the second was born while Frances was acting as Taylor's housekeeper.

WOMAN HURT IN AUTO CRASH

Lee, July 20.—One person was seriously injured and three others narrowly escaped death here today when an automobile crashed into a railing of the East Center street bridge and then hung partly suspended over the Housatonic river, seventy feet below.

The car was owned and operated by E. W. Wills of Brooklyn, N. Y., and the other occupants were Mrs. Wills, their daughter Emily, eight, and Mrs. Bessie Lennon. The latter suffered a broken left arm, two broken ribs and multiple internal injuries while the others were badly shaken up.

The injured woman was taken to the House of Mercy Hospital, Pittsfield, where her condition was found to be serious. The accident was caused by the blowing out of a tire.

'GOLDEN RULE' SHERIFF IS AFTER SON-IN-LAW

Hollister, Calif., July 20 (I.N.S.).—Honor above all!

"Golden Rule" Jeremiah Croxon, oldest sheriff in California, is bound for the Panama Canal Zone to arrest his own son-in-law—the only criminal that ever escaped him.

Sheriff Croxon reared George Williams, a Sacramento youth, as his own son. Trusting his foster son implicitly, he allowed him to marry his daughter, two years ago. He made the youth his deputy sheriff and acting tax collector, trusted him with much money.

Williams began spending freely. The old sheriff accepted his explanation that his family had left him money. Then, on the eve of the annual audit, Williams disappeared, $6,000 short in his accounts.

Heartbroken, Sheriff Croxon paid the county back with his lifetime savings. Grimly he set himself to search for his son-in-law. His boast is that no man ever escaped him.

Saturday the Governor of the Panama Canal Zone cabled that he had Williams under arrest. Sheriff Croxon smiled. His daughter cried. The sheriff has been given permission to start at once to get his man.

COL. MILLER ANSWERS $125,000,000 CHARGE

Washington, July 20 (I.N.S.).—Col. Thomas W. Miller, former alien property custodian, today replied in an open letter to Senator Wm. E. Borah (R.), of Idaho, who in a letter to the present alien property custodian last week requested information on reports that Miller had permitted $125,000,000 worth of seized property to be released to the British. [illegible]

Miller said that instead of relinquishing the property in question, the alien property custodian obtained stock certificates in American corporations which the British government had been holding as enemy-owned.

DRIVE TO WIPE OUT DIRECT PRIMARY

Legislatures to Be Asked to Restore Old Convention System

By NORMAN HAPGOOD
(Universal Service Staff Correspondent)

Washington, July 20.—Either the Conservative forces in politics are smarter than the Radicals and Liberals, or their habit of acting together, for definite ends, make them appear so.

The people who control the largest sums of money in campaigns have no intention of allowing the revelations in Pennsylvania, or the revelations that begin next Monday in Chicago, to land on their chins.

Neatly side-stepping they are undertaking to divert the public mind from the habit of buying elections, which has lasted since well before the famous organization of 1896, and to convince it, by a few clever passes, that the trouble is in the direct primary.

WANT OLD CONVENTION.

If it were, the money forces would not be opposing the primary. If you stop to think of it, it is fairly obvious that if the old convention system had given money a poor chance to select candidates, money would not now be starting a sharp campaign to get the convention system back again.

It is bad enough when too much money is spent by an individual in pursuit of an office. It is much worse if the same amount of money is contributed by a corporation to one side or both, in order to make sure of kndly treatment in the future. That always happened under the convention system.

It is the most interesting side of the Chicago investigation, though it may be lost in the melodramatic aspects of the rough methods of executing the will of the higher-ups.

WEEDING THEM OUT.

Under the direct primary system it is easy to have happen just what public opinion wishes to have happen. If it doesn't care what happens then there is no use worrying about the results. However, nearly everybody who voted to seat Newberry has been eliminated from public life and several more will be eliminated next Fall.

Mr. Pepper, whose vote was more of a shock than that of others supposed to be more hard-boiled than he, is a conspicuous example. While the Newberry case did not figure directly, Pepper's lack of courage had undermined his reputation. It had destroyed his best asset.

With this in mind, it is almost a certainty that Vare will not be seated. It would be better if other Republicans would do what Senator Norris recommends, go out and fight him openly, but that is too much enlightenment to expect. We can form our opinion better about what ought to be done in Illinois when the investigation is ended.

REPEAL DIRECT PRIMARY.

During 1927, forty-five States have legislative sessions. In every one of these some kind of a drive will be made to repeal the direct primary. It will not have much chance in the West, but there may be Eastern States where some progress will be made, for in the East the respect felt for great wealth, from Mr. Mellon down, is greater than in the West.

For these sessions that take place next year, the members of the State Legislature are being selected now. Thus one of the most important developments of the next four months centres not in Washington but in the elections to State officers.

Hot Weather Menus

ESTABLISHED 1859

that tempt dulled appetites are fully explained in the A & P NEWS this week. It contains recipes and suggestions that will save work... be sure to ask the manager for your copy every week

Flour Sale

Gold Medal	KITCHEN TESTED	24½ lb bag	$1.39
Pillsbury's Best	SPRING WHEAT	24½ lb bag	$1.39
A&P Family Flour	THE STANDARD FOR GENERAL BAKING	24½ lb bag	$1.25
A&P Pastry Flour	MAKES FINE PASTRY	24½ lb bag	$1.15

Lard — PURE SNOW-WHITE REFINED LARD—THE BEST SHORTENING — lb 18c

It is so pure that it cannot injure the daintiest of fine fabrics!

Lux — Baby's sheer dresses washed in Lux, will look like new — large pkg 20c

As a change from heavier vegetables—or for tempting desserts!

Rice — Extra fancy uncoated rice — 3 lbs 25c

The nation's summer breakfast food—serve with cream and fruit!

Kellogg's Corn Flakes 3 pkgs 25c

Pale Dry or Golden—a more generous quantity at a very low price!

Clicquot Club Ginger Ale 2 bottles contents 25c

Pressed from fresh, plump fruit from famous vineyards!

Grape Juice quart bottle 43c pint bottle 23c

Canada Dry Ginger Ale 3 bottles 50c

Preserving Jars

Everseal Jars dozen quarts $1.09 dozen pints 99c

Mason Jars dozen quarts 93c dozen pints 79c

Blue Label Ketchup		large bottle 25c	R & R Chicken	large can $1.05	small can 53c
Jello	All flavors	pkg 10c	Haffenreffer	Sparkling or Stout	4 bottles 25c

Educator Ginger Snaps Fresh stock lb 10c

Grandmother's Bread

If this loaf is not the best loaf you ever bought at any price, return the loaf and get your money back large loaf 9c

Boston and vicinity

THE GREAT ATLANTIC & PACIFIC TEA CO.

American-Advertiser Classified Ads on the Next-to-the-last Page

Bathing Suits for the whole family

Jordan Marsh Company
Great Basement Store
The Famous Store Within a Store For the Sale of the Less Expensive Merchandise

NOTE! Our New Telephone Number HAN cock 9000

July Begins the Second Half of Our Diamond Jubilee Year A Month of Exceptional Values

Women's Muslin and Cotton Crepe Underwear only 69c each

In this lot are included muslin night gowns, step-ins and bloomers; cotton crepe bloomers, cotton crepe night gowns and cotton crepe step-ins.

Also women's extra size muslin night gowns.

Good variety of wanted colors

Buy now for Summer needs

A high grade lot of WOMEN'S SHOES

5.95 pair

Pumps and one-strap models

In patent, blonde, satin and colored kids with Cuban and Spanish heels. Not all sizes in all widths. Unusual values.

AAA to C widths.

Sizes 2½ to 9

Extra Heavy Grade Crash Toweling

Special price 39c a yard

Very good grade imported Irish crash. Regular price was 45c a yard. 17 inches wide, with attractive colored borders.

Very Good Assortment of Figured Cretonnes at 49c yard

Many at half price because Seconds

A great variety of patterns and colors in Tapestry effects, Figured Stripe Chintz and Satin finish.

Good Quality, Square Shaped Cretonne Pillows

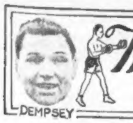
59c

Attractive patterns in very good color effects. Ideal for camps, canoes, porch, etc.

Square Style

Good Size

A. A. U. Reopens Probe of Paddock's Amateur Status



The FIGHT GAME FROM THE INSIDE by JACK KEARNS

KEARNS ANSWERS DEMPSEY'S CHARGES

Manager Nat Butler has slated an Australian Pursuit Race on Wednesday night's bike card. This type of racing has always appealed to the fans and will be part of the program more often in the future.

BOSTON AMERICAN SPORTS

Kearns Wins Battle Over Weight Issue in Australia

THIS is the eighth chapter of Jack Kearns' thrilling story in which he replies to the charges of Jack Dempsey. It is the first time that the man who put Jack Dempsey on the pugilistic map tells of his experiences when he was a prize fighter. Read this story every day in the Boston Evening American.

By JACK KEARNS

EIGHTH CHAPTER.

I'VE been in embarrassing positions before but I never felt as flabbergasted as I did when Red Watson jerked those silver dollars loose from their moorings on the weighing in scales. Each coin rolled in a different direction and came to rest only after having taken a final but tuneful spin in distant corners of the room.

Jack Dempsey

It beats the devil how far a dollar piece will roll. It seemed a hundred miles to me at that moment. I could have killed Red with my bare hands.

I'd put it over on the Frenchman and all would have been as pretty as a rose had Red stepped off neatly as I expected, instead of actually buck jumping.

You never saw such wild Frenchmen in your life. Of course they had tumbled to the trick now but we played dumb.

Quandou's manager raced around trying to find Watson in the crowd. He kept shouting, "Ballounce," "Bal-lounce," "Bal-lounce" at the top of his lungs. He finally got hold of Watson and tried to pull him back to the scales as he fairly shrieked "Bal-lounce," "Bal-lounce."

TRICK WINS FOR KEARNS' BATTLER

Watson laughed right in his face he was so funny. We all laughed when it came to that, but with a show of great indignity I refused to permit my man get on the scales again. The Frenchman was raving mad by this time, but what could he do about it? Watson had made the weight right before his eyes—yes, and before the silver dollar pieces had taken it on the roll.

It was one of the funniest experiences I had in the land of the Kangaroo. I didn't lose my Five Hundred Dollar forfeit, a lot of dough in those days, and Red won the fight, knocking the Frenchman kicking in a few rounds.

I don't tell this story to prove that I'm a wise guy but only to illustrate the necessity of always being a jump or two ahead of the other fellow. It is part of the racket.

Jack Kearns

You had to be on your toes, especially when your stable was one quarter ability and three quarters ballyhoo. If the Frenchman could have put one over on me he would have done it. Descamps didn't mind trying it whenever he could and Quandou's manager was no different.

To this day I can hear that little crowd of Frenchmen belly aching about the scales. They put their heads together and chattered like parrots. But when it came down to cases, they were as hungry for the purse as we were. They were just as far from home. And money, even in Australia, does considerable talking.

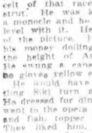
Murray Makes Hit

Billy Murray was the hit of my troupe, of course. He was a Portuguese and had all the quaint conceit of that race. He loved to strut. He was killing. He wore a monocle and he was on the dead level with it. He thought it part of the picture. He spent most of his money dolling himself out in the height of Australian fashion. He swung a cane and there were no gloves yellow enough for him.

He would have made poor Batting Siki turn green with envy. He dressed for dinner and when he went to the opera he wore the soup and fish, topper and boiled shirt. They liked him, though. I'll say that some of the Irish looked on that monocle with considerable suspicion.

I fancy that had he not been a pretty darned good fighter many of the natives would have taken a sock at his windowed eye. He was a riot wherever he went.

The sporting editors took me up and some of them took me down. Especially "Major," one of the leading writers of the country. He had never known ballyhoo at its balliest and he began to write me ragged. At least he thought he was doing so. He only stirred up old Bill Corbett, his hated rival and a thorough newspaperman. Bill was with me and my little army of fighters, "Major" was against us.



Hugh McIntosh

I was sitting pretty, in the middle of their fight. I didn't care what the "Major" said about me or my fighters. The more he said the greater my publicity, for Corbett fanned the Kearns end of it and they began to believe me, whether they wanted to or not.

Real Ballyhoo Develops

When I got to telling the newspaper boys that I fed my men raw meat and pickled their faces in Texas beef brine. I smoked the "Major" to a thousand per cent. He got to characterizing us as, "Yankee Swine," the best proof in the world that we had him winging. He was looping them from the floor now, but it was all in the game.

They wanted me to fight him a duel with horse pistols, hayhooks or bolo guns, and it took some tall old stalling on my part to make the fans believe that I was really going through with it.

My only fear was that the "Major" would drop me like a hot brick and that Bill Corbett's plant would burn down. I never had got into a nicer ballyhoo spot. A man couldn't have wished for more had he a champion or two in his stable. "Major" had not learned his lesson of real ballyhoo; that a knock is a boost and a boost is a knock, but well mixed up, ballyhoo at its best.

I couldn't have asked for better straight men than Billy Murray and Red Watson. Of course Red wasn't for the dude stuff. He didn't have quite the gall of Murray. The Portuguese lived the life of Reilly. Crowds followed him around the streets.

If there was a great commotion at a principal street crossing you found Billy Murray's canary colored gloves or one of his neck- [illegible] writing into Corbett and "Major," some against the Kearns outfit,

Continued on Page 20, Column 8.

A. A. U. REOPENS INVESTIGATION OF PADDOCK

Los Angeles, July 20 (A.P.).—President Robert S. Weaver today announced that the Southern Pacific Association of the Amateur Athletic Union will review the case of Charles Paddock within the next few weeks to ascertain whether the sprinter's appearance in motion pictures has lost him his amateur standing.

The officials stated that because of comment raised over the Paddock case the sprinter's status will be discussed by the board. Paddock denies he will appear as a sprinter in the movies.

The investigation is similar to that started in the case of Charles Hoff of Norway, world's champion pole vaulter, who recently appeared in vaudeville.

Boxing Tonight

At Portland, Me.—Johnny Andriano vs. Johnny McIntyre and Al Lewis vs. K. O. Liberty.

At Long Island City, N. Y.—Johny Greso vs. King Soloman, Benny Hall vs. Dominic Petrone and Johnny Pilcort and Joe Malone.

At Canarsie, L. I.—Frankie Garcia vs. Jackie Gordon.

At Washington, D. C.—Goldie Ahearn vs. Spencer Gardner.

At St. Louis—Paul Steadman vs. George Butch and Jimmy Russo vs. Mike Sansone.

At Cleveland—Jimmy Finley vs. Floyd Hybert and Billy Leonard vs. Billy Showers.

At Indianapolis—Mike Dundee vs. Paul Allen.

LONGWOOD FAVORITES WIN

KING OF TENNIS COURT AND TWO OPPONENTS

BERKELEY BELL

ALFRED H. CHAPIN, JR.

WILLIAM TILDEN

Hill, Doeg and Scott Score Victories

Today's Singles Schedule

William T. Tilden of Philadelphia vs. Donald Strachan of Philadelphia.

Edward G. Chandler of Berkeley, Calif., vs. Henry L. Johnson of Boston.

Berkeley Bell of Austin, Tex., vs. Lionel Ogden of San Francisco.

Alfred H. Chapin Jr., of Springfield, Mass., vs. Lewis N. White of Austin, Tex.

L. C. Williams of Chicago vs. Teizo Toba of Japan.

Takeichi Harada of Japan vs. John R. Gow of Boston.

Sam Fitch of Dallas, Tex., vs. Bradshaw Harrison of San Francisco.

Henry R. Goul of Boston vs. Sekio Tawara, Japanese champion.

By STED CHANDLER

Longwood Cricket Club, Brookline, Mass., July 20.—In the third round matches of the Massachusetts junior and boys' tournaments, begun this morning on the courts of the Longwood Cricket Club, Malcolm T. Hill and John Doeg, juniors, and David Scott in the boys' group, were successful in their progress toward the finals.

Hill found his opponent, Charles Devens, fairly easy, winning by a onesided 6—2, 6—1 score. Doeg, who provided yesterday's sensation in his match with Alfred H. Chapin, Jr., disposed of Charles Parker after a struggle, Parker forcing him all of the way. The count was 6—4, 7—5.

The first boys' third round match to be completed saw David Scott wining from Frank Stowell in another hard-fought fray, 7—5, 6—4.

The junior doubles matches also will begin today. Howe Bancroft won his third round junior match from Maurice Bronstein, 6—3, 6—1, and in the boy's tourney Arthur Noble defeated Louis Volpe, Jr., 6—2, 6—4.

DOUBLES SEEDING.

The junior doubles team have been seeded as follows:

1—Malcolm T. Hill and Henry L. Johnson, Jr.
2—Howe Bancroft and John Doeg.
3—"Sandy" Wiener and Donald Strachan.
4—Berkeley Bell and Junior Coen.

The only teams seeded in the boys' doubles are:

1—Arthur Noble and David Scott.
2—S. Niles and Louis Volpe, Jr.

Helen Wills Reveals Secrets of Skill

Helen Wills, pre-eminent among American women in the world of tennis, read the Associated Press interview C. B. Reeler obtained with Bobby Jones, the world's golf champion. Interested that tennis may keep its rightful place along with golf in the sentiment of all true lovers of sport, she responded to a request of the general manager of the Associated Press that she tell Miss Ethel M. Halsey how she learned tennis.

By ETHEL M. HALSEY.

New York, July 20 (A.P.).—An ardent hope for an increasing interest among young women in the sport she loves moved Helen Wills, once of California but now acclaimed as "Helen of America" to tell the Associated Press that "the fun in it" alone, is sufficient warrant for all young girls to take up tennis.

First off, let it be said that her story is one of discouragement to young players who hate the discipline of instruction, for, like Topsy, she believes she "just growed" into a tennis player.

"I played for fun. I practiced by playing games, not by drilling on strokes," she said. "I never bounced the ball against a barn-yard door. I played against those who could show me the simple principles of position and strokes and then I worked out my own technique.

"I was early impressed with the importance of footwork. I found that my serve was about the hardest thing for me and I worked quite hard trying to perfect it. But I did not do this by serving a lot of balls over the net at once. I did it in games as I went along. The result was that I never noticed any sudden mastery of a special stroke, but just found my game improving gradually, strengthening as I continued to play.

From the time I was fifteen I have played at least four times a week or oftener.

"Were your opponents always girls?"

MEN PLAY HARDER.

"Not at all. I played a good deal with men, as all girls should because by doing so they will harden and pull up their game. Then, too, men play the game harder and better and it is the best thing anyone can do to play against players better than herself and to play against players playing at their best. That is why match play is such a good thing, besides being more exciling than ordinary playing."

"All young tennis players should quickly get into tournament playing no matter how modest the tournament.

"My first year in the Berkeley tennis club brought me my first tournament at the age of fifteen. I was defeated, but I remember the big thrill that first tournament gave me.

"Mrs. Majorie Wale Kress beat me in the first round, but I was pleased with myself because I took a set. Mrs. Kress was then ranking fourth or fifth player in the State."

NO ADVANCE PLAN.

"How do you face a championship match?"

"I never plan ahead for matches, and I never remember them afterwards. I play all my tennis on the courts. While I am playing I am enjoying the fun of the game and the excitement of the match, and I am looking no further ahead than the next point.

"I find them exciting whether I am winning or losing, and no more nerve racking at set point than at first point.

"I never make a fetish of training. Merely go to bed early during tournament weeks, eat simple food and take care not to catch cold—that's about all. And I repeat that I don't worry about the matches. I have never felt any of the terrible tension so often described. I think I enjoy the game too much."

"How do you plan your attack in different matches?"

"It is impossible to do much planning ahead of time. One cannot tell what the opponent will do. One can't even tell how the match is going when it is going on—because it goes back and forth, teeters, from one side to the other.

HEADWORK IMPORTANT.

"I think a player makes a great mistake to try to alter her game in attacking particular opponents. She can vary her pace, but not change her game. To do so is an impossibility and will wreck the steadiest game.

"It is also important to remember to use one's head. Young players usually forget to. Older ones, more experienced at the game, become craftier."

"Can you remember certain matches that have been more than usually thrilling to you?" Miss Wills was asked.

"I think Wimbledon two years ago thrilled me more than anything else I've ever taken part in. It was the first time I'd played there, and I went to the final match of three sets. Anyone who has been there knows the excitement of Wimbledon—the zest in the air."

"You want more girls to play tennis. How can that be brought about?"

NEEDS ENCOURAGEMENT.

"If more schools would only encourage children to play tennis," she observed, "we'd be bringing along a lots bigger crop of promising young girl tennis players today.

"Or if the playgrounds superintendents could be induced to include courts in the usual plan—wouldn't it be nice?

"We need to do something like that in this country. England and France are getting far ahead of us in the number of capable girls they are getting ready for championships."

Why Helen Wills Wins

New York, July 20.—In discussing how she played in her championship matches, Helen Wills today gave ten points for the use of would-be champions of the court as follows:

First—Get plenty of practice.

Second—Choose a variety of opponents.

Third—Get fun out of your playing.

Fourth—Have good equipment — this means a good racquet, well-strung, good balls, a decent court, and comfortable clothes.

Fifth—Watch good players and tournament matches, not to copy, but to unconsciously absorb the rhythm of the game.

Sixth—Play with players better than yourself.

Seventh—Develop your foot-work on the court.

Eighth—Don't "fool" on the court; concentrate on doing your best.

Ninth—Relax completely before and after games.

Tenth—And most important—NEVER GIVE UP.

Big Series Hero Passes to Minors

New York, July 20 (A.P.)—John (Red) Oldham, left-handed pitcher, probably has gone out of the major leagues forever, but he pitched one inning that has taken a prominent place in baseball history.

He entered the final game in the World's Series last Fall as the Pittsburgh moundsman after the Pirates had taken a lead of two runs. Rain fell in torrents, but the veteran refused to be moved by the elements.

He struck out Sam Rice, caused Stanley Harris to pop to Moore and then fanned the ever-dangerous Goose Goslin.

SCULLERS DAY BEHIND MARK

One day behind their schedule but making excellent time, the two Harvard scullers, Dr. Thomas K. Richards and Edward Wachter were reported off the mouth of the Potomac river on their way from Norfolk, Va., to Boston.

Stormy weather was blamed for the delay in the schedule. The two men were averaging between 50 and 60 miles a day, and expressed confidence that they will reach the Hub by August 1.

Bob Meusel Back Two Weeks Hence

New York, July 20.—Bob Meusel will be back in the Yankees' lineup in two weeks. He will not be able to go West with the team when it departs next Sunday night for St. Louis, but he will be on the job for the series in Chicago, which begins on Saturday, July 31, or in Cleveland for the series beginning August 4.

The cast has been taken off Bob's injured foot and it is now just a question of regaining strength.

BOYS PLAY AT TEPEE JULY 28

Arrangements are practically completed for a game to be played at Braves Field, July 28, between Southern Junior High and Brookline Junior High. These two teams are regarded as the leading Junior High teams of Greater Boston.

Coaches Carver and Ball of Somerville and Brookline teams respectively are to confer with Judge Fuchs at Braves Field today

July Begins the Second Half of Our Diamond Jubilee Year
a Month of Exceptional Values!
Here Is An Example:

Beginning Wednesday

Beginning Wednesday

650
Men's Athletic Union-Suits
1.15
Usually 1.50 to 2.00

These suits are well tailored and cut full with taped arm holes and necks; web insertion in the back.

White Striped Madras
Fancy Weave Madras
Checked Mesh

Sizes 34 to 50

In Our Main Store

Summer Street Entrance

Jordan Marsh Company

Jordan Marsh Company

Tex Rickard is still in the field for that Tunney-Dempsey bout. He is reported to have the right sort of backing in Chicago

EVENING AMERICAN SPORTS

Both Jack Sharkey and Jim Maloney's managers are doing their utmost to put their fighters in New York. Paddy Mullins has the final say in the matter

RICKARD STILL MUM ON DEMPSEY-TUNNEY FIGHT

TEX FAILS TO REVEAL BOUT SITE

Chicago and New York Hold the Spotlight as Battle Lines Are Drawn

By GEORGE A. STRICKLER,
I. N. S. Staff Correspondent.

Chicago, July 20.—Tex Rickard and the proposed Dempsey-Tunney bout today were just where the world left them yesterday and many days previous; one still in the offing, the other in the throes of statements and counter statements, hastily making new promises to replace those broken yesterday.

At the appointed hour last night Rickard failed to weigh in with his formal announcement regarding the site of the fight and the identity of the mysterious "committee of five" with which he is convening.

Among the intelligensia this morning, however, there was a tendency to accept with marked sincerity a rumor linking the officials of the Policemen's Benevolent Association of Chicago with the identity of these "five biggest men in town."

The policemen's representatives, the report ran, are dickering for the bout as a substitute for their annual track and field benefit, scheduled for late in the Summer.

Rickard intimated that his formal statement would be forthcoming today, and that he was not in the least worried over the threatened interference of the Coliseum A. C., which purports to hold Dempsey's signature to a contract for Wills bout here.

"Dempsey analyzed their contracts and agreement to me at the time he signed with me in Little Rock last May," Rickard said.

The Illinois State Boxing Commission has been silent. As far as it was concerned, Secretary Con O'Brien said, the fight was still a rumor. No formal application to stage it had been made to the commission.

It is a matter of record, though, that a local promoter was refused a license last week to feature a heavyweight bout, the commission rejecting his application with the dictum that it was not in favor of heavyweight fights in the State during the first year of legalized boxing. A dempsey-Tunney match might cause them to reflect and repent, however.

Gotham Bosses May Fix Place for Crown Conflict

New York, July 20 (I.N.S.).—The location of the proposed heavyweight fight between Jack Dempsey and Gene Tunney may be determined here this afternoon at the weekly meeting of the New York State Athletic commission.

James A. Farley, chairman of the commission, declared that the commission positively would not issue a license for the fight, while William Muldoon, another member of the board, said he would do everything in his power to prevent the bout from slipping away from New York.

Although Promoter Tex Rickard is known to prefer New York as the site of the bout, indications were that he would be forced to stage it elsewhere. So far the New York commission has been opposed to such a bout until Dempsey has met Harry Wills, the colored challenger.

Mays Leads Reds Into Flag Folds

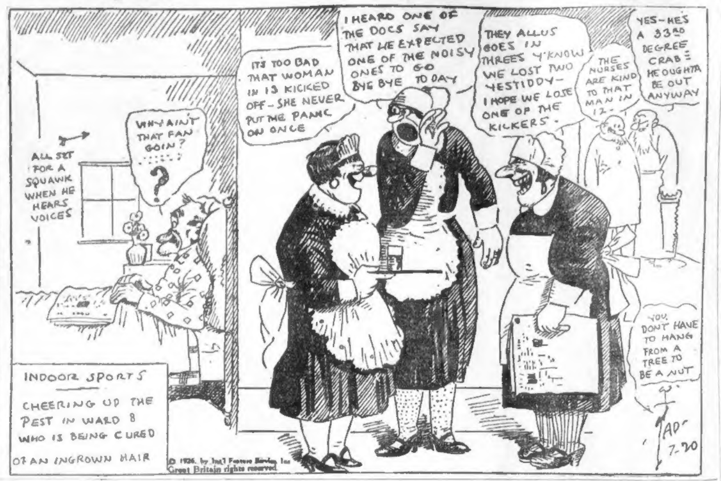
Carl Mays, veteran of four World Series, may be the means of carrying Cincinnati to its first title opportunity since 1919.

There was something underhanded about that 1919 series in which Cincinnati downed the Chicago White Sox and "Black Sox," and there is something underhand about Carl Mays. But with Mays it is a pitching arm that has survived the warfare of both major leagues since 1915. He starts the ball from his shoetops, whence comes the description "submarine ball."

Mays was in two championship series for the Boston Red Sox and two for the New York Yankees. He is reported to have cost the Yankees $75,000 in 1919. He was sold to Cincinnati in 1923.

Everything—where to get it and price. Classified Ads.

Indoor Sports -:- -:- -:- By TAD



ALL SET FOR A SQUAWK WHEN HE HEARS VOICES
WHY AIN'T THAT FAN GOIN?
?
IT'S TOO BAD THAT WOMAN IN 13 KICKED OFF—SHE NEVER PUT ME PANIC ON ONCE
I HEARD ONE OF THE DOCS SAY THAT HE EXPECTED ONE OF THE NOISY ONES TO GO BYE BYE TO DAY
THEY ALLUS GOES IN THREES Y'KNOW WE LOST TWO YESTIDDY—I HOPE WE LOSE ONE OF THE KICKERS—
THE NURSES ARE KIND TO THAT MAN IN 12—
YES—HE'S A 33RD DEGREE CRAB—HE OUGHTA BE OUT ANYWAY
YOU DON'T HAVE TO HANG FROM A TREE TO BE A NUT
INDOOR SPORTS
CHEERING UP THE PEST IN WARD 8 WHO IS BEING CURED OF AN INGROWN HAIR
TAD 7-20

© 1926, by Int'l Feature Service, Inc. Great Britain rights reserved.

WHITE SOX END SERIES HERE TODAY

By NICK FLATLEY.

THE first chance in months of getting the joyfully long end of a series confronts the Red Sox this afternoon. If the Leefohls can smack the Chisox once more they will have gathered three games out of four, something as surprising, almost, as the result of the David-Goliath go.

The visiting Sox romped off with the Monday pastime, which was natural enough. Pennant contenders have to win a few here and there. But Eddie Collins had his moments of worry, and a native rally in the last chapter almost tied the game up.

Nick Flatley

As the St. Louis Browns were being smeared by the recovered Yanks, the Red Sox defeat didn't mean much in the famous cellar situation. The boys have been down around Mister Johnson's coal bin for so long that they seem to be part of the scenery.

They have collected ideas of moving elsewhere in the last week or so, and said movement depends entirely on the Browns. If the Sisler team can remain in its chronic slump, the Fohls have a chance. And they consider each day that they don't lose any percentage points sort of a moral victory.

* * *

THE Chicago test concludes this p. m. and clears the decks for a six-game setto with the aforementioned Browns. A final victory over Eddie Collins would give the boys a flying start for that important embroglio, which isn't the right word exactly, but means what we mean.

Whitey Wiltse, the ace of the Fenway flock, will do the afternoon's pitching, as Fred Heimach proved yesterday that the invaders don't like southpaws much more than managers do. Fred wasn't lucky enough to get a few runs to work on, or he might have escaped.

Need any female help? Turn to the Classified Ads.

OPINION OF LEADING HANDICAPPERS

AT EMPIRE.

BEST—Lachen.

1—Headway	22 points
Kay Anderson	20 points
Ibby	20 points
2—Gold Button	19 points
Ragweed	19 points
All In All	16 points
3—McAuliffe	21 points
Judicial	18 points
Aalta	16 points
4—Lachen	31 points
Tester	12 points
Bruns	12 points
5—John S. Mosby	20 points
Frigate	19 points
Sonny	16 points
6—Northland	28 points
Glensprite	24 points
The Heathen	20 points

AT RACELAND.

BEST—St. Augustine.

1—Squander	16 points
Bullet Joe	15 points
Mission Chimes	15 points
2—Queen of Sheba	17 points
Vennie Sue	16 points
Sunday Clothes	15 points
3—St. Augustine	26 points
Jolly Boy	16 points
Only Star	14 points
4—Widgeon	19 points
Blarney Stone	17 points
Firth of Tay	16 points
5—New Moon	20 points
Chopsticks	18 points
Alice Lang	14 points
6—John A. Scott, Jr.	22 points
Guy Clayton	16 points
Tailteann	16 points
7—Frances Louise	14 points
Aircastle	14 points
Sasper	12 points

At Empire

FIRST RACE.

Headway, Partington	4-1
Menton	8-1
Ibby	2-1
Golden Belle, H. Richards	6-1
Baby Garr, F. Weiner	6-1
Kay Anderson, F. Catrone	6-1
Durie M.	8-1
Ropes End, A. Fuerst	81
Fair Cuba, A. Johnson	8-1
Joan Shirley, R. Hoade	12-1
Gnome's Lass, F. Stevens	12-1
Simon's Kiss, A. Collins	12-1
Band o' Purple, B. Breuning	20-1
Rocksal, E. Kummer	20-1
Phyllis Wood, R. Carter	20-1
Eufrasia	20-1
Bandoline, E. Fewell	20-1

SECOND RACE.

Forget Me Not, H. Richards	5-1
Ragweed, F. Catrone	3-1
All In All, E. Kummer	4-1
Gold Button, H. Wakoff	4-1
Gnome Girl, L. Fator	5-1
Instructress, Mortensen	8-1
Pin Cushion	10-1
Grace H.	10-1
Circus Rider, E. Barnes	12-1
Flighty	12-1
Winsome	12-1
New Hope, G. Arnold	15-1
Janetta R. Carter	15-1
Prattle	15-1
Taffy Girl	20-1
Donetta, J. Callahan	20-1
Miss Nantura, R. Haviland	20-1
Honey Girl 2nd	20-1
Meridian	20-1
Elouiden	20-1

THIRD RACE.

Salta, F. Stevens	3-1
Wampee, A. Vessell	3-1
Judicial, H. Richards	5-1
McAuliffe, G. Fields	2-1
Clique, F. Coltiletti	8-1

FOURTH RACE.

Lachen, L. Fator	7-5
Tester	8-1
Enjoyment	6-1
Basquaise, F. Catrone	7-5
Forward Pass, B. Breuning	6-1
Mayne, C. Turner	10-1
Kilter	1. .10-1
Professor, P. Fisher	10-1
Bruns, J. Kellum	10-1
Roland, E. Barnes	12-1
Saratoga Maje J. Callahan	12-1
Apple Cross, F. Weiner	12-1
Haut et Bon, H. Shillick	20-1
Night March	20-1
Commissioner Cahill	20-1
Prattle, G. Arnold	20-1

FIFTH RACE.

Tempeste, Mortensen	2-1
Dubrio, J. Kellum	4-1
John S. Mosby	5-1
Frigate, McAuliffe	6-1
Kumonin, E. Barnes	6-1
Sonny	8-1
Dream of the Valley, J. Callahan	8-1
Vie, F. Catrone	10-1
Blether	15-1
Barracks, R. Haviland	20-1
Glorianes, Blackburn	15-1
Glenmore, E. Kummer	20-1
Transfer, F. Reilly	20-1
Mite	20-1

SIXTH RACE.

Northland, H. Richards	7-5
Glen Sprite, L. Fator	8-5
The Heathen	4-1
Crystal Pennant, F. Weiner	15-1
Cyclamen	20-1
Jonah	20-1
Harbor, McAuliffe	20-1
Fairy Maiden	20-1

At Raceland

FIRST RACE.

5—Winchester	20-1
7—Bullet Joe, E. Barnes	8-5
4—The Nephew, A. Roach	5-1
2—Mission Chimes, F. Horn	5-2
1—Squander, F. Maguire	4-1
6—Ruby Lovell, G. Philpot	15-1
3—Barrister, F. Merimee	15-1

SECOND RACE.

5—Queen of Sheba, D. Smith	6-1
3—Sunday Clothes, R. Zucchini	3-1
7—Golden Laura, G. Philpot	3-1
1—Arabella	4-1
4—Tim Gleason	5-1
2—Vennie Sue, R. Cheathem	8-1
6—Sleepy Dick	20-1

THIRD RACE.

1—Only Star, R. Zucchini	8-5
4—Jolly Boy, F. Maguire	5-2
3—St. Augustine, F. Merimee	4-1
5—Neatness, J. Sylvia	6-1
2—Bonny Castle, R. Cheathem	6-1

FOURTH RACE.

5—Battle On, G. Philpot	8-5
3—Harry B., Trenchard	6-1
6—Mighty, J. Sylvia	4-1
6—Widgeon	4-1
4—Blarney Stone, R. Cheathem	8-1
7—Firth of Tay	10-1
1—Escarpolette, F. Maguire	15-1

FIFTH RACE.

6—New Moon, D. Smith	4-1
3—Chopsticks, J. Sylvia	8-5
5—Doll Evans, F. Bayliss	8-1
1—Stay On	8-1
2—Alice Lang, F. Horn	7-2
4—Flying Spark, Hainsworth	15-1

SIXTH RACE.

6—J. A. Scott, Jr., A. Roach	20-1
2—Brown Betty, J. Sylvia	5-1
9—Guy Clayton, D. Smith	5-1
6—Tailteann	4-1
7—Dukedom, F. Horn	6-1
8—Hampton Miss, F. Maguire	8-1
1—Phyllis Gentry, J. McTague	8-1
10—Return	15-1
11—Red Seth, R. Zucchini	15-1
2—Red	20-1
4—Countess Claridge	[illegible]

SEVENTH RACE.

3—Hot Dog, D. Smith	5-2
1—Air Castle	4-1
4—Frances Louise, J. Sylvia	8-5
2—Sasper	6-1
6—Alice Loraine	8-1
5—Prince Lightfoot, F. Maguire	10-1

WEEKLY RACING GUIDE CODE—Dorval, Goldmark; Washington Park, Foolscap.

CLOCKERS' REVIEW FREE CODES—Kanduit and Carefree.

THE GRAPHIC FRE CODES—Betsy Bason and Foolscap.

WEEKLY FLASH—Free codes Kings Court and Blue Mask.

STAR FLASH FREE CODES—Sanadar.

BULLETIN HANDICAPPERS BEST BETS—Empire, Salta; Kenilworth, Missouri entry, first race; Dorval, Phanariot; Raceland, Battle On; Washington, Kanduit; Maple Heights, Rockford.

Table of Runs
DAY'S HIGH—LOW SCORES

AMERICAN LEAGUE.

Monday—High, New York 11.
Monday—Low, Cleveland 1.

	S	M	T	W	T	F	S	Tls
BOSTON	*	4	1	*	a8	*	7	20
New York	0	11	4	7	2	4	3	31
Cleveland	[illegible]	1	5	*	a6	6	3	29
St. Louis	[illegible]	2	2	*	*	a6	2	16
Washington	3	4	13	2	*	0	5	27
Chicago	*	5	9	10	*	*	5	29
Detroit	*	3	5	6	7	3	4	28
Philadelphia	*	3	3	*	*	a3	7	16
Totals	12	38	43	25	23	29	31	201

*No game.
aTwo games.

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Monday—High, Pittsburgh 10.
Monday—Low, Brooklyn 2.

	S	M	T	W	T	F	S	Tls
BOSTON	*	4	1	6	1	7	9	28
Brooklyn	2	2	10	5	5	8	5	37
St. Louis	9	3	12	2	11	7	13	57
Cincinnati	1	5	10	5	6	*	4	31
Philadelphia	7	4	7	1	8	*	5	32
New York	1	5	*	17	0	*	8	31
Chicago	2	9	2	4	3	*	3	23
Pittsburgh	*	10	*	10	3	9	7	39
Totals	22	42	42	50	37	31	54	278

*No game.

WARNER LAUDS NEW METHODS IN FOOTBALL

Carlisle, Pa., July 20 (A.P.).—Back to the scenes of his first conquests, Glenn (Pop) Warner, former coach of the Carlisle Indian football team, now coach at Leland Stanford, California, today made some striking comparisons between football as it was once played in the East and as now played in the West.

Coach Warner, who is spending part of his vacation here, sees a notable rise in the standard of the game, in the personnel of the coaching staffs and in the popularity of the game itself.

He found little room for criticism of the so-called "commercialism" of football as a college sport. Football makes money, he admitted, but if this money is used legitimately, he believes its profits can be defended. He cited instances at the University of Pittsburgh, where he was coach before going to the coast, and at Leland Stanford, where football profits built additional campus buildings.

One reason for increased popularity of the game, he believes, is the fact that spectators "understand" football better than they did.

Coaching is better, he said, because the younger coaches are now attending schools for coaches, because colleges and universities are taking greater care in their selection and because many schools require the coach to be a member of the faculty.

"Colleges today are paying more attention to the character of the coach," he said. "They realize that there is a close contact between student and coach, and that the coach may exercise as great or greater influence over the student than any other member of the faculty.

As the man who developed the "open game" to a high degree of success in the days of "Jim" Thorpe, Frank Mt. Pleasant, Emil Hauser, Gus Welsh and other famous "end runners" of the old Carlisle Indian team, he stressed the trend toward open football in the West.

LEWISTON SURE TO FINISH IN LEAGUE

By GEORGE GRIMM.

President Claude B. Davidson of the New England League today stated that the circuit would remain intact to the season's close.

George Grimm

For some time a report has persisted that the Lewiston club was to disband.

Davidson said: "For almost a week I was in Lewiston with Judge Brann, who has an interest in the Lewiston club, and also with a group of leading business men who made a financial drive which was very successful. In fact, the Lewiston outfit is a community affair with all hands interested in the team and the league.

"Poor weather is the cause of the dragging of both Mainec lubs, Lewiston and Portland," continued Davidson. "You see, when it is cold here in Boston it is just about 20 degrees colder down in Maine," went on the New England Leaguep rexy.

There is plenty of action in the league, with only seven and one-half games separating the first team from the last. Each day for the last two weeks the clubs have been shifting positions in the championship fight.

Lynn and Manchester are going strong financially, while Haverhill is doing great business on Saturdays. Salem is going well, so is Nashua, while Lawrence is just going along at a fair rate.

It is doubtful whether Lewiston or Portland will make any money but they have financial resources on which to draw from and they will positively stay in the fray.

Golf Notes

Golf fans who want a real kick should go out to Woodland this week and watch those Juniors burn up that course. Many of those youngsters, hardly as tall as their clubs, can shoot a wonderful game of golf.

Francis Ouimet will not be in the Jaques Cup tournament this season. He plans to be out of town on a business trip during the entire month of August.

The Winchester Country Club will play a team match with Tedesco at the Swampscott course on Thursday of this week.

The announcement that the Hatherley Country Club was going to hold a two-day open tournament was the best piece of news the golfers have heard this season. The old Hatherley open attracted the biggest fields in the country. There were 317 starters in the last Hatherley tournament.

Bill Blaney of Brae Burn and Joe Batchelder of Salem will team up in the coming Jaques Cup tournament. This Williams-Dartmouth combination will take considerable beating before they are eliminated.

All roads will lead to the Norfolk Golf Club on Friday and Saturday. The Dedham Club is staging a two-day open handicap medal play tournament. The boys never miss a Norfolk open.

The failure of any of the M. G. A. officials to be present at the finals at Brae Burn last Saturday was widely commented upon. Francis Ouimet, who is a member of the handicap committee refereed the Wright-Newton match.

Have you lost anything? It may be found in Classified.

115 Golfers to Compete in Junior Tourney

By BILL GRIMES.

Although Ralph Munro, the present champion, will not defend the title, he won at Tedesco last year, there never was more interest in a Massachusetts junior championship, which opens tomorrow with an 18-hole qualifying round at the Woodland Golf Club.

There will be 115 juniors fighting for the 32 match play berths and some exceptionally high calibre golf will be exhibited.

Charlie Grasse, who was the finalist with Munro last year, is the favorite. He is a much improved golfer over last season. There are few players in the game, who get more distance than the boy from Mt. Pleasant. He hits them high, wide and handsome off the tees and through the fairgreens and ruin awaits the aspirants for Massachusetts junior honors who enters into a slugging contest with Grasse.

Eddie Murphy, who has been playing but little golf this season, and who was put out of the running last year in the Juniors by Grasse, has thrown his hat into the ring and is confident that he will square matters with his Lowell boy.

Marshall Forrest, a former Junior champion, who lost his title at Tedesco, is out to regain old honors. Forrest will be more effective at Woodland than he was at Tedesco. He is very wild off the tee. At Tedesco he was severely penalized for his lack of discretion, at Woodland, there are a number of holes on which he can get away with his errant drives, without cost.

Jimmy Conroy and Joe Lynch of Brookline both have sufficient ability to upset all the dope. Conroy was beaten in the semi-finals by Munro last year but few better exhibitions have ever been seen in a Junior championship. The breaks were against Conroy during the entire round.

Johnnie English, from the Plymouth Country Club, and John Merwin of Concord, are both dangerous. English won the first net at Plymouth last season, and is far better and more experienced player than he was at Tedesco.

RANCOCAS STABLE DOES WELL AT EMPIRE CITY

New York, N. Y., July 20.—Despite a shortage of juveniles, the Rancocas Stable is not faring badly at Empire City. All the older horses are in fine shape and doing well for Sinclair and Hildreth. The youngsters have been on the slow side since suffering from coughing, such as hit many two-year-olds at Belmont early in the Spring. They'll be sharp and ready for Saratoga racing and will take considerable beating.

COACH CROMWELL TO RETURN TO TROJANS

New York, N. Y., July 20.—Indications point to the return of Coach Dean Cromwell to the University of Southern California as mentor of its track team during 1927, according to reports coming from the coast. Cromwell, who coached the Trojans to another intercollegiate A. A. A. A. championship during the recently ended season, is reported to have received many offers to coach in the East.

Here it is the new and different pipe tobacco

"Half and Half" is great for cigarettes—smooth, fragrant, and rolls easily.

Guaranteed by The American Tobacco Co. incorporated

FENWAY PARK
Today at 3:15 P. M.
RED SOX vs. CHICAGO
Seats at Horace Partridge's. Liberty 6070

LINEUP AT FENWAY PARK

White Sox	Ab	Bh	Ave	Red Sox	Ab	Bh	Ave
Mostel, cf	338	116	.343	Flagstead, cf	361	108	.299
Hunnefield, ss	270	82	.304	Rigney, ss	297	83	.279
Collins, 2b	309	104	.337	Todt, 1b	347	96	.277
Falk, lf	343	126	.367	Jacobson, rf	305	100	[illegible]
Sheely, 1b	336	101	.301	Shaner, lf	71	22	.310
Bouett, rf	185	53	[illegible]	Regan, 2b	152	42	.276
Kamm, 3b	262	82	.313	Haney, 3b	284	63	.222
Grabowski, c	66	19	.288	Stokes, c	41	7	.171
Thurston, p	35	8	.229	Wiltse, p	34	4	.118
Team	3045	905	.297	Team	2968	780	.262

HOW THE TEAMS WILL STAND TONIGHT.

	Win	Lose		Win	Lose
White Sox	.533	.522	Red Sox	.318	.307

The Y. M. H. A. of Lynn has one of the best baseball teams in the State. They are undefeated thus far this season

EVENING AMERICAN SPORTS

Harold Wiltse, Red Sox port sider, is one of the most dependable hurlers on Lee Fohl's staff this season.

WILLS TO FIGHT SHARKEY, MALONEY, RENAULT

SCRAMBLE TO STAGE BIG BOUT

Big Negro Looks Like Gold Mine to Gotham Promoters

By JACK CONWAY

HARRY WILLS is going to fight next month. His opponent will be Jack Sharkey, Jim Maloney or Jack Renault. Just now Sharkey has the call.

Wills' fistic rival will probably be named this week. Paddy Mullins, manager of the negro, will make known the selection.

Wills looks like a gold mine to Greater New York promoters. They are remaining awake nights trying to devise ways and means to induce Mullins to sign on the dotted line.

Meanwhile Paddy is touring with Pete Latzo, world's welterweight champion. When asked to sign Wills for a fight, Paddy answers "Wait a few days and see what develops."

Jack Conway

Mullins has been re[illegible]ring to the Dempsey situation. He felt that the [illegible] would fight Wills this year. The Tunney boom was then launched. At first it did not amount to a great deal, but it increased in power as Spring came and upon the arrival of Summer it was a 100 to 1 shot that the former marine would receive preference over the New Orleans stevedore.

Tex Rickard, who has Dempsey signed, has now named Tunney as the champion's next opponent in a bout to be staged on September 16. This means Wills is "out" for another year at least.

RICKARD would like to stage a Wills-Renault bout in New York. He also has Maloney under consideration.

Jimmy DeForrest of the Polo Grounds wants to promote a Wills-Sharkey battle. So does Joe Jacobs, who operates at the Coney Island Stadium.

Lew Raymond also favors a Wills-Sharkey mill and would like to put it in at either the Yankee Stadium or the Polo Grounds.

Sharkey's easy victory over Eddie Huffman at Madison Square Gardens last Winter has given him the edge in the scramble for a tussle with Wills. Then too, the Brighton heavyweight has been very much in the limelight during the past few weeks owing to the hearings before the New York Boxing Commission on the question of allowing Jack Delaney to invade the heavyweight class for a bout with Sharkey.

DO not overlook Maloney in sizing up the heavyweight situation. The South Boston fighter has shown fine form and [illegible] started his comeback drive. He knocked out Joe Stoessel and gave Charley Cook a frightful hammering, counting with seven knockdowns.

You will probably soon have an opportunity to get a close-up of Maloney in action in a Boston ring. It is our hope that he is pitted against one of the headliners in the heavyweight class so that it will be possible to get a real line on his present ability.

WITH Al Mello stricken with appendicitis, New England will be deprived of one of its most colorful boxers for some time. Mello, according to his doctors, was probably suffering from appendicitis for several months as his condition [illegible] chronic. This explains why he looked so weak every time he was hit a hard blow in the body. Only [illegible] remarkable courage enabled him to carry on under such [illegible]ons.

CYCLE CLASSIC CARDED IN NEW YORK TONIGHT

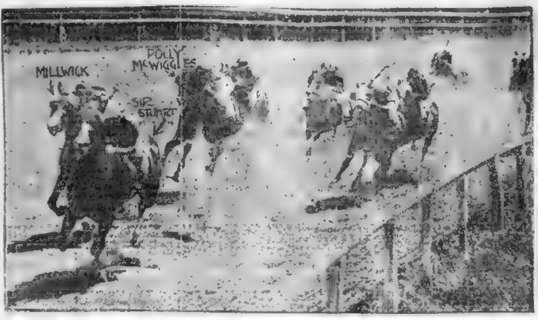
Five of the best motor-paced followers will compete in the forty-mile race at the New York Velodrome tonight. International favor is added to the race with three American [illegible] Italy's premier paced follower and the world's champion from France. The starters will be Robert Grassin of France, Vincent Madonna of Italy and the American stars George Chapman, the champion, Charley Jaeger, the youth from Newark, and Victor Hopkins, the Iowa corn husker, who won the race last Friday night, defeating, among others, Grassin.

LEOMINSTER ROVERS TO PLAY NORTON COMPANY

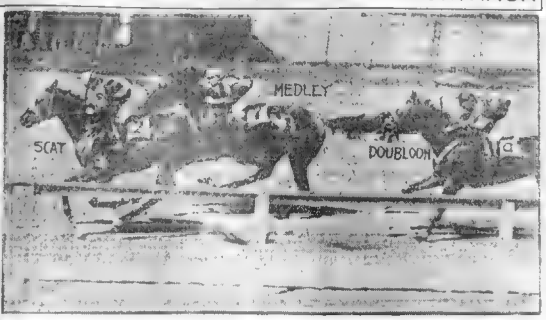
The Leominster Rovers A. C. will play the Norton Company team of Worcester in Leominster tomorrow evening. The Rovers have defeated some of the best teams in the country this season, but the game Wednesday will be about the toughest opposition they have met so far.

Additional Sports on Page 20

LOOK AT THESE TWO NERVE WRACKING BRUSHES ON THE EMPIRE CITY RACETRACK



SIR STUART ROMPS OFF WITH COLUMBIA HANDICAP
Jackie Field rode a heady race in the fourth race at Empire City and piloted Sir Stuart home to grab the bacon. Milliwck was the contender with Polly McWiggles wiggling into third place.



SCAT SCATS HOME FIRST AT EMPIRE TRACK
Photo shows Scat thundering around the turn into the home stretch in his winning effort in the first at Empire yesterday. Medley galloped into second place and Doubloon was more than a length behind at the windup. (Photos by I.N.R.)

WALKER IS HERE FOR GO WITH MURPHY

[illegible] New York Hebrew, [illegible] a champion [illegible] Sammy Man[illegible] of the [illegible] to put [illegible] to his training [illegible] 10-round [illegible] Murphy of [illegible] junior light[illegible] the Revere Cycle Track on Thursday night.

Walker will [illegible] today at Jim Toland's Hanover Street Gym [illegible] is expected [illegible] large [illegible] Walker's [illegible] has never been beaten in a [illegible] and he [illegible] here [illegible] a [illegible] [illegible]lahan. [illegible] on the [illegible] Coast in hopes of winning the lightweight crown.

Walker realizes he is picking out a difficult opponent in Murphy, who [illegible] Murphy showed renewed life after meeting Kid Kaplan in this city. The Lowell boy picked up considerable ring knowledge against Kaplan [illegible]

[illegible] Mackey [illegible] have [illegible] Murphy's recent [illegible]

[illegible] that Conroy, formerly of Cambridge [illegible] Lowe[illegible], Waltham Sheridan [illegible] and Kennedy from Somerville [illegible] The contest [illegible] in the [illegible] Somerville and South Boston deadlocked for first place which [illegible]

Golfers Compete

New York, July 20.—This afternoon the Belleclaire Golf and Country Club, [illegible] will be the scene of [illegible] competition between the [illegible] the New York Hotel Men's [illegible] Last year a handsome silver [illegible] was won by the hotel men as the prize. This has to be won three times before permanent possession is gained.

The tournament proper will be preceded by a buffet luncheon and after the golf there will be a beef steak dinner.

Delaney Eclipses Champs in Getting Title Dough

By BIRNEY P. LYNCH

JACK DELANEY'S "bit" for winning the world's light heavyweight boxing crown in his joust with Paul Berlenbach is the largest sum of money paid any of the present titleholders in their crown lifting battles.

Delaney received $100,000 as his end of the Ebbets Field conflict, reports that his portion was $49,229 to the contrary, notwithstanding.

This is nearly double the amount of money received by the entire crop of other fistic kings in their championship battles.

* * *

JACK DEMPSEY, monarch of the big fellows, drew down a paltry $2[illegible],000 for his hectic three-round victory over the lumbering Jess Willard at Toledo on July 14, 1919.

Sammy Mandell, the newly crowned lightweight champion, lost $15,000 on the title venture, as he and his manager, Eddie Kane, guaranteed Kansas $50,000 and "gambled" on the gate receipts of the Chicago classic.

Tiger Flowers, middleweight champ, was handed a meager $8,000 for his winning jamboree against the Pittsburgh windmill, Harry Greb. Fidel LeBarba drew down approximately $8,000 for taking the measure of Frankie Genaro. Tod Morgan enriched himself about $5,000 for lifting the junior lightweight toga from the shoulders of Mike Ballerino. Kid Kaplan, the retired featherweight titlist, annexed about $12,000 for his victory over Danny Kramer. Phil Rosenberg was awarded $6,000 for his victorious onslaught on Pepper Martin in which he won the laurel wreath.

* * *

RECAPITULATION shows that all the present champions drew but $54,000 for their title winning combats. Mandell's financial flop on the battle with Kansas brings the total down to this insignificant figure.

It is said that Delaney was guaranteed $100,000 for his bout with Berlenbach bu Humbert Fugazy, the promoter. Therefore, Fugazy was compelled to pay, out of his own pockets, the difference between the 12½ per cent. of the gate receipts or $49,229 and $100,000.

In passing, it may be of interest to note that the average man receives less than $1,600 per year and that it would take him something like 65 years to earn as much as Delaney was handed for 45 minutes effort.

TWILIGHT LEAGUE GOSSIP

by EDDIE DONDERO

SINCE Cambridge has seceded from Twilight League headquarters Louis Cote, father of two great ball players, attempts a novel experiment. Mr. Cote, who was touted as the most valuable player in the old New England League, many, many years ago, probably will replace the "Cantabs" with his St. John's semi-professional team.

* * *

HE has forwarded his intentions of doing so to President Doc Mooney and the proposition will appear before the board of directors at the next meeting. Cote insists that Leahy has forfeited his franchise therefore making it possible for him to furnish Cambridge fans with Twilight baseball.

* * *

THE players that will make their bow on this new club will include Jackie Cote, son of the famous Louis. Warren Cote, farmed out to Toledo by the New York Giants, would become a member of the strategy board. Frank McGowan, Horan and Gibson also are in line for permanent jobs if the project materializes.

* * *

THREE games are on tonight's docket and each no doubt will attract numerous fans from spacious Greater Boston. Fore River and Waltham stage a baseball drama in the Watch City. Lynn growls its defy at South Boston and Malden is an honored guest at Somerville.

* * *

"COLLEGIATES" is the nickname that has been tagged on the Waltham pastimers. Stan Lyons, Dartmouth, and Donald McDonald, of Boston University, are a combination of "Rah Rah" flingers who will serve 'em up to the enemy batsmen.

* * *

SOMERVILLE, with Curly Edes, captain-elect at Brown University, Danny Silva and Albert Lindi, has been strengthened. Lindi was turned out to Johnny Norton by the Malden club, who obtained him from New Orleans. He is a versatile performer who is capable of carving out many victories.

* * *

MANAGER JOE O'GORMAN, the old B. C. and Charlestown Center pitcher, and present manager of the Boston P. O. team, national postal champions, has filed an application with President Mooney for the berth vacated by Cambridge in the Boston Twilight League. If [illegible]ed, he plans to play all home games at Sullivan square. The members of the team, former Twi League stars, are mostly Charlestown boys. Four pitchers and three catchers have been signed up in anticipation of the team being admitted this week.

* * *

JOE KENDRICK, rated as one of the best managers in the circuit, because his ideas are his own, has added Lefty McLaughlin to his detachment of smart warriors. The signing of McLaughlin to a Dorchester contract brings the team up to par with any other club in the family and there are no ifs and don'ts about it. McLaughlin, like Dazzy Vance, is a strike-out demon, relying upon a sharp breaking curve ball.

* * *

BOBBY WARE in center field, flanked by Stuffy Sheehan and Kelleher, gives the South Boston Club the best balanced outfield in New England. Either of those gardeners can patrol acres and if a mileage meter were attached to their fleet extremities a world's record would be established. They can hit too.

* * *

FOUR PLY SOCKS are harder to obtain than triangular wedding rings. A statistical review inseparable companions-

P.A. and jimmy-pipe joy

YES, indeed. Prince Albert and pipe-pleasure go together like "fair and colder," "Romeo and Juliet," "song and dance." Inseparable companions . . . in fair weather and foul. Wherever you see one, you see the other. Prince Albert means jimmy-pipe joy . . . precisely that!

P. A. is cool as picnic lemonade. Cool and consoling when problems press. Sweet and fragrant as wind-blown blossoms. Mild with a mildness that lets you smoke all you want, morning to midnight. Yet with sufficient body to let you know you are smoking. Nicely balanced!

You'll like the taste of this fine old pipe tobacco. More men have liked it than any other brand. This is a matter of record. Quality through and through. Real tobacco for real men. That's Prince Albert. Kind to your tongue and throat. Friendly in spirit and friendly in fact.

If you haven't smoked P. A., you can't possibly know how much deep-down satisfaction that old jimmy-pipe can give you. No matter how set you think you are, buy a tidy red tin of Prince Albert today. Tamp a load into your pipe and take a deep drag. Good? You said it!

P. A. is sold everywhere in tidy red tins, pound and half-pound tin humidors, and pound crystal-glass humidors with sponge-moistener top. And always with every bit of bite and parch removed by the Prince Albert process.

PRINCE ALBERT

—no other tobacco is like it!

© 1926, R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, Winston-Salem, N. C.

WEALTHY HUB GREEK SUED

The sun shone high in the heavens today, but for Athens S[illegible] known also as S[illegible] and one of Boston's wealthiest Greeks it was a gloomy day indeed.

While Deputy [illegible] Chief Thomas M. Murray of Worcester was filing formal complaint in Worcester District Court charging a statutory offense against S[illegible] and Mrs. Anastasia [illegible] of Boston, her husband was attaching Spiliass property for more than $1[illegible] in the Hub.

The attachment was part of the proceedings in a $10[illegible] alienation of affections suit brought against Spiliass [illegible].

John H. Meagher, counsel for Spiliass in the Worcester [illegible] court case, and Harold H. Hartwell, counsel for Mrs. [illegible] in the same case, revealed the alienation of affections action.

In the Worcester case, when the complaint was made today, summonses were issued [illegible] for appearance in court on July 28, of employes of the Hotel Warren in Worcester.

Ruth K[illegible] of Warren street, Roxbury, was also summoned as a witness.

Separate Street for Student Autoists

Leominster, July 20 (A.P.)—Declaring that a beginner in the art of driving an automobile is a nuisance and a menace Chief Coulton of the Leominster police wants the city council to set aside a street in North Leominster for the use of student autoists during specified hours.

FOUR KILLED IN ITALY AS THRESHER EXPLODES

Potenza, Italy, July 20 (I.N.S.)—Four persons were killed and nine injured when a steam thresher exploded today [illegible] of the thresher, caused the explosion when he poured water into the tank, which was dry and white hot.

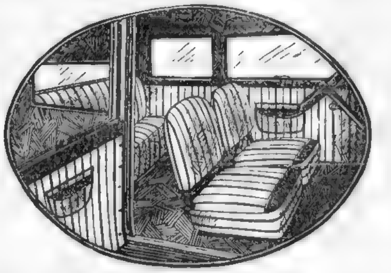
Need any male help? Turn to the Classified Ads.

PRINCE DIGS UP INDIAN GRAVES

Mesa Verde National Park, Col., July 20.—With a pick and shovel Crown Prince Gustavus Adolphus of Sweden today excavated the crumbled formations in an ancient In[illegible] of prehistoric habitation.

Decision of the heir of the Swedish throne to explore the Indian [illegible] two crude ax heads he found while exhuming in the Navajo Cemetery Saturday morning.

According to Park Superintendent J. L. Nusbaum and Indian experts, the relics discovered by the [illegible] are considered a rare [illegible] Mesa Verde the future King of Sweden will motor to the Indian cemetery and devote several hours to the excavation work. He then will proceed with his entourage to Gallup, where they will board their special Santa Fe train for Los Angeles.



Jordan Marsh Company

THE STORE FOR MEN
A Separate Store in a Separate Building

Jordan Marsh Company

Another Needed Shipment!

Fandango
Auto Seat Covers

Protect entire upholstery below window level

1925 and 1926 Two and Four Doo[r]
Four and Five Passenger
SEDANS and COACHES
12.95

STUDEBAKER
Standard and Big Six Models, Broughams Included.

CHRYSLER
Model 60 and Model 70.

OVERLAND
Four and Six Cylinders.

BUICK
Master and Standard Six Models.

WILLYS-KNIGHT
Model 70 Sedan and Coach
Model 66 Sedan.

HUDSON
1925 and 1926 Hudson, Broughams Included.

DODGE —— NASH —— OLDSMOBILE

HUDSON and ESSEX COACHES, 1924 to 1926 Models

The Buick Master Six, 7-Passenger Sedan, and the Studebaker Big Six 7-Passenger Sedan, 1925 and 1926 models, priced at 15.95

For Ford Coupes	5.95
For Ford Tudor Sedans	9.95
For Ford Fordor Sedans	9.95

Fandango Covers are durable and beautiful
Easily attached,
Easily removed,
Easily cleaned.
They give beauty, style, protection and economy to motor car owners.
A few sets of covers for other makes of cars.

For Mail and Telephone Orders
Name of Car ....
Year........ Model No..........
Passenger Capacity ....
No. of Doors ....
Body Style ....
Charge or Check..................
Name ....
Address ....
....

1851 DIAMOND JUBILEE YEAR 1926

SOMERVILLE CAPTAIN KILLED AT DEVENS

Capt. Lewis J. Edmunds of A. Co., 101st Engineers, who died in the camp Devens hospital following injuries suffered when TNT fuses he was handling while directing maneuvers along Nashua River exploded. Gen. Logan and the officers of the 26th Division marched behind the hearse which bore his body from the camp.

MAN IN PRIEST'S GARB HELD FOR MURDER

New York, July 20 (A.P.)—A man in priest's attire, calling himself the Rev. Philip A. Goodwin of Los Angeles, a former actor, was held by police here today for the sheriff of Santa Ana, [illegible] to answer to a murder charge.

Goodwin was arrested at the National Vaudeville Artists Club as a fugitive from justice in response to a telegram from Santa Ana. A Mason [illegible] were [illegible] in his pockets.

One of the [illegible] apparently from a [illegible] two years ago [illegible] Rt. Rev. Gregory S[illegible] of Los Angeles.

[illegible] he came to New York [illegible] for a [illegible] with the parole [illegible] in the east. He said the act had received a tryout and he was awaiting word as to its acceptance by a vaudeville circuit.

Goodwin [illegible] Mason [illegible] been given [illegible] to know [illegible] for his arrest [illegible] were taken over [illegible].

[illegible] had [illegible].

The telegram [illegible] sheriff of Santa A[illegible] tails as to the [illegible] tion with which G[illegible] arrested.

KILLED BY GRIEF AT DEATH OF BROTHER

Overcome with grief following the death of his [illegible] Arthur Parker, veteran Bo[illegible] paper man, Edward H. P[illegible] his home, No. 13 Al[illegible] Roxbury. The cause [illegible] in the doctor's [illegible] arteriosclerosis. He w[illegible] eightieth year.

Ten days ago [illegible] Parker passed away at [illegible] prostrated his brother [illegible] been an invalid for years [illegible] his bed he never [illegible]. The funeral will be [illegible] Waterman's [illegible] Washington street, with [illegible] family lot in Mount A[illegible].

VATICAN LABORERS THREATEN STRIKE

Rome, July 20 [illegible]—Within the shadow [illegible] where Premier Mussolini issued his decree making strikes illegal, a strike is brewing today.

The Vatican, which is outside of the [illegible] government [illegible].

Vatican [illegible] become restless [illegible] has failed to take [illegible] of the [illegible] increase in wages [illegible] in the Vatican.

FOOTPRINTS IN SAND MAY IMPLICATE YOUTH

M[illegible] (I.N.S.)—Footprints [illegible] may implicate [illegible] Weiss, who came here for a vacation, in a slaying.

Prints said by the authorities to tally with those that Weiss' feet make were found completely surrounding the body of Miss Nina Vilona, vaudeville actress, slain as she prepared to take a swim in Navesink River, police say. The boy will be arraigned to answer to the crime.

U. S. ATTITUDE ON DEBTS IS CRITICISED

London, July 20 (A.P.)—That the coming years would bring an immense amelioration to the situation which was being "pressed with iron severity upon the war-wrecked populations of Europe" was the belief expressed by Winston Spencer Churchill, Chancellor of the Exchequer, during debate in the House of Commons concerning interallied debts.

TAKES ISSUE

The attitude of the United States on the debt question was strongly criticized by some members of the Commons and the chancellor took sharp issue with Andrew W. Mellon, the American Secretary of the Treasury, for a reported statement printed in the London newspapers to the effect Great Britain borrowed a large proportion of her debt money for purely commercial as distinct from war purposes.

Mr. Mellon was reported to have said American loans were obtained not so much to provide war supplies as to provide sterling for home and foreign needs and to save England from borrowing from her own people.

ALMOST DOUBTS IT.

The Chancellor said that so serious was this misapprehension it made him almost doubt the authenticity of the words Mr. Mellon was quoted as using. He added Great Britain, like all the other allies, spent vast sums in the United States on foodstuffs as well as on munitions. All loans to the Allies were specifically limited by Congress to the prosecution of the war.

"There has been a great deal of resentment and ill feeling regarding this debt," the Chancellor added, "and it is very important that this resentment shall not be increased by any misunderstanding of the actual facts of the situation."

JAMES MAGUIRE DIES AT WINCHESTER HOME

James Maguire, 85, for 55 years a resident of Winchester, is dead at his home at No. 21 Lincoln street, that town. He was born in Middleton, County Cork, Ireland, and was a charter member of Holy Name Society. He is survived by his wife, Mary (McCarthy) Maguire; five sons, Rev. Edward D. Maguire of St. Angela's Church, Mattapan; Rev. Eugene A. Maguire of Immaculate Conception Church, Stoughton; Patrick Maguire, Winchester druggist; James Maguire of Wakefield, and Michael Maguire of Medford. He also leaves two daughters, Misses Margaret and Catherine Maguire of Winchester. The funeral will be Thursday morning at 8.30 from his home with solemn high mass in St. Mary's Church at 9.30 a. m. Burial will be in Calvary Cemetery, Woburn.

DOHENY INTERESTS GET NEW OIL FIELD LANDS

Bakersfield, Cal., July 20 (A.P.).—A half-million dollar bid of the Petroleum Securities Corporation, controlled by the Doheny interests, for eleven sections of the John Enas estate in the new oil field north of here, has been approved by Superior Court. This gives the Doheny group control of 7[illegible],000 acres in this area where several large companies have launched drilling companies.

METCALF, COMPOSER, DIES IN CALIFORNIA

Oakland, Cal., John W. Metcalf, 7[illegible], noted composer, first musical instructor of Sanford University and author of numerous songs, including "Absent," a popular song 25 years ago, is dead.

Killed by Auto

Lisbon, Me., July 20.—Frank P. Gowell of this town died from injuries suffered when he was struck by an auto. He was 74.

Headmaster Weds

Headmaster Maurice J. Lacey of the Jamaica Plain High School was married to Miss Alice L. Cunningham, a teacher of French.

Wireman Dies at Key

Portland, Me., July 20.—John J. Gibbons, 55, telegraph operator more than 30 years, died at his key in the Western Union office.

July Begins the Second Half of Our Diamond Jubilee Year
a Month of Exceptional Values!

A Special Selling of Women's Athletic Union Suits
ONLY 1.00 EACH

—Striped and checked muslins
—Fancy cotton voiles
—White and pink
—Bodice top styles

THE ideal undergarment to wear with sports frocks or knicker suits. Here are unusual values that have arrived just in time to solve your vacation needs.

Women's Knit Underwear Section—
Fourth Floor Main Store

Women's Knit Underwear Section—
Fourth Floor Main Store

Jordan Marsh Company

Jordan Marsh Company

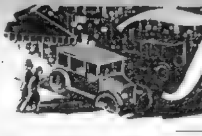
Good Clothes—A Gilt Edge Investment

Now Is the Time to Buy

Smart buyers of stocks or clothing take full advantage of a low market. When prices are dropped they buy their heaviest.

Right now, due to the August sales of men's clothing, prices are at rock bottom. One can stock up on clothes for the entire year at a great saving. Year around patterns and weights await your selection.

While reading the news of the day and features, don't fail to note the splendid price reductions of the men's clothing sales advertised in the Boston American and Boston Advertiser.



The Taxi Dancer by ROBERT TERRY SHANNON

Thrilling Story of Night Life and Night Clubs; A Mad Whirl of Adventure and Pleasure

"What's the matter, Kid?" asked Kittie. She saw Joslyn dressed for the street.

Joslyn Poe, daughter of a proud, but impoverished Virginia family, wants a career, not marriage. Her mother wants her to wed. The wild blood of a line of daring women runs in her veins. She wants adventure. A seeress tells her of the "wildness" in her blood. She goes to a dance. She determines she will settle her problem that night—to marry George Ransom, well-to-do, but no dandy, or—go to New York in seek of adventure. She meets a stranger at the dance.

CHAPTER II.

ALMOST at the beginning of the dance Joslyn's eye was attracted by the alien personality of the stranger. He was far more dapper than any of the home crowd he danced once, at the start, with a girl from Coverly Creek, and he seemed to weave in and out the throng like some sleek polished [illegible] times he was near Joslyn, his eyes were bright and dark his face remotely hawk like, but not unpleasant. Joslyn asked one of the bachelor boys who he was.

Why, he's some kind of salesman that Cal Wayne brought with him tonight, Miss Joslyn. [illegible] man somebody said. I don't know what Cal was thinking about bringing him though."

It was Cal Wayne himself who introduced Milton Stein fifteen minutes later. She gave him a dance. Joslyn in a slim sheath of black [illegible] was borne away in a [illegible] They moved [illegible] in a delicious [illegible]

You're one of the best dancers I ever met in my life," Milton Stein said.

Talks of Going

An [illegible] New York [illegible] there [illegible] Mr. Stein [illegible] I'm wild about it [illegible]

Got folks there?"

No, I thought I could get in an office."

Milton Stein looked at her eager face with appreciative [illegible]

"Don't be foolish," he said brusquely. With your natural ability as a dancer and your looks [illegible] would be wasted in an office. W[illegible]

Continued on Page 16, Column 1

A Paper That Goes Into the Home, Dependable, Fearless, Entertaining and Instructive.

BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN

A HOME PAPER FOR PEOPLE WHO THINK

BOSTON, TUESDAY, JULY 20, 1926

SECOND SECTION

BABY DYING; MOTHER MISSING

Ellsworth and Nobile in Pole Flight Row

TOT, DYING, BEGS FOR MAMA

Girl, 3, Loses Leg Under Trolley; Police Hunt for Mrs. Johnson In Maine

On a cot of pain at the Haymarket Relief Hospital today a three-year-old girl lay still and white—dying—while police made desperate efforts to find her mother.

A Mrs. Johnson, somewhere in Portland, Me., was all they had to work on as the minutes ticked off steadily, bringing the three-year-old tot closer to the grim portals through which it was feared she might slip before she could smile again into her mother's face.

In the [illegible] of Atlantic avenue traffic, little Phyllis Johnson [illegible] her grip in the [illegible] of Mrs. Mary Griffin with whom she lived at No. 78 Paris street, [illegible] beneath the wheels of [illegible] car.

There was an agonized [illegible], a grinding of brakes, frenzy [illegible] the avenue as throngs surrounded the halted trolley.

The torn [illegible] mite was taken from beneath the wheels. The [illegible] leg was missing above the knee.

Through the streets an automobile raced with the injured kid [illegible] Relief Hospital and then a [illegible] was begun for her mother separated from the father and [illegible] vague address.

[illegible] a bare chance Phyllis may possibly have, but it is the slightest of bare chances. She wishes to kiss her Mamma again. The police and hospital authorities wish she could, too, and there is [illegible] in their throats as they search in Maine for Mrs. Johnson.

[illegible] Ellery E. Jordan of No. [illegible] street and Motorman Sam [illegible] Aherin of Emerson streets, both South Boston, were the trolley crew.

DROPS PROBE OF EVANGELIST

Los Angeles, July 20 (A.P.).—The county Grand Jury investigating the Aimee Semple McPherson kidnaping case probably will adjourn today without completing the inquiry due to the inability to locate Kenneth G. Ormiston, friend of the evangelist and former Angelus Temple radio expert.

[illegible] is said to have entered a general denial to reports that he was seen with the Angelus Temple [illegible] after her disappearance. District Attorney Keyes said a letter purported to have been written by him contained no information to the solution of the mystery. Keyes said the handwriting was Ormiston's.

Attorneys for Mrs. McPherson promised to produce six witnesses to refute statements that the evangelist had been seen at various places between the time she disappeared at Ocean Park and the time she wandered into Agua Prieta, Mexico.

MAN WHO DROVE 10 MILES WITH SKULL BROKEN DIES

Northampton, July 20 (A.P.)—[illegible]

UNWED WOMEN ADMITTED TO ENGLISH MINISTRY

York, England, July 20 (A.P.)—Women [illegible] when the [illegible] the same terms as men. [illegible] is regarded as [illegible] resignation.

LONGFELLOW'S KIN STUDIES ABROAD

ENROLLS AT OXFORD UNIVERSITY

Henry Wadsworth Longfellow of Boston, direct descendant of the poet, with his mother, was a passenger on the Leviathan and has just arrived at London. He will continue his studies in England.

CALLES AVERS NO CHANGE ON CHURCH

Mexico City, July 20 (A.P.)—President Calles is determined to enforce the new religious regulations, which go into effect July 31. The [illegible] correspondent of Excelsior quotes the executive as saying:

The government of this [illegible] religious laws [illegible] adopt extreme measures [illegible] consideration [illegible] to be developed by the Catholics [illegible] will be severely [illegible]

No foreign or [illegible]

Numerous Catholic [illegible]

World Fliers in Upset, One Drowned

[illegible], Italy, July 20 (I.N.S.)—The [illegible] world flight [illegible] while a speed [illegible] of the new [illegible] Marquis intends [illegible]

LEVIATHAN TO DRYDOCK HERE

The American liner Leviathan [illegible]

The next sailing from New York [illegible]

Hughes In Venice

Venice, Italy, July 20 (A.P.)—Charles Evans Hughes, former American Secretary of State has arrived here.

NEW JERSEY STATE SECRETARY IS DEAD

Weehawken, N. J., [illegible]—Thomas F. Martin, Secretary of the State of New Jersey [illegible] Martin had been [illegible] months and suffered a relapse [illegible]

THREE NATIONS ACCEPT U. S. RESERVATIONS

Washington, [illegible] (A.P.)—Only Cuba, Greece [illegible] have ne[illegible] adherence to the World Court protocol [illegible]

[illegible] the State Department [illegible] governments that the United States is prepared to adhere to the court with reservations, and asking acceptance of these reservations [illegible] had been received from the other foreign nations.

[illegible] answers [illegible] Austria, Norway, Albania, [illegible] Serbs, Croats and Slovenes [illegible] Netherlands, Czechoslovakia [illegible] Brazil, Chile and Luxemburg.

21 PERSONS HURT AS CHICAGO TRAINS CRASH

Chicago, July 20 (I.N.S.)—Twenty-one persons, most of them women, were injured seriously [illegible] number of others [illegible] today when an Illinois Central [illegible] express [illegible]

A. M. [illegible], terminal superintendent of the [illegible] engineer of the passenger train who was believed to have [illegible]

CAROLINA PASTOR ON TRIAL BEFORE CHURCH

Statesville, N. C., July 20 (A.P.)—The Rev. Ashe [illegible] pastor of the Central [illegible] Church of Asheville, N. C., was arraigned before a court of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South [illegible] growing out of his arrest in Memphis, Tenn., on a disorderly conduct charge.

Twelve ministers [illegible] from the Western North Carolina Conference have been [illegible] by Presiding Bishop E. J. [illegible] of the district, as a jury. Dr. F. G. Prettyman of Gastonia presided in the trial.

Star in Bankruptcy

London, July 20 (I.N.S.)—A receiving order in bankruptcy has been made against Miss Jose Collins, well-known musical comedy star, according to an official announcement in the London Gazette.

ALL CREDIT CLAIMED BY ITALIAN

American Says the General's Only Part in Navigation Was to Relieve Wheelman

New York, July 20 (A.P.).—Dissension between leaders of the Norge flight over the North Pole has been revealed here by conflicting statements from Lincoln Ellsworth and General Umberto Nobile as to the credit for the airship's successful flight.

[illegible] developed shortly after the historic flight ended at Teller, Alaska, when the American [illegible] asked to [illegible]

[illegible] statement [illegible] Nobile's only part [illegible] airship [illegible] Roald Amundsen [illegible] to relieve the wheelman [illegible]

"The [illegible]," said Mr. Ellsworth, "[illegible] credit should [illegible] He gave [illegible] credit for [illegible] But at [illegible] is basically [illegible] respect [illegible] Captain Wisting [illegible] Mr. Ellsworth [illegible] Larsen of [illegible] Ritz-Carlton Hotel [illegible] back [illegible] everybody, [illegible] what everybody was doing.

[illegible] Gen. Nobile [illegible] have been [illegible]

Mr. Ellsworth [illegible] passenger [illegible] Svalbard [illegible] Mr. Ellsworth [illegible] statement [illegible] first [illegible] The [illegible]

DEMOCRATS WILL HAVE NAHANT OUTING JULY 31

Democratic leaders and followers from all over the State are preparing to attend the outing of the Democratic State committee on Saturday, July 31, at the Bass Point House, Nahant.

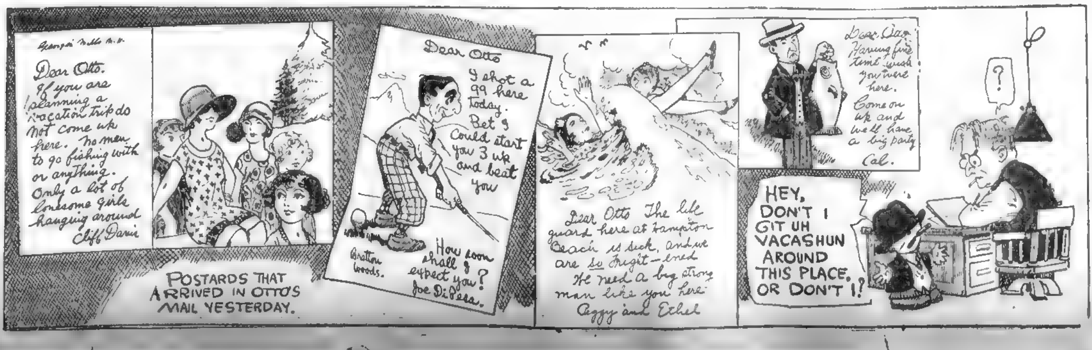
The purpose of the outing is to bring the Democrats together, with that staunch Jeffersonian Jim Pinkham acting as host. The former city [illegible] is now landlord at the Bass Point House. Congressman [illegible] of Lynn is one of the [illegible] leading Democrat [illegible] from Washington to be the speaker.

For Bargains in

USED CARS

Turn to the AUTOMOTIVE Classified Ads on the next-to-the-last pages

Postcards Have Otto All Excit-ed -:- -:- -:- By Collier



Georgia Mills N.H.
Dear Otto.
If you are planning a vacation trip do not come up here. No men to go fishing with or anything. Only a lot of lonesome girls hanging around
Cliff Davis
POSTARDS THAT ARRIVED IN OTTO'S MAIL YESTERDAY.
Dear Otto
I shot a 99 here today. Bet I could start you 3 up and beat you
Bretton Woods.
How soon shall I expect you?
Joe DiPesa.
Dear Otto The life guard here at Hampton Beach is sick, and we are so frigit-ened. We need a big strong man like you here
Aggy and Ethel
Dear Otto
Having fine time wish you were here.
Come on up and we'll have a big party
Cal.
?
HEY, DON'T I GIT UH VACASHUN AROUND THIS PLACE, OR DON'T I!?

BETTY ALDEN'S COMMENT ON SOCIETY

Queen Victoria of Spain Is Cutting Wide Swath in Social Life of British Capital

TRULY A QUEEN. As regal and beautiful as [illegible] fairy tales say, the Queen of Spain is London's premier feminine attraction of the season. Whether decked out in formal ball array, in sports attire, for motoring or the inevitable shopping tour, this handsome Victoria, Queen of the Asturias, gladdens every eye

RECENTLY AT A BALL [illegible] a prominent A[illegible] hostess, Her [illegible] Spain wore a [illegible] soft as faunskin, of [illegible] texture couturieres [illegible] ding ring" velvet, [illegible] it [illegible] pulled through a ring

THERE WAS A [illegible] embroidered [illegible] graceful, caught [illegible] weighted at the end [illegible] rose cluster. An [illegible] ivory sticks and [illegible] every front tipped [illegible] liant set around [illegible] markedly beautiful [illegible] sory.

FOR A SHOPPING [illegible] handsome [illegible] her clear English [illegible] affair of white [illegible] hat of black [illegible] while both [illegible] bined the two [illegible]

LIKE EVERY ENGLISH WOMAN when the [illegible] is indulging in sports [illegible] invariably [illegible] warmly [illegible] brown grass and [illegible] tones resembling [illegible] Scottish moors [illegible] mental and practical [illegible]

IT'S EVEN SAID in London that the Queen is a fashion arbiter that she leads and does [illegible] At any rate [illegible] ence and [illegible] what's [illegible] and then set the pace.

AS TO THE YOUNGER SET in Londontown, our own [illegible] patriot, the lively and chic [illegible] Houghton, is by all odds the leader, [illegible] whether it be in feminine accoutrement [illegible] along the frivolous path of [illegible] entertainment.

THE POPULAR DAUGHTER of the [illegible] popular Ambassadorial family [illegible] at the Court of St. [illegible] from the crown of [illegible] to the toes [illegible] slippers

THE [illegible] north [illegible] of course, [illegible] toward [illegible] and moors for the shoot [illegible]

ONE FROCK AND HAT pour le sport combines Rosalind green with a soft tan, the chapeau of the clinging soft sort seemingly moulded to the bobbed tresses of its wearer. A swinging cape faced with the [illegible]-yellow tan adds swagger chic.

A MOTOR FROCK is of pleated flat crepe in [illegible] geranium red, its accompanying hat of [illegible] with [illegible] there is a [illegible] sports frock, and another frock of the [illegible] rose [illegible]

MISS HOUGHTON'S choices are [illegible] and the re[illegible]—whether she shops in London town or "flies" over to the Rue de la Paix, to see what the French shops have for a smart and up-to-the-moment young American.

THE STEAMSHIP PARIS of the French line arriving tomorrow brings homeward from a European trip Mrs. Leverett Bradley of Brimmer street. For the remainder of the Summer Mrs. Bradley's address will be "Rocky Pasture," her Summer home on Mount Desert at North East Harbor.

AT "BARBERRY HILL FARM," a big white house of the glorified farmhouse sort which abounds in the Topsfield region, the Charles I. Taintors have their Summertime existence.

HIGH ON A RIDGE, with miles of rolling countryside spread out before its broad verandahs, "Barberry Hills Farm" is ideal for a Summer habitat. Of Winters the Taintor establishment is in Beacon street.

Betty Alden

MRS. FRANCIS P. SEARS

A smartly turned out young matron in an all white costume enlivened by a gay scarf.

Need a job? Plenty in the Classified Ads.

AERIAL BEACON GIVEN CITY

An aerial beacon to guide night fliers over Boston has been presented to the city by the Gilchrist Company.

The presentation was made by F[illegible] [illegible]enberg, president of the company, and the beacon will be [illegible] the roof of the Gilchrist [illegible] Winter and Washington streets.

Mayor Nichols accepted the beacon [illegible] of the city and a committee of aviation experts is studying [illegible] to determine the [illegible] method of lighting.

FLIES 1,500 MILES IN DAY

San Antonio, Tex., July 20 (A.P.)—Flying one of the army's new P1 pursuit planes, Major Carl Spatz traveled from Washington, D. C., to Kelly Field, San Antonio, in 13 hours' flying time.

The distance of 1,500 miles was made at a rate of 120 miles an hour. This was the first time a flight from Washington to San Antonio has been made in one day.

Wonderful tire values are found in the Classified Ads.

Milton Girl Winner in 'Men's Lies' Contest

Miss Dorothy Patton, Milton playground directress, wins first prize, $15, for the best letter submitted in the Boston Evening American's contest on the subject of New England men's lies. Miss Patton lives at No. 26 Valley road, Milton.

Second prize, $5, goes to Mrs. Jennie Williams of Shelburne, Mass., and third prize, also $5, is awarded to Mrs. C. McDermott, No. 47 [illegible] street, Providence, R. I.

HUNDREDS OF LETTERS.

The contest was open to all New England women. The subject was: "What Do New England Men Lie Most About?" Hundreds of letters from all parts of New England were received by the Ananias Editor.

Miss Patton practically answered the question in one word. She said "Women." Her letter was clear, [illegible]

In the hundreds of letters that flowed in during the contest, various subjects were named as the chief things that New England men lie about. Money, motor cars, [illegible], fishing, poker parties, cold shower baths, big business, real estate deals, athletic prowess and numerous other things were named.

THE WINNING LETTER.

Miss Patton's winning letter follows:

What Do New England Men Lie Most About? Women!

What good are women?
Only to bother us they say.
Make a lot of fuss 'bout nothing,
Each in a different way.
Now what good are women?
But in truth—
What a help are women!
Only thing we need—they know.
Make our life worth smiling at
Even when the ill winds blow,
Nothing like these women.

DOROTHY PATTON

"I'm delighted and surprised," said Miss Patton, when informed she had won first prize. "I had hoped that I would win, of course, but I never had any idea of winning the first award. But the subject of the contest was very interesting. I'm glad I wrote that letter."

FALSE TEETH OUR SPECIALTY

All plates made in our laboratory are guaranteed to fit and give satisfaction.

SPECIAL OFFER RUBBER PLATE $12.50

Full upper or lower made of red rubber (not like picture). Come in the morning, have your teeth the same day.

BRIDGE WORK per tooth $6
Silver Fillings $1
Cleanings $1

Examinations FREE

POSITIVE PAINLESS EXTRACTIONS FREE when plate or bridge work is ordered.

PLATES REPAIRED WHILE YOU WAIT. OLD PLATES REMADE LIKE NEW THE SAME DAY.

DR. HEWSON DENTAL CO.
427 Washington Street
Opposite Filene's
Hours daily, 8.30 a. m. to 6 p. m.
Lady Attendant Phone Dewey 1067 J

"Some are weather wise, some are otherwise." -Franklin

---"But I've Got to Have It Now."

"What's that, I can't get any coal for two days?"

"What's the idea....you've got too many orders ahead? Well of all the...."

He waited till the cold fall wind whistling through the shutters had reminded him of his empty coal bin. The house was cold and drafty ...inconvenient, to say the least ....but he was to blame ... he had waited too long before ordering his winter supply of Anthracite.

Too many people find themselves in the same position as the irate gentleman at the telephone. It's all so unnecessary, too! Your coal dealer is as handy as your telephone and it is easier to order NOW than to wait for cold weather.

Why not order NOW while the thought is in your mind and be assured of a full bin of Anthracite, the finest, most economical fuel that ever radiated cheery warmth through a New England home?

"For a Fuel that's Right-Use Anthracite"

Remember, the Coal Exchange does not sell retail coal! Place your order through your regular dealer.

The Coal Exchange of Boston
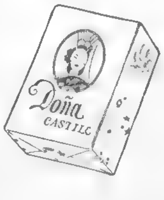
141 Milk St.

You have everything to gain by placing your orders now—why not do it today?

A glamour irresistible as magic

They have it—those ravishing women of Spain, the golden daughters of Castilla, of Andalusia, of Majorca. It lies in the savage grace of their feline bodies, their proud gesture, above all in the matchless radiance of their luminous firm-fine skins! And do you know how they preserve this priceless gift? Castile soap! Nothing else! Six hundred years ago in Castilla they learned how to make this incomparable toilet soap, and for six hundred years the beauty and aristocracy of Spain have used it; today an imported luxury for the fashion of Europe and America, acknowledged everywhere the finest toilet soap in the world. And so—what could be finer than a finer Castile? Exactly what we have made for you in Doña Castile! Exquisitely shaped for your hand; "hard-milled," therefore amazingly lasting; giving you a generous lather, instantly, even in lukewarm water—and rinsing instantly too. Non-deliquescent! A delicious, truly feminine Castile! You can buy it anywhere. Armour, U. S. A.

Pure Olive Oil gives Doña Castile its color, fragrance and delicious blandness for delicate skins.



Doña CASTILE
10 Cents

ANN DAVIS STAR OF NEW PLAY AT COPLEY

Plays Unusual Assignment With Admirable Sincerity and Gets Strong Support

[illegible]obbing and suffering, a woman [illegible] and tears—this is the [illegible] of Ann Davis, visit[illegible] with the Copley players for [illegible] of [illegible] new play, "The Man In [the] Next Room," which was per[formed] [illegible] night for the first time [illegible].

[illegible] acts Miss Davis was [illegible] to undergo a most un[illegible] and [illegible] under the heavy burden [illegible] and [illegible] she trod [illegible] path [illegible] more than ordinary perform[illegible].

"The Man in the next room" as a [illegible] to the [illegible] fortade [illegible] the heart-broken [illegible].

[illegible] required the biggest cast assembled at the Copley for many [illegible] Miss Davis [illegible] herself in [illegible] of dialogue and action [illegible] [illegible] players sim[illegible] [illegible] fair and capable shoulders.

It was entirely a performance for the star and she played it to the hilt with admirable sincerity, a commendable scarcity of hand wringing and she was greeted with long and hearty applause from an intensely interested audience.

A Starry Smile

LOIS MORAN

It didn't take long for this little filmster to get to the top, for now she is starred in "Padlocked," the new film at the Metropolitan.

'PADLOCKED' ONE OF YEAR'S BEST FILMS

Metropolitan Feature Shows Capable Cast in Strong Modern Story

After tinkering a bit with less important [illegible] affairs, [illegible] Dwan has come back strong to [illegible] [illegible] one of the best pictures of the [illegible] "Padlocked," now at the Metropolitan.

It [illegible] by a strong [illegible] Mar[illegible] zine [illegible] Rex Beach [illegible] talents [illegible] appear as [illegible] humans rather than [illegible] puppets [illegible].

Noah Beery [illegible] Moran [illegible] the featured [illegible] and the sup[illegible] porting cast [illegible] er, Helen Jerome [illegible] Lane [illegible] the entire [illegible] away by M[illegible] among [illegible] actress [illegible] experience [illegible] rather [illegible] part [illegible] profession [illegible] with de[illegible] and extra[illegible] good taste.

"Padlocked" has a thorough[illegible] drama [illegible] a story [illegible] and [illegible] actors [illegible] those M[illegible] Dwan [illegible] turned out a film [illegible] readily [illegible] a secure place with [illegible] successes [illegible] season. [illegible] film is [illegible] [illegible] and [illegible] gaiety.

Coming Events

Bebe [illegible] Palm Beach Girl [illegible] ing [illegible] [illegible]

OLD FAVORITES ON STATE BILL

Sissle and Blake have returned to Boston and taken up their popu[larity] [illegible] left off when [illegible] as the stars [illegible]. They are back [illegible] at Loew's State.

As singers of songs that have the [illegible] [illegible] favorites [illegible] be in [illegible].

The [illegible] of the State pro[gram] [illegible] horse [illegible] [illegible] 'Jack [illegible] Hulette have the principal [illegible].

"MAN FROM TRENTON" SOUGHT AS SLAYER

Philadel[phia] [illegible] (AP)—A [illegible] Trenton [illegible] was being [illegible] [illegible] Mrs. [illegible] Sunday [illegible] Fifteen [illegible] was found [illegible] Mrs. [illegible] Ford, [illegible] was [illegible] on Mrs. [illegible] self the "man from Trenton."

"AMERICA" ENTERS LAST WEEK AT BRAVES

The appearance of the 300 piece Aleppo [illegible] Band was an added at[traction] last night to the program [illegible] to make up the spectacle "America," now in its last week at Braves Field.

This production commemorates the 150th anniversary of American independence and is sponsored by the [illegible] Temple.

[illegible] and circus acts [illegible] everything from clowns [illegible] in its [illegible] a night [illegible] of fireworks of rare size and noise. Three large stages are [illegible] to give the performance. [illegible] persons are in the cast.

BOSTON ONLY N. E. CITY TO SEE "DEAREST ENEMY"

Boston is the only city in New [England] that will see "Dearest [Enemy]" [illegible] was made by George [illegible] [illegible] the Tremont [illegible] reports that the route [illegible] the production at the [illegible] of the present engage[ment] [illegible] of the large[illegible] country.

[illegible] will provide book[ings] [illegible] nearly two more years [illegible] that [illegible] Ford [illegible].

AERIALISTS THRILL CROWD AT REVERE

Large crowds have been the rule at Revere Beach [illegible] [illegible] visited [illegible] last night [illegible] a new record [illegible].

The [illegible] that drew the throngs to this [illegible] resort was the free open-air entertainment being given all this week afternoon and evening, by the [illegible] Donas, a group of spectacular aerialists. The bathing too, came in for its share of heavy patronage.

Week's Features

SCOLLAY SQUARE—Fred Thomson in Stewart Edward White's "The Two Gun Man." [illegible]

MODERN—[illegible] [illegible] Anita Stewart and [illegible] Walker.

NEW BOSTON—"More Pay—Less Work" [illegible] Charles Rogers [illegible] feature.

ST. JAMES—"The Love Thief" with Greta Nissen and Norman Kerry. Adelyn Bushnell [illegible] second week and heads the vaudeville bill.

BEACON—"Hell Bent For Heaven," with Patsy Ruth Miller and John Harron. [illegible] "Morganson's Finish" with Anita Stewart and [illegible].

BOWDOIN SQUARE—[illegible] with Lionel Barrymore.

NORUMBEGA PARK—Pictures and vaudeville in the open air [illegible] free outdoor circus, also midway attractions.

WELSH SINGER AT KEITH'S

A [illegible] of vaudeville [illegible] [illegible] for a pretentious dancing act well decorated by four comely dancing misses. Fred Heider and his "Girl in Green" offer the comedy, uproariously humorous as it was.

Other good acts include "Big Brother" Bob Emery, with his special radio act; Nevins and Gordon [illegible].

American Will Help Find Stolen Autos

The Boston Evening American starts today its new service, aiding the victims of automobile thieves to find their stolen cars. [illegible] owners who have suffered [illegible] Winthrop [illegible].

No attention can be paid to [illegible] stolen [illegible].

D74BW, Buick Touring.—Owner, [illegible] Company, No. [illegible] Boston.

309,922, Elcar Touring.—Owner, [illegible] No. 4 Morton street, Andover.

387,987, Ford Coupe.—Owner, William H. Sennott, No. 4 Trenton street, East Boston.

550,712, Ford Sedan.—Owner, Oscar Lemonourus, No. 942 Tremont street, Boston.

D1041R, Ford Sedan.—Owner, [illegible] South avenue, Natick.

[illegible] Ford Roadster, R. I. [illegible]

[illegible] Ford Touring.—Owner, [illegible] & [illegible] Corp.

[illegible] avenue.

[illegible] Ford Sedan.—Owner, [illegible]

118[illegible] Reo Touring.—Owner, [illegible] No. 16 [illegible]

[illegible] Essex Coach.—Owner, [illegible] No. 75 [illegible]

183,50[illegible] Dodge Sedan.—Owner, [illegible]

[illegible] Essex Coach.—Owner, [illegible]

HARVARD PROFESSOR AND WIFE RETURN

Professor Kuno Francke of Harvard and Mrs. Francke [illegible] Boston on the S. S. [illegible] after four months of travel in Switzerland and Germany. [illegible] New York with the rest [illegible].

STRONG BILL AT ORPHEUM

A well balanced bill of vaudeville and pictures is the bill at Loew's Orpheum this week.

The featured act is Mabel Walzer in a miniature musical comedy, [illegible] and costumes. Miss Walzer is ably assisted by her [illegible] in a highly enter[taining] act. Another act on the bill [illegible] Brooks, former star of "From Dixie to Broadway," who [illegible] a number of his new compo[sitions]. Assisting him is Allie [illegible], another well known and ca[pable] [illegible] Sexton and Farrell, [illegible] a great deal [illegible] dialogue [illegible] Wong [illegible].

[illegible] of the [illegible] and thrilling action [illegible] the criminal [illegible] Gareth [illegible] Hawley and Her[bert] [illegible] the important [illegible].

A day's sail to the Tip of CAPE COD and return. S. S. Dorothy Bradford. See Tour & Travel Page.

Classified is the great time and money saver.

Amusements

EXCURSIONS
Sunday, July 25
Old Orchard $2.50
Train leaves North Station 8.25 A. M. [illegible] Stops at Lynn [illegible] Returning leaves Old Orchard 6.25 P. M.
Winnipesaukee $2
Train leaves North Station, 8.30 A. M. (E.S.T.) Stops at No. and So. [illegible] Haverhill, Exeter, [illegible] Somersworth and Rochester. Returning, leaves The Weirs 6.00 P. M.
Avoid Motoring Worries and Enjoy Your Week-End at These Famous Summer Resorts
BOSTON and MAINE RAILROAD thrill-packed fun jammed

LOIS MORAN
LOUISE DRESSER
NOAH BEERY
DOUG. FAIRBANKS JR.
Rex Beach's Padlocked
ALSO
DEL CASTILLO
Sublime Grand Orchestra
HARMONY with novelty
Trio—Jos Wetzel Ma[illegible] Winge
[illegible] HOST OF HITS
The Renowned Ned Wayburn's 'CUPID'S HOLIDAY'
STAGE REVUE! GIRLS AND MUSIC! GIRLS AND JAZZ! GIRLS AND FUN! GIRLS AND GAGS! as only Ned can show 'em!
COOL COOL COOL
METROPOLITAN

MODERN BEACON
HELL BENT FER HEAVEN
PATSY RUTH MILLER JOHN HARRON
JACK LONDON'S MORGANSON'S FINISH
ANITA STEWART MAHLON HAMILTON

LOEW'S STATE
Mass. Ave., Doors Open 12:45, Continuous from 1
SISSLE & BLAKE
Late Stars of "Shuffle Along"
ON THE SCREEN—2 BIG PICTURES
THE DEVIL HORSE, with REX, the Wonder Equine
JACK OF HEARTS
With Cullen Landis—Gladys Hulette
NEXT WEEK LOEW'S STATE—BOSTON ADVERTISER SUMMERTIME GIRL REVUE STAGED BY VICTOR HYDE

PHOTOPLAY DIRECTORY
TONIGHT AT YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD THEATRE

ALLSTON
CAPITOL Comm. Ave. — Mi[illegible] S[illegible], Gertrude Olmsted in "PUPPETS" Johnny Hines, Diana Kane in "THE BROWN DERBY" Visit the Starlight Promenade
ALLSTON Brighton Ave. — Conway Tearle, Barbara Bedford in "The Sporting Lover" Pola Negri in "The Crown of Lies"
BOSTON (SO. END)
COLUMBIA — Barbara LaMarr in "THE GIRL FROM MONTMARTRE" Frank Merrill, World's Champion Athlete, in "A Fighting Heart" Basket Night
CAMBRIDGE
CENTRAL SQ. Cambridge — Dorothy Mackaill, Conway Tearle in "The Dancer of Paris" Big Vaudeville Show
HARVARD Cambridge — Jack Holt, Esther Ralston in "The Blind Goddess" Clara Bow, Wallace MacDonald in "TWO CAN PLAY"
CHELSEA
OLYMPIA Chelsea — Raymond Griffith in "WET PAINT" Helene Chadwick, Wm. Russell in "THE STILL ALARM"
DORCHESTER
DORCHESTER THEATRE — Webber and Field's "FRIENDLY ENEMIES" Tom Tyler in "Let's Go Gallagher"
FRANKLIN PARK — REVIVAL WEEK Rudolph Valentino in "THE SHEIK" Also Other Short Subjects
STRAND [illegible] Corner — Lionel Barrymore in "THE LUCKY LADY" Special Cast in "GRASS"
CODMAN SQ. Dorchester — Jack Holt, Esther Ralston in "The Blind Goddess" Charles Ray, Gertrude Olmsted in "SWEET ADELINE"
DORCHESTER
FIELDS CORNER — Jack Holt, Esther Ralston in "The Blind Goddess" Chas. Ray, Gertrude Olmsted in "SWEET ADELINE"
HAMILTON — Wanda Hawley, Frankie Darro in "Hearts and Spangles" Comedy and News
GROVE HALL
NEW SHAWMUT N.E.T.O. Co. — Jack Holt, Esther Ralston in "The Blind Goddess" Evelyn Brent in "THE JADE CUP"
JAMAICA PLAIN
NEW JAMAICA — Corinne Griffith in "MLLE. MODISTE" Hoot Gibson in "The Phantom Bullet"
MALDEN
STRAND Malden — Madge Bellamy, Edmund Lowe in "BLACK PARADISE" Four Acts Paramount Vaudeville
ROSLINDALE
RIALTO — House Peters in "COMBAT" Star Cast in "The Non-Stop Flight" ROXBURY
DUDLEY — All Star Cast in "The Secret Spring" Tom Mix in "TONY RUNS WILD"
NEW RIVOLI N.E.T.O. Co. — Rudolph Valentino in "THE SHEIK" James Oliver Curwood's "Nomads of the North"
SOMERVILLE
STRAND THEATRE — Reginald Denny in "Skinner's Dress Suit" Ruth Roland in "DOLLAR DOWN"

THE REFRIGERATED SCOLLAY SQ. OLYMPIA
BIGGEST SHOW [illegible]
NOW PLAYING
BOSTON'S OWN FAVORITE SON
AL MOORE JOLLY TARS
12 Versatile Wonder Artists
On the Screen
FRED THOMSON
AND HIS WONDER HORSE, SILVER KING
in "THE TWO GUN MAN" Greatest of Outdoor Dramas
7 ALL STAR ACTS
Our Cooling Plant is the talk of New England
NEXT WEEK
Special Engagement, Arthur J. Martel, World's Premiere Organist

1776 ★ 1926 AMERICA
Braves Field
LAST 5 NITES at 8.30
[illegible]
CIRCUS & SPECTACLE
Greatest Show Ever Offered in Boston
ASK ANYBODY
Grand Stand $1.00 10,000 Bleacher Seats 50c

LOEW'S ORPHEUM
Continuous 9.15 A. M. to 10.30 P. M.
ON THE SCREEN: First Time Here
MEN OF THE NIGHT
WITH HERBERT RAWLINSON WANDA HAWLEY GARETH HUGHES
An Absorbing Crook Drama of Mother Love
ON THE STAGE
MABEL WALZER
AND [illegible] BOY FRIENDS
Miniature Musical Comedy
SHELTON BROOKS
Late Star of DIXIE TO B'DWAY [illegible] by ALLIE POWERS
OTHER BIG ACTS

KEITH-ALBEE BOSTON
Peter B. Kyne's Celebrated Cappy Ricks
More Pay--Less Work with Mary Brian
Hal Roach GLENN TRYON Comedy
Vaudeville
Jean [illegible]
Flo Carol & [illegible]
Reilly, Logan, Putnam & Burr[illegible], [illegible] Elsworth & Marks, [illegible] Mary Austin, Winton Bros., Pathe [illegible] Topics

B. F. KEITH'S Telephone HANcock 2120
HARRY FOX —SYBIL VANE
INA ALCOVA, FRED HEIDER AND THE GREEN GIRL, NEVINS & GORDON, COLLINS & HART, MALINDA & DADE, EVELYN & DAISY, DIAZ SISTERS.
BIG BROTHER BOB EMERY
800 Orch. Seats, Mat. 50c, Eve. $1.10

COPLEY
MAT. TODAY at 2.20
Eves at 8.20
AMERICAN PREMIERE
THE MAN IN THE NEXT ROOM
With ANN DAVIS
The Dramatic Sensation of the Year

KEITH-ALBEE ST. JAMES
'THE LOVE THIEF' Norman Kerry Greta Nissen
Biggest Bill of High Class VAUDEVILLE
Second Big Week Held Over [illegible]
ADELYN BUSHNELL—J. BRADFORD
In a New Dramatic Sketch

THE COOL TREMONT
$2 Mat. Tom'w
EVES. at 8.15
7TH SALUBRIOUS WEEK OF THE MUSICAL HIT
DEAREST ENEMY
HELEN FORD and CHARLES PURCELL

BOWDOIN SQ. THEATRE Continuous
"Black Paradise," with Madge Bellamy and Edmund Lowe. Harry Carey in "The Man From Red Gulch." Lionel Barrymore and Marguerite De La Motte in "Children of the Whirlwind." 5 Vaudeville Acts

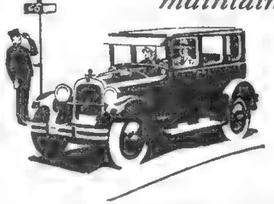
NORUMBEGA NOW IN FULL SWING

FENWAY Mass. Ave. at [illegible]
Raymond Griffith in WET PAINT
Conway Tearle & Anna Q. Nilsson in "THE GREATER GLORY"

OLYMPIA WASH. ST.
"THE SAVAGE"
BEN LYON & MAY McAVOY
Big BILL OF VAUDEVILLE
Telephone—Hancock 5735

Good Through and Through

Details tell impressive story of quality standards strictly maintained



Unprecedented sales prove how well the public knows that Dodge Brothers Motor Car is sturdier and more dependable than ever before.

Delivers more miles at lower cost-per-mile. Stands up under harder going. Calls for fewer repairs. Provides greater safety. Excels in every quality that has earned its good name.

In fact, you have only to check any chassis part against its own past best—engine, axles, gears, bearings, frame, springs, shafts, electrical equipment—to prove how strictly and consistently Dodge Brothers have preserved and improved the basic goodness of their product.

Touring Car $874.00 Coupe $925.50
Roadster $872.50 Sedan $980.00
Delivered

HENSHAW MOTOR CO.
983 COMMONWEALTH AVE BOSTON

Boston, Park Square Building
Newton Centre, 765 Beacon St
Dorchester, 1299 Blue Hill Ave.
Cambridge, 1963 Mass. Ave.
Malden, 343 Main St.
Everett, 492 Broadway
Belmont, 297 Belmont St.
Roslindale, 1710 Centre St.

DODGE BROTHERS MOTOR CARS

TWO comic pages every day. Full of the funniest of "funnies." A great treat for the kiddies by the cleverest artists.

Snake Found in Ireland

THERE is a legend that St. Patrick banished all the snakes from Ireland. However, one has been found in Dublin and it is now on exhibition in the National Museum. It is a very small specimen, less than two feet long, and is harmless.

GOVERNMENT FIGURES ON BUDGET

Boston Evening American Offers Aid to Housewives in Planning Expenditures of Income

BUDGET TALK No. 105

By MARTHA LEE

HERE is the promised clothing budget made by the Bureau of Labor Statistics in Washington. The clothing budgets of approximately 850 families having three children under 15 years of age were taken for its basis.

These were arranged together to form this clothing budget for the average workingman's family of five. It is made up of articles actually worn by real workers and their families. Of course, individual tastes and various climates and occupations will make many changes and adjustments necessary in each family but the tables will serve as a helpful guide.

This is not intended for a style budget. You will not find silk dresses or silk stockings included. These are easily added. The purpose of today's budget is to show the minimum amount of clothing required for health and decency. It is assumed that some home sewing can be done and that the garments purchased will be of good average quality.

Perhaps husband may call your attention to the fact that only two pairs of working trousers are included for him each year, but we assume that these working clothes will be supplemented with one suit each 1½ months of discarded dress-up clothes. Sunday clothes, which are usually not subjected to very hard use, can reasonably be expected to form the major part of his working clothing. Likewise discarded Summer dresses of a previous season can be used by the housewife for everyday use.

Few women will need as great a variety of underwear as is listed, but where fewer kinds are worn, a larger quantity of each will be required. Although allowance has been made for only two Winter union suits for husband each year, this does not mean that the worker possesses only two suits of Winter underwear. With what he has on hand, however, and with reasonable care, he can manage comfortably by purchasing only two new suits yearly.

Seven per cent of the total cost of husband's clothing is allowed for the purchase of rain coat, slippers, bath robe and such other occasional clothing expenses. Eight and five tenths per cent of the wife's clothing budget is allowed for such extras as hair nets, hair pins, slippers, hand bags, thread, buttons, trimming, etc.

Home Budget Editor,
Boston Evening American:
Enclosed please find a two-cent stamp for which please send me one of your Home Budget forms.

Name ______________________
Address ____________________
____

Write or Print Very Plainly

It is difficult to budget the clothing needs of growing children. Some clothing will of course be handed down and made over. The children's shoes and stockings are one of the serious drains on the family finances. For the boy of 12 budget allows two or three pairs of high shoes and two of low, with one repairing of half-soles and heels for each of the five pairs. For the girl of six, three pairs of high and two of low are allowed and for boy of two, two pairs of high shoes and two of sandals. For the two younger children, shoe repairing is not considered economical and no provision is made for it. Here are the tables:

HUSBAND

Article	Replacement Per Year
Summer Clothing:
Hats, straw	1
Union suits	4
Suits	½
Winter Clothing:
Hats, felt	½
Overcoats	⅓
Sweaters	1
Union Suits	2
Suits	½
Gloves, leather, street	1
Year-Round Clothing:
Caps	1
Work trousers (or overalls)	2
Shirts:
Dress	3
Work	3
Nightshirts	3
Socks, cotton	12
Shoes
Dress	½
Work	2
Shoe Repairing:
Whole soles	1
Half soles and heels	1
Rubbers	½
Gloves:
Cotton, work	3
Collars	6
Ties	2
Handkerchiefs, cotton	6
Garters	2
Belts	½
Suspenders	1
Umbrellas	⅓
Cleaning and pressing suit	1
Miscellaneous: Lump sum of money equal to about 7% of total cost of husband's clothes

WIFE

Article	Replacement Per Year
Summer Clothing:
Hats	1
Skirts, cotton wash	½
Waists, cotton (to be made at home)	3
Waist, dress	½
Dresses, cotton, thin (to be made at home)	2
Union suits	3
Petticoat, muslin	1
Shoes, low	1
Gloves, fabric	1
Winter Clothing
Hats	½
Suits, wool	½
Dresses, wool	1
Coats, wool	⅓
Petticoats, Venetian cloth or sateen	1
Union suits	2
Shoes, high	1
Gloves, not kid	½
Year Round Clothing
House dresses	3
Aprons, kitchen (to be made at home)	3
Corsets	1
Corset covers	3
Combinations, muslin	3
Brassieres	3
Nightgowns, muslin	2
Kimonos	½
Stockings, cotton	6
Shoe Repairing
New heels	3
Half soles and heels	1
Handkerchiefs, cotton	6
Umbrellas	⅓
Rubbers	1
Cleaning and pressing (suit)	1
Miscellaneous: Lump sum of money equal to about 8.5 per cent of total cost of wife's clothing

BOY 12 YEARS OF AGE

Article	Replacement Per Year
Summer Clothing
Trousers, separate, cotton	3
Overalls	2
Union suits	3
Shoes, low	2
Winter Clothing
Trousers, separate, wool	1
Overcoats or mackinaws	½
Sweaters	½
Union suits	2
Shoes, high	3
Gloves, knit	2
Year Round Clothing
Caps	2
Suits, wool	1
Pajamas or night shirts	2
Shirts or blouses, cotton	5
Stockings, cotton	12
Shoe Repairing
Half soles and heels	5
Rubbers	1
Ties	2
Handkerchiefs, cotton	6
Garters (to be made at home)	2
Belts	2
Miscellaneous: Lump sum of money equal to about 3% of total cost of 12 year old boy's clothing

BOARD, CLOTHES AND RECREATION TAKE ALL MY SALARY BUDGET
SURPLUS for SAVINGS & SELF

Do Board, Clothes and Recreation take all your salary? Budget will come to the rescue with a surplus for savings and self.

Practical Hints on Spending by a Plan

GIRL, 6 YEARS OF AGE

Article	Replacement Per Year
Summer Clothing
Hats	1
Dresses, cotton (to be made at home)	6
Petticoats, muslin	2
Skirts	2
Drawers, muslin	3
Nightgowns, muslin	2
Shoes, low	2
Winter Clothing
Caps or hats	½
Dresses, wool (to be made at home)	2
Coats, wool	½
Sweaters	½
Petticoats, outing flannel	1
Shirts	2
Drawers, knit	2
Nightgowns, outing flannel	2
Shoes, high	2
Gloves or mittens, knit	1
Year Round Clothing
Aprons (to be made at home)	1
[illegible] waists	4
Stockings, cotton	12
Rubbers	1
Handkerchiefs, cotton	6
Garters	2
Miscellaneous: Lump sum of money equal to about 5 per cent of total cost of 6 year old girl's clothing

BOY, 2 YEARS OF AGE

Article	Replacement Per Year
Summer Clothing
Hats, duck	1
Undershirts	3
Drawers	3
Nightgowns, muslin	1
Shoes, low (sandals)	2
Winter Clothing
Caps	1
Overcoats	½
Sweaters	½
Undershirts	2
Drawers	2
Nightgowns, outing flannel	1
Shoes, high	2
Mittens, knit	1
Year Round Clothing
Dresses, cotton suits, rompers, overalls, etc. (to be made at home)	4
Stockings and socks, cotton	10
Garters	2
Miscellaneous: Lump sum of money equal to about 6% of total cost of 2 year old boy's clothing

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Mrs. S. A. L. asks for a budget for a $40 income for a family of three.

This will line up shelter, $8, with [illegible] carfares' food, $10, clothing $[illegible], operating, $6, savings, $4, and personal, $6. One of her neighbors wishes to budget $45 for the same size family, and for her I would suggest savings, $4.50, shelter, $10, food [illegible], clothing, $8.60, operating, $5.60 and personal, $5.

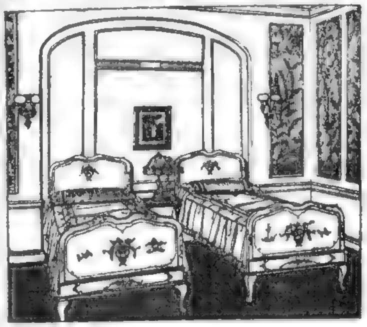
Mr. S. R. E. is anxious to have [illegible] wife keep a [illegible] budget [illegible] a $[illegible] [illegible] family [illegible] would advise [illegible] $[illegible] [illegible] shelter $[illegible] food $[illegible] clothing $4, operating $4 and personal $[illegible]

From Rhode Island comes a request for a $[illegible] budget [illegible] in the family. A rent of $40 a month [illegible]

[illegible] shelter $11 [illegible] food $14 [illegible] $[illegible] operating $[illegible] savings $[illegible] and personal $3.[illegible]

Furnishing the Home

By Marian Moore



TO appreciate the full charm of this exquisite room you must think of it in terms of color; light green woodwork with papered panels in striking exotic designs, twin beds finished in deep ivory and decorated in Chinese [illegible], bedspreads of green taffeta and an all-over carpet of green which forms a suitably heavy base to balance the richly decorated walls.

As the wall paper and furniture provide sufficient decoration, good taste dictates moderation in the use of accessories and quality rather than quantity. Each one of the ornaments shown here is a perfect gem.

The wall brackets are elegantly elaborate with their prismatic crystal pendants and taffeta shields, the picture which is the logical decoration for the square wall panel at the head of the beds is a very fine etching in a striking frame of black glass, and the table lamp, with its pagoda-like shade is a precious little jade idol on a black pedestal.

The most favorable exposition for this room is the east side of the house as the morning sun would perf[illegible] [illegible] by the fascinating paper designs, playing among its incredible vegetation and filling the occupants of the room with eagerness to capture the wonders of life.

This sense of adventurous joy, of exotic romance, particularly appeals to imaginative youth, and so I'd recommend my lovely Chinese room for two girls, or a very young married couple and by all means for guests.

Martha Lee's Pointers

I go inspecting

"To save my life I can't make sponge cake as good as [illegible] can [illegible] but someone who claims to know tells me that dried eggs and cheap materials are used in bakeries. Do you know if this is true? We [illegible] the lightness, flavor and [illegible] [illegible] bake a sponge [illegible] [illegible] I want to give my folks [illegible] wholesome foods. [illegible] from Quincy.

New [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] have [illegible] [illegible] [illegible] ... [illegible] one of New England's largest cake [illegible] and I was [illegible] [illegible] start to finish there was [illegible] that could raise the [illegible] [illegible] housekeeper [illegible] scrap of [illegible] was [illegible] as [illegible] as you would use in your own kitchen.

[illegible] to give you first quality cake at the lowest possible price this firm employs men to travel through the West and buy up fresh laid eggs.

Half butter and half Crisco is used in the butter cakes made by [this] company, and I soon saw the [illegible] of their smoothness [illegible] The butter and sugar are [beaten] by machinery until they are fairly fluffy. No matter how strenuously we exercise our feminine arm power, we can never [illegible] [illegible] combine sugar and shortening. Rich creamy milk is delivered fresh from nearby farms daily and pure flavorings, finest quality flour and a minimum of baking powder complete the ingredients.

Everyone employed in this bakery was clothed in white uniforms, and the floors were indeed "clean enough to eat from." Modern machinery eliminates hand work in the mixing and baking processes, and I do wish you would have seen the sponge cakes revolving in a "just right" oven.

After the baking, the cakes travel along on moving belts to other machines which wrap them in paraffin paper. If they are to be layer or frosted cakes, before the wrapping they stop at another machine which [illegible] [illegible] than you [illegible] [illegible]

You [illegible] when I tell you [illegible] sponge and [illegible] [illegible] these sponge cakes and [illegible] ... [illegible] potees [illegible] [illegible]

Martha Lee.

'The Taxi Dancer;' An Absorbing Story of Night Life

Continued From Page 13.

the breaks, you might even marry a millionaire.'

A pin point of excitement began to prick Joslyn. "You mean—the stage?"

"Maybe, but I was thinking of the night clubs. In a dancing act. You already got the gait, the action. Six months in a professional school and you'd be set."

"I'm afraid I couldn't afford a school," Joslyn said, with an ebb in her voice.

"Listen, Miss Poe," Milton Stein told her shrewdly, "I could guarantee you right now that my brother Herman would take you on as a taxi in his place, an' you'd clean up anyhow sixty or seventy dollars a week at the start. You could live on that and put yourself through six months' school."

Joslyn laughed lightly. "I'm afraid I don't quite understand about being a taxicab."

"That's what they call the girls workin' in a dancin' academy," Milton Stein explained. "They got about thirty, an' some of them darn nice kids. You see, it's thirty-five cents for three dances, an' the house furnishes the taxis—the girls. The tax keeps twenty-five cents. If you got the pep you can dance sixty or seventy dances a night. [illegible] man's wife used to be a [illegible] of Nurmi."

A tiny scowl gathered between Joslyn's brows. Such an occupation—a taxi—did not commend itself to her instincts.

"It's awfully interesting to hear about a place like that."

Milton Stein was instantly aware of the cooled interest.

"A Swell Joint"

"You mustn't get me wrong, Miss Poe," he said quickly. "It ain't a dump Herman's running. It's a swell joint; two jazz bands, with chaperones an' police women an' everything. If a guy gets fresh he's bounced right away. There ain't a drop of hootch sold in the place."

The unfamiliar crispness of Milton Stein's speech, something odd and picturesque, caught daringly at Joslyn's interest, and she found herself rather liking him.

"I appreciate your interest, anyway," she told him pleasantly.

Stein produced a leather case and extracted one of his cards.

"If you do go, look Herman up and give him this—Stein's Academy on Broadway. Herman's a nice feller—family man. An' don't think I'm trying you to promote you, Miss Poe. I know class when I see it. An' the firm I'm traveling for don't stand for that stuff. With me it's just social—society stuff, understand."

Joslyn slipped the card in her dress. Suddenly the familiar voice of George Ranson was upon them; his wide shoulders loomed beside the narrowness of Milton Stein.

"How about this dance, Joslyn. Isn't it mine?"

Ranson danced with the labored earnestness of a middle-aged lum[illegible] which was what he was.

"Notice anything tonight?"

Joslyn said she had not. They strolled out into the [illegible] night.

"I'm not drinkin' a thing. I made up my mind I wouldn't and I stuck [illegible], though there's plenty a[illegible] [illegible] at once grew a[illegible] ready. Joslyn was [illegible] that interfered. "If [illegible] marry me, I'll never touch a [illegible] of the stuff till I die. I'll kiss the Book and swear to it."

A slow warmth gathered in her breast; such a warmth, Joslyn imagined, as a mother might feel toward her child. George Ranson was, despite his maturity, oddly like a crude, half-grown boy. But there was a stubborn strength there, too. . . . courage.

George Gives Way

"I don't know, George—I——"

Without warning she was seized, engulfed in an unrestrained embrace. His hand was at the back of her head, her mouth was crushed with a feverish kiss prolonged through an eternity of hatefulness. She was clamped to the strained breathing of his body.

"By Heaven, you're mine!" Ranson's voice was beyond control.

Frenzied strength tore her loose. [illegible] stained her face [illegible] [illegible] deeper that had [illegible] [illegible] a flash [illegible] [illegible] understood the difference [illegible] [illegible] woman [illegible] [illegible] If you ever get [illegible] [illegible] Ranson, you'll have to [illegible] to do it.

The sound of someone—a girl—sobbing was muffled, yet it was [illegible] through the thin wall of the rooming house. In the adjoining room, Kittie Lane put down the hair brush with which she had been [illegible] a vigorous sheen to her modish golden bob. Slim and pert, [illegible] Lane realized that her hair was [illegible] feature in her stock of [illegible] physical attraction; [illegible] was something of a [illegible]

The sobbing next door went on. Kittie had heard it before in New York rooming houses. It was very [illegible]

Kittie put down her brush. "Oh, Lord," she exclaimed in exasperation [illegible] a girl once [illegible] way before [illegible] Clutching her kimono, Kittie stepped outside and [illegible] the neighbor's door.

"[illegible] you, in there—can I come in a minute?"

Kittie a Friend

Abruptly the sobbing ceased; there was no answer to the query. Minor points of etiquette were negligible in Kittie's busy life. She pushed the door open. The girl in the room, dressed for the street, lifted a wet, startled face. Eagle-eyed, Kittie glimpsed the cheap suitcase and the scanty array of toilet accessories on the varnished [illegible]

"What's the matter, kid?" [illegible] [illegible] "I had [illegible] me. I——"

"Never mind the alibi, dear [illegible] bunk next door and a wink can [be] heard through these walls. I [illegible] maybe you was crying off [illegible] and a wet towel was needed on the bean, but I see you [illegible]

[illegible] [illegible] smiled [illegible] "I don't drink," she said [illegible] [illegible] I was just a [illegible] [illegible] New York [illegible]

[illegible] Kittie sno[illegible] "Sure. I know. I [illegible] [illegible] too when I first hit." Her [illegible] the style of the strange [illegible] "Been here long?"

"Two weeks."

"Funny I haven't seen you [illegible] Got a job?"

"I had one offered [illegible] an office but the man I couldn't take [illegible] And I know of a place in a dancing academy, but it sounds so tough, doesn't it? I'm trying to get on in a department store."

"And the bank roll's [illegible] thin I bet. Let's see—by this time according to statistics and [illegible] average age for your average height you ought to have [illegible] $4.39 left in the stock."

The girl's smile grew [illegible] more courageous. "I have over five dollars left," she said [illegible] see I'm not absolutely broke."

Kittie Lane [illegible] head. "Five do[llars] left in New York and she thinks she's [illegible] Wow. Wait [illegible] [illegible] rolls [illegible] and. Also think of the stomach. But I don't want to get you all blued up again, Kid. In fact, I'm one of these saps that can't mind my own business, sometimes. Well, it's luck I heard you boo-hooing. I been over the bumps myself. Not dated up for dinner, I suppose?"

"I have some crackers and a bottle of milk," the newcomer said negligently.

Promise of Dinner

"Be yourself!" murmured Kittie, her eyes getting shrewd. "You'll be trying to live on peanuts next and that junk gives you pimples. What you need right now is a man's size feed—steak, vegetables, salad and the layout. And that's what I'm going to stake you to, Kid, free, gratis, for nothing. My name's Kittie Lane and I'm pleased to meet you."

The words rattled like pebbles in a tin can but the smile was a tonic.

"My name's Joslyn Poe and you're the first [illegible] been [illegible] to me in New York. But I couldn't [illegible] [illegible] me a [illegible]"

Kittie Lane's [illegible] brows lifted over [illegible] blue eyes. "Who [illegible] [illegible] listen, sister—but you'll [illegible] If I can't dig up two a la cartes on fifteen minutes notice, well—"

Joslyn looked at Kittie Lane in utter bewilderment. "I don't believe I understand exactly what you mean."

"You will—in time," Kittie assured her. "Meanwhile, you better get busy with some cold water on those [illegible] inflamed eyes and lay on a little of the kalsomine on the [illegible] complexion, though Heaven knows you don't need it much. I'll get busy on the telephone and see what I can do."

It developed that Joslyn had a [illegible] presentable party wrap, but when Kittie looked at the black velvet dress [illegible] had seemed so [illegible] [illegible] one, she drew down the corners of her mouth.

"[illegible] only giving yourself the worst of it if you wear that disguise," she said. "It might be a knockout back home, but it's only a laugh in New York. I'll loan you something of mine, dear."

Joslyn protested, but Kittie squelched her. Out of four or five evening dresses they selected one of a shimmering peach color material, cut very low in the neck and held over the shoulders with narrow opalescent straps.

"You got a good silhouette, kid," Kittie philosophized, "give it a chance."

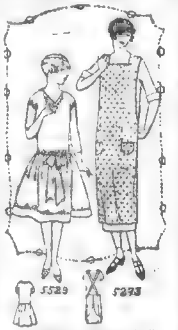
Kittie's eyes, as they were leaving, searched Joslyn; probed her with penetrating, slightly baffled intensity. An uneasiness gathered slowly in Joslyn's breast. For no accountable reason she thought, suddenly, of Minnie Gumbo's sinister prophecy.

"I guess it's all right," Kittie said finally and slowly. "But there's one thing you better remember, pal. Remember who brought you along—and lay off the boy friend."

Copyright, 1926, International Feature Service, Inc.

To Be Continued

Joslyn gets her first taste of high life—tomorrow's installment of "The Taxi Dancer."



A PRETTY FROCK FOR VARIOUS OCCASIONS

5529. For dancing, graduation or as a party frock, this model is especially attractive. It may be made up in georgette, crepe de chine, taffeta or voile.

The Pattern is cut in 4 Sizes: 8, 10, 12 and 14 years. To make the dress as illustrated in the large view for a 14 year size will require 3 yards of 40 inch material. If made with sleeve puffs 3¼ yards will be required.

Pattern mailed to any address on receipt of 12c in silver or stamps.

5273. Ladies' Apron.

Cut in 4 Sizes: Small, Medium, Large and Extra Large. A Medium size requires 2 yards of 36 inch material. Price 12c.

FASHION BOOK NOTICE

Send 12 cents in silver or stamps for our UP-TO-DATE SPRING AND SUMMER 1926 BOOK OF FASHIONS showing color plates and containing [illegible] designs of ladies', misses' and children's patterns, a CONCISE and COMPREHENSIVE ARTICLE ON DRESSMAKING, ALSO SOME POINTS FOR THE NEEDLE (illustrating 30 of the various simple stitches), all valuable hints to the home dressmaker.

Boston Evening American Pattern Coupon

IMPORTANT — Many orders come without name and sizes. Orders must have your name, address, size and number of pattern on coupon.

Pattern No. ______________
Size ______________
Name ______________
Street ______________
City ______________
State ______________

Write CAREFULLY and mail [illegible] 12 cents—stamps or coin—to Boston Evening American Pattern [illegible], [illegible] Times Plaza Station, Brooklyn, N. Y.

Black Flag shows no mercy! It lets no fly, mosquito or roach survive. Not one! It kills them all!

BLACK FLAG kills every kind of bug in the home. Two forms—liquid and powder. At drug, grocery, hardware and department stores. Powder, 15c up. Powder gun, 10c! And the lowest liquid prices you ever saw!

LOOK!

Black Flag LIQUID

Sprayer . . 45c
Quart . . 85c
Pint . . 45c
½ Pint 25c

BLACK FLAG LIQUID or POWDER KILLS INSECTS

© 1926, G. L. Co., Inc.

Perfect Household Refrigeration

A well insulated Refrigerator and ICE.

Refrigeration with ICE is not a luxury

The average ice bill in Massachusetts is approximately $27.00 per year

Mass. Ice Dealers Association
224 State Street, Boston

"There is no Substitute for ICE"

Instant Relief for Chafing

Rashes, Itching, Scalding, Sunburn, Bed Sores, all Skin Soreness of Infants, Children and Adults.

Sykes Comfort Powder

Heals and Soothes Like Magic

A hot weather dessert

Plymouth Rock Coffee Jelly is already to use. Just add hot water and chill.

Made of freshly roasted coffee. (No grounds to strain.)

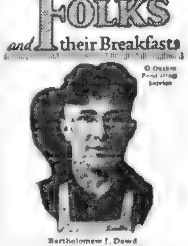
Your grocer has it

1620

ONLY ONE

PLYMOUTH ROCK ALL PREPARED COFFEE JELLY

Everyday FOLKS and their Breakfasts



Bartholomew J. Dowd
Well known Printer, Springfield, Mass.

"Sure, food that's good for me, but make it taste like something, too"—so he starts with Puffed Rice

MEN want to eat food that's "good" for them, of course. But above all, they want food that coaxes the appetite into action, too.

That's why so many have turned to Puffed Rice, said by experts to be the most delicious cereal food known; a food that proves food that's good for you can be gloriously delicious, too.

Each grain is steam puffed to eight times its natural size. And that makes digestion easy. Then it's oven toasted. Which makes it oddly enticing to the taste.

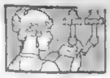
It's food that supplies the vitally needed carbohydrate elements you need for health's sake. Tastes like toasted nutmeats, tempts like a confection, makes it unnecessary to eat cereal foods you don't like much, simply because you feel you need them.

Isn't it better to have that kind of cereal on your table; one that tempts and entices than just an ordinary one? Most people think it is. Try Puffed Rice just for once. You will be delighted. Obtain at your grocery store.

Quaker Puffed Rice

The First Oil Well in the U. S.

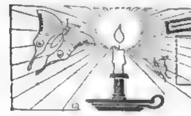
COLONEL E. L. DRAKE began work on a well in Oil Creek, Pennsylvania, on May 20, 1850. On August 27 of the same year he struck oil at a depth of sixty-nine and a half feet. The well produced thirty barrels a day for a year



Fiction Page

This Day in Our History

ONE of the hottest days recorded was July 20, in the year 1892. Within twenty-four hours fifty people in New York lost their lives because of excessive heat. This was followed by a heat wave which lasted eight days.



TARNISHED WINGS

by BEATRICE BURTON

Author of "GILDED KISSES" and "PIRATE OF HEARTS"

Story of a Boston Girl Who Liked Jazz Music and the Bright Lights

CHAPTER XXX.

(Copyright, 1926, Johnson Features, Inc.)

MERRY picked up the snapshots of Bill Erskine and dropped them into the top drawer of the old dresser. She shut it on them with a smart little bang.

"Why, I've known Bill a long time," she answered sharply. "I met him through my sister Cassie. There's nothing so wonderful about my knowing him, is there? He isn't the King of Siam, or anybody I shouldn't know, is he?"

Lillie laughed her [illegible] good natured laugh that always sounded so comfortable and [illegible].

"No, I guess not," she said. "But it's funny just the same, your knowing him. Why, I haven't thought of Toby Erskine for ten or twelve years. And then to find out that he's a friend of yours. The world is a pretty small place, after all, isn't it?"

She shook her head musingly and went on: "I knew him one winter down in Palm Beach. I was giving permanent waves in one of the big hotels and he used to come in and try to make dates with me."

She arched her darkened eyebrows knowingly.

"But he never got very far with ME," she added. "I saw through him right from the word 'go.' He was trying to marry some rich English girl [illegible] but he didn't mind having a [illegible] on the side. Only I wasn't going to be part of his good time. I didn't pass [illegible] for at me. Not I! I know [illegible]."

"What's all this you're talking about there?" Moms asked mildly, trying the handle of the door.

[illegible] her cigarette [illegible] of the window before she was in the room.

Moms' Opinion

"Lillie was telling me about Bill Erskine. [illegible] Merry. [illegible] as if she didn't [illegible] will like [illegible] people [illegible] everything they know [illegible] a little [illegible]."

"I was just telling Merry that he's something of a fortune hunter," she said, getting up and pulling her kimono around her plump shoulders. "At least he was when I knew him. But that was years ago. He may have changed."

"People don't change in this world. Once a bad egg always a bad egg," Moms remarked gloomily.

She settled herself down on the edge of Jenny's narrow bed for a comfortable gossip.

"But if he's out to marry money I don't know what he bothers with Merry for, I'm sure," she said. "For we certainly haven't one cent to rub up against another. We're as poor as Job's turkey."

"He's not after money. He has plenty of money of his own," Merry defended him, indignantly. "He doesn't know what to do with all the money he makes! Why, just look at the things he sends me, every week of his life."

Her big eyes swept the room. Every corner of it was filled with proofs of Bill's devotion to her. A piece of Chinese embroidery was tacked on the wall above her writing desk. A pair of [illegible] carriage boots that he had sent her from Montreal stood on the floor of the clothes closet. The dresser was laden with perfume in [illegible] glass bottles, with boxes and boxes of powder, with a toilet set of genuine tortoise shell.

Moms scolded every time the mail brought these gifts. She didn't think it was proper for a man to give such intimate things as powder and perfume to a young girl, and she said so.

"Some time I'm going to tell him so, too!" she often threatened. "If he doesn't know what's proper and what isn't proper, I'll teach him."

Lillie was looking at herself in the mirror that belonged to the toilet set.

Wise Lillie

"Just gaze upon that double chin, will you!" she exclaimed. "Isn't that terrible! If I don't stop getting fat I'm going to look like a [illegible]. I better go on a skinny diet, I guess."

At the door she turned for a minute.

"You know," she said with her wise head to one side, "You know, all these hard-shell bachelors fall sooner or later. And I guess that's what happened to Toby Erskine, after all these years. Cassie [illegible] so too.

"[illegible] about you, Merry," she told her one afternoon when she dropped into the beauty shop. "You'd just better nab him the next time he comes to town. He has everything a girl wants—money, a nice disposition, good [illegible]. You couldn't do better for yourself than to marry Bill Erskine."

"But I don't love him. I know I don't," Merry said to herself in the [illegible] stillness of her own [illegible].

The feeling [illegible] had for him was nothing like the feeling she had had for Tony Gaines, at any rate. She never [illegible] at the same time when she [illegible] about Bill Erskine as she had [illegible] and [illegible] with happiness [illegible] over Tony long ago.

She never wanted to put her cheek close to his like she did Tony Gaines. The thought of Bill left her [illegible] with a sort of stony coldness that settled around her heart like a coil.

And yet she liked Bill. She missed him when he was away, and she looked forward to his letters.

[illegible] and [illegible] herself. "You're always Bill or [illegible] it keeps B[illegible]."

Sure of Bill

Merry was sure that he was going to ask her to marry him the next time he came to town.

"I may as well take him, I suppose," she said to herself on a hot June afternoon two or three days before her birthday. "I like him fine, and it would be nice to have a home of my own."

After all, it was tiresome having nothing to do but sit here in the shop all day, answering the telephone or straightening out Lillie's sloppy account books.

If she were married to Bill, she could live the way Cassie lived. Cassie could lie in bed until noon [illegible] her breakfast there, propped against a stack of little lacy pillows with a lace cap on her head and a [illegible] jacket around her pretty shoulders.

Cassie could buy all the clothes she wanted. She could play bridge all afternoon if she wanted to and dance half the night if she felt like it. She had no job waiting for her the next morning. No yelping alarm clock. Nothing but leisure, and a good time.

"And yet she doesn't look a bit happier now than she did before she was married," Merry was forced to admit to herself.

As a matter of fact Cassie did not look nearly so happy these days as she had six months ago.

Her discontented-looking mouth turned down at the corners now, more than it ever had before. There was a guarded look in her green eyes.

She had a new way of snapping Morley up sometimes, too.

"You told that one the other night," she would say sharply to him, if he repeated a joke he had heard. And it wasn't very funny to begin with!"

More than ever Merry wondered if Cassie cared for him—if she ever had cared for him.

Perhaps she had, but had gotten over it as people get over most things from measles to maladies of the romantic heart.

Perhaps this was what marriage did to people—made them stop caring for each other in the beautiful nonsensical way that sweethearts care for each other [illegible] leled.

Merry's Faith

[illegible] —a little thing happened that restored her faith in love and marriage and human happiness.

Helen's [illegible] Wordsworth road. It was a [illegible] boy.

Moms telephoned Merry and asked her to bring her a roll of flannel from a [illegible] in the attic of the house. Moms had been staying at Helen's house [illegible] last week, watching for the arrival of her first grandchild.

When Merry reached Helen's house she went in and [illegible] the stairs to Helen's room.

The door of it stood [illegible]. Bill Hepworth was kneeling beside the bed where his wife and their brand new son lay.

Merry had always thought of Bill Hepworth as a dull, [illegible] sort of rabbit—a [illegible].

They [illegible] her think of a team of heavy, slow, patient plow horses plodding along side by side. They had nothing of romance—that glamorous thing [illegible] youth [illegible].

And so she was not at all prepared for the thing that happened as she stood there on the threshold of the darkened room.

"Darling," Helen said to her husband, one of her hands in both of his. "Darling, I know [illegible] he would be a boy, [illegible] he would look like you, [illegible] says he does. If you want hard enough for a thing, you always get it. I wished for you, all over again, and I've got you. I've got you."

Her free arm went around the tiny bundle beside her, that she said was "Bill all over again." And there was a kind of glory in her tired low voice as she said it.

There was a queer tight feeling around Merry's heart as she stood down the stairs and a lump of unshed tears in her throat.

Bill's Answer

She could hear Moms moving around in the kitchen. But she did not go near her. She laid her roll of flannel on the dining room table and fled. She knew that if she so much as spoke to anyone she would burst into tears—and she didn't know why, either!

But that minute at the door of Helen's bed[room] had settled one fact for her forever and ever.

Love and beauty did not go out of life, when two people married. Not always, anyway. She knew she had left Paradise behind her in the modest little house.

* * *

That night Bill Erskine came.

He came without sending word that he was coming.

Merry was lying out in the hammock after supper, looking through the fascinating pages of a motion-picture magazine, when he came up to [illegible] and kissed her full on the mouth.

She screamed.

"Did I frighten you?" he asked, coming around in front of her, and dropping his huge bulk down beside her.

"Frighten me?" she repeated. "I was just one half-inch from palsy! You frightened me—" He sealed her mouth with another kiss.

"Whew! I've been wanting to do that for a month of Sundays!" he said, smiling at her delightedly, through the dusk that was gathering around them like gray fog.

"Oh, Sister, you don't know how I've missed you this trip. I'll bet I've thought of you a hundred times a day every day I was gone! By Jove! I'm getting so I can't get along without you." There was no doubt that he meant what he said.

Merry [illegible] not [illegible] smile at him. He was a dear, after all, she thought. If only he had a little less fat, and a little more [illegible].

[illegible]

He nodded. [illegible]

"Well, then," she went on [illegible] feeling her way, "I wish you'd tell me where we stand—you and I. You see, [illegible] engaged to you and I—" She paused, and then [illegible] I don't know [illegible] them, Bill."

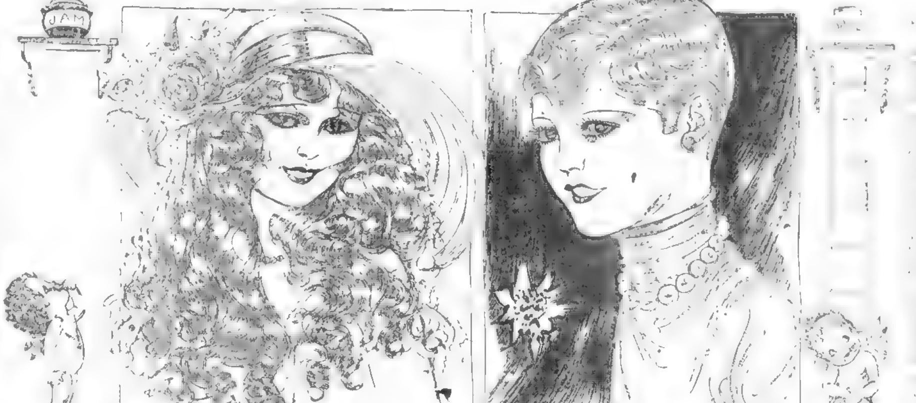
"Don't tell them anything!" Bill answered promptly. [illegible] hands down from his face. "It's none of their gol-darned business." He began to sputter. "None of their business, and you can tell 'em so for me!"

(To Be Continued.)

Bill Erskine makes a promise and sets a date, then sends Merry a little white box, but its contents were disappointing. It contains . . . read tomorrow's chapter of "Tarnished Wings."

Where Are the Sweets of Yesteryear?

DRAWN BY NELL BRINKLEY



© 1926 by Int'l. Feature Service, Inc.

WHERE are the sweets of yesteryear? "Maiden" and "Damsel," the older people say, are words gone out of fashion because there is no one any longer to pin them on. Once, they say, girls were "sweet." Where do you see a young girl any more to whom that adjective might be applied?

Even Father wags his head and says that though his little Betty is a "knock-out" she is not sweet like her Mother was. Her Mother was a flower and Betty is a [illegible]! No perfume, no appeal, no shyness, no sentiment. That's what Father says.

But the younger gentleman says differently! Maybe she isn't as sweet as the slim little creature that graced the magazine page of twenty years ago and was labeled a "beauty," but she's a darling! Pep! She's full of it! She's a pal. She's game. She's as smart as a racing pony. If Grandmother and Mother were gardenias and daisies, Betty is [illegible] She [illegible] More exotic [illegible].

So there you are! What do YOU think? What does Love think do you suppose? Does he love jam best—or spice? Unapproachable jam, or pally spice with a ladder set up to get it?

By NELL BRINKLEY

"The Red Lamp," a Thrilling New Serial

By MARY ROBERTS RINEHART

IN recording the events leading up [illegible] that night—the details of the seance—I am under certain difficulties.

[illegible] I kept no notes. For the [illegible] I found myself a [illegible] of [illegible] sitting between Livingstone and Jane, and [illegible] near the lamp prepared to make [illegible] of what [illegible].

"Of course," he said, as we took [illegible] the usual precautions of what I would call a test seance. All we are attempting to do is to reproduce as nearly as possible, the conditions existing at the other two [illegible]. And—" he glanced at [illegible] smiled "—if Mr. [illegible] consents to the circle proves to be [illegible], we can eliminate him."

[illegible] asked us to remain [illegible], no [illegible] what happened, and [illegible] that no [illegible] was free [illegible] an immediate statement [illegible] effect.

[illegible] that I expect fraud of [illegible]," he added. "But it [illegible] under the circumstances [illegible] that [illegible] myself was [illegible] as the light was [illegible] to [illegible] glow of the red [illegible].

It was not surprising [illegible] that beyond certain movements of the table and fine raps on its surface [illegible] got nothing at first [illegible] that we got anything [illegible].

[illegible] beside Hayward, and as my eyes grew accustomed to the semi-dark ness I could see him, forbidden recourse to his fingers, jerking his head savagely.

All [illegible] life of me, I could not see where all this was leading us. A breaking of the circle was, by Cameron's order, immediately to be announced. Even in complete darkness, when that came—as I [illegible] what was [illegible] likely expected to happen?

But the table continued to move. It began to slide along the carpet, my grip on Livingstone's [illegible] was relaxed and indeed [illegible] began to rock violently. It was [illegible] could do to retain contact [illegible] alone at all. I began [illegible] possibilities in this, but when it had quieted the circle remained as before.

Very soon after that came the signal for darkness, and Cameron extinguished the lamp. Soon Edith, near the cabinet, said the curtain had come out into the room and was touching her. The next moment, as before, the bell fell from the stand inside the cabinet and the guitar strings were lightly touched.

Without warning Cameron turned on the lamp, the curtain [illegible] and all sounds ceased. He was apparently satisfied and after [illegible] moments of experiment with the lamp on, resulting only in a creaking and knocking on the table, he extinguished it. On a repetition of the blowing out of the candle, however, he left his chair for a time, and with a [illegible] examined the cabinet [illegible] the wall coming [illegible] tion.

When he had finished with that, however, I sensed a change in him. I believe now that he suspected fraud but I am not certain [illegible] rather sharply that [illegible] good faith [illegible] ing's answered [illegible] hoped [illegible] would be reported.

"This is not a game," he said shortly.

Jane was very quiet, and now I heard again the heavy breathing which I know preceded the trance condition, or that auto-hypnosis which we know as trance.

"Who is this?" Cameron asked in a low tone.

"Mrs. Porter," Halliday said. "Quiet, everybody!"

The room was completely dark, and save for Jane's heavy breathing, entirely quiet. Strangely enough, for the moment I forgot our purpose there; forgot Greenough and his men, scattered through the house; I had a premonition, if I may call it that, [illegible] on the verge of some tremendous psychic experience. I cannot explain it; I do not know now what unseen forces were gathered there together. I even [illegible] that I too, like Jane, had hypnotized myself.

And then two things were happening, and at the same time.

There was something [illegible] in the library, a soft footfall [illegible] seemed to me, an irregularity [illegible] all the world like the dragging of a partially useless foot, and—Livingstone was quietly releasing his grip of my hand.

I made a clutch at him and he whispered savagely:

"Let go, you fool."

The next moment he had drawn his revolver [illegible] afterwards got [illegible].

The dragging foot moved out into the hall. Livingstone, revolver in hand, was standing beside me and [illegible] running him, he [illegible] no [illegible] ment, however, and in the darkness [illegible] into the hall and there ceased.

[illegible] time, ten seconds or an hour. Livingstone [illegible] Ten seconds or an hour, and then Greenough's voice at the top of the staircase.

"All right. Careful below."

Livingstone moved then. He made a wild dash for the red lamp and turned it on. Hayward was not to [illegible] guard, was [illegible] for [illegible].

"More light," he called. "Light! Quick!"

[illegible] there with Him, both on guard, as it were, at the walls of some sort of rapid movement upstairs, of the [illegible] ing open where it had been closed [illegible] not far away, as of a [illegible] followed by a sort of dream [illegible].

To Be Continued Tomorrow

Copyright International Magazine Co., Inc.

MAKING OF A HUSBAND

By Ann Lisle

"G[illegible] Zeke's," said the [illegible] one [illegible] [illegible] to make his [illegible] in which [illegible] M. Wilde [illegible].

[illegible] Zeke's things [illegible] the better. [illegible] word from Ar[illegible] [illegible] Zeke was grim [illegible] on sending [illegible] once and [illegible] while [illegible] of the [illegible] and [illegible] one born to [illegible].

[illegible] the shadows [illegible] May [illegible] how I [illegible] Arlette should [illegible] and [illegible] as he [illegible].

[illegible] outside [illegible] were [illegible] come and [illegible] be what [illegible] Now we shall [illegible] have no [illegible] And who shall want [illegible] want her—out [illegible] ruthlessly [illegible] he depiled so [illegible] with [illegible].

[illegible] asked Zeke [illegible] I can do [illegible] out who [illegible].

[illegible] his [illegible] immediate [illegible] under his [illegible].

[illegible] thought [illegible] to Zeke [illegible] attitude had [illegible] of [illegible] of in[illegible] about the [illegible] he seemed [illegible] any one as [illegible] the [illegible] summoned him to Dr. W[illegible]'s house on the day [illegible] or had [illegible].

[illegible] and in articulate [illegible] of Arlette's strange [illegible] with the utmost [illegible] in very short [illegible] for search [illegible] campaign to [illegible] And then he [illegible] and began [illegible] But the [illegible] questions [illegible] he began by asking [illegible].

[illegible] found [illegible] he made [illegible] the [illegible] "I [illegible]".

To Be Continued Tomorrow.

Copyright, 1926, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

Advice to Lovelorn

By Beatrice Fairfax

DEAR MISS FAIRFAX:

I [illegible] going steadily with [illegible] my parents [illegible] ing myself from meeting other young men by going only with him.

The reason they are against him is [illegible].

If I ever [illegible] such a thing to [illegible] I am sure it would [illegible] He [illegible] I am the only one in this world he can ever love.

As for myself, I act indifferent and hardly ever feel in an affectionate mood toward him, though I care a great deal for him.

If I gave him up there would be many [illegible] my friends, as they [illegible] been going together a long time. Also, I've received expensive gifts from him.

Is there any way out of this for me? I will be eighteen this week.

C. F.

YOU need not give him up altogether, my dear. But why not abide by your parent's wishes and go about with other young men as well? Above all, don't enter on a long engagement without telling your parents.

[illegible] engagements to wed are [illegible]. You and he [illegible] good friends [illegible] a wife [illegible] If he wants you to wait [illegible] you.

But it's better to keep the status of friends and go about with all your friends until the time comes when you can plan to marry within a few months or a year.

Advertisement

HOW THE PILGRIM MOTHER

Kept Her Family in Good Health

A statue to the Pilgrim Mother was recently unveiled at Plymouth Rock, Mass. Through her we honor every pioneer woman who endured privation and hardships that a nation might live. Shoulder to shoulder with her husband she built a home in the wilderness and reared her sturdy sons and daughters. She cooked and sewed. She spun and wove for her family. When they were ill, she brewed remedies from roots and herbs—such roots and herbs as are now used in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

A Massachusetts woman writes: "I was all run-down, with no ambition. I was tired all the time. Sometimes I would be in bed two or three days at a time, and the doctor would have to give me something to quiet me. A friend told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I have had wonderful results from it. I felt better after taking the second bottle, and I am never without it in the house now. I have told lots of people about it, and they say it helps them, too."—Mrs. J. W. Critchett, 2 Hammond Street, Cambridge, Mass.

Advertisement

Instant Relief From Bunions--Soft Corns

No sensible person will continue to suffer from those intense, agonizing, throbbing bunion pains when the new, powerful, penetrating yet harmless antiseptic Emerald Oil can readily be obtained at any well stocked drug store.

Apply a few drops over the inflamed swollen joint and see how speedily the pain disappears. A few more applications and the swollen joint is reduced to normal.

So marvelously powerful is Emerald Oil that soft corns seem to shrivel right up and drop off.

All druggists guarantee it and are dispensing it to many foot sufferers.

The Right Breakfast for Workers

Eat Food that Supplies "Balanced" Ration After Night's Fast

IF you feel tired, hungry, "fidgety" hours before lunch, don't jump to the conclusion of poor health. Thousands have unenergetic mornings because they start days with breakfasts lacking in certain food elements.

To feel right, you must have a well balanced, complete breakfast eaten. At most other meals—lunch and dinner—you get it. But breakfast is a hurried meal, often badly chosen.

Thus Quaker Oats, containing 16% protein, food's great tissue builder, 58% carbohydrate, its great energy element, plus all-important vitamines and the "bulk" that makes laxatives seldom needed, is the dietetic urge of the world today.

It is food that "stands by" you through the morning.

Get Quaker Oats today. Grocers have two kinds: Quick Quaker, which cooks in 3 to 5 minutes, and Quaker Oats.

Quaker Oats

"Economy!—new 'step-ins' for old with Tintex!"

TINTEX brings you extraordinary savings. For instead of discarding faded "undies," silk stockings, dresses, etc., you make them new again with Tintex. Simply "tint as you rinse." And with the light or medium shades you can use either hot or cold water. Delightful are the results, too—no streaks or spots. Through all the summer months, Tintex means true economy to your wardrobe. See the Tintex Color Card.

Blue Box — for lace-trimmed silks, tints the silk, lace remains white.
Gray Box — for tinting and dyeing all materials (silk, cotton, mixed goods)

15¢ at drug and dept. stores

Tintex

TINTS AS YOU RINSE

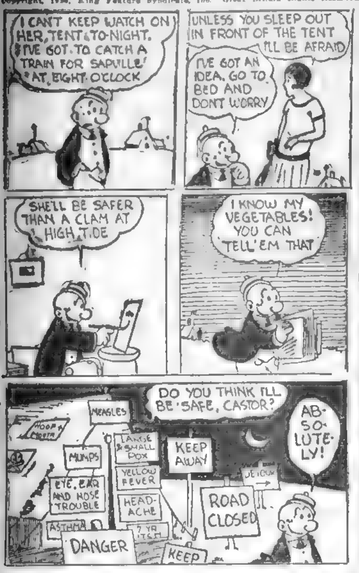
Tints & Dyes Anything any Color

Distributors, PARK & TILFORD, N.Y.

THE THIMBLE THEATRE

Burglar-Proof—By SEGAR

Copyright, 1926, King Feature Syndicate, Inc. Great Britain Rights Reserved.



I CAN'T KEEP WATCH ON HER, TENT TO-NIGHT. I'VE GOT TO CATCH A TRAIN FOR SAPULLE AT EIGHT O'CLOCK
UNLESS YOU SLEEP OUT IN FRONT OF THE TENT I'LL BE AFRAID
I'VE GOT AN IDEA. GO TO BED AND DONT WORRY
SHE'LL BE SAFER THAN A CLAM AT HIGH TIDE
I KNOW MY VEGETABLES! YOU CAN TELL 'EM THAT DO YOU THINK I'LL BE SAFE, CASTOR?
ABSOLUTELY!
MEASLES
MUMPS
LARGE & SMALL POX
YELLOW FEVER
HEADACHE
EYE, EAR AND NOSE TROUBLE
ASTHMA
7 YR ITCH
KEEP AWAY
ROAD CLOSED DETOUR DANGER
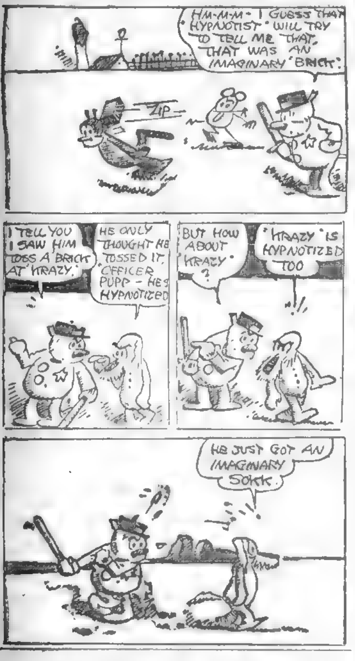
KEEP

KRAZY KAT

Within the Law—By HERRIMAN

Copyright, 1926, Int'n'l Feature Service, Inc. Great Britain Rights Reserved



HM-M-M - I GUESS THAT "HYPNOTIST" WILL TRY TO TELL ME THAT, THAT WAS AN IMAGINARY "BRICK".
ZIP
I TELL YOU I SAW HIM TOSS A BRICK AT "KRAZY."
HE ONLY THOUGHT HE TOSSED IT, OFFICER PUPP - HE'S HYPNOTIZED
BUT HOW ABOUT "KRAZY"?
"KRAZY" IS HYPNOTIZED TOO
HE JUST GOT AN IMAGINARY SOKK.

MEDBURY SAYS---

By John P. Medbury

POLYGAMY is becoming so common in certain parts of the country that one State is thinking of abolishing divorces.

THEY have a law but nobody uses it.

IT'S cheaper to hand a minister three dollars than it is to give a lawyer two hundred and fifty.

OF course, a man with four or five wives usually goes to jail, but he figures it's worth it.

ONE polygamist welcomed the penitentiary with open arms. He said he needed the rest.

HE claims he'd like to marry every woman in the country but he hasn't got time.

HE did the best he could, though, and started with three wives.

A FELLOW can afford to get married as much as he wants as long as he doesn't have to pay out anything for divorces.

WEDDINGS are cheap, and if you go to the altar often enough you can get wholesale rates from the minister.

THERE'S no sense in a bigamist getting married at retail prices.

ONE guy was so nervy he tried to open an account at the City Hall.

HE wanted to be romantic on deferred payments.

HE finally had to borrow some cash from his second wife to buy an engagement ring for the third.

HIS first wife begged him to get a [illegible] but he didn't want to waste the money.

NOT only that but he says that the court rooms [illegible] too many romances.

WHILE you're getting rid of one wife it's hard to keep your mind on the others.

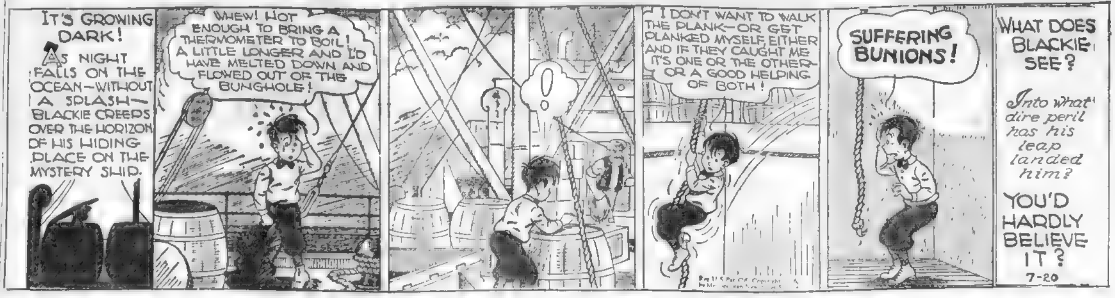
BIGAMY is against the law and there's only one thing that can make a polygamist out of a man and that's marriage.

Copyright, 1926, King Features Synd., Inc.

ELLA CINDERS

A Wild Slide

By BILL CONSELMAN and CHARLIE PLUMB



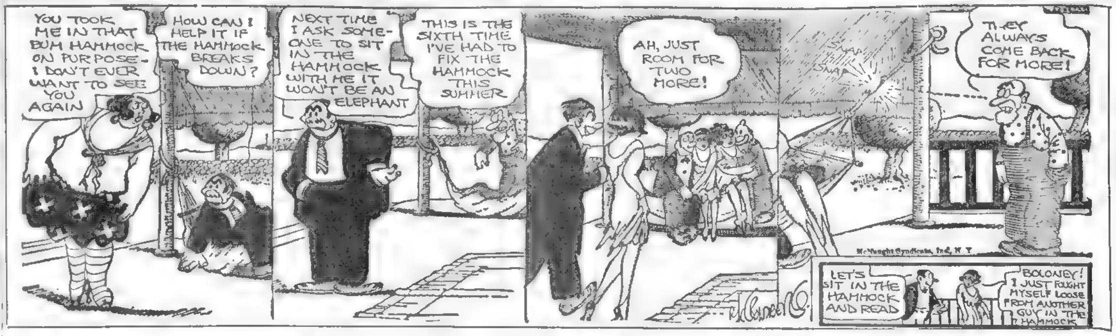
IT'S GROWING DARK!
AS NIGHT FALLS ON THE OCEAN—WITHOUT A SPLASH—BLACKIE CREEPS OVER THE HORIZON OF HIS HIDING PLACE ON THE MYSTERY SHIP.
WHEW! HOT ENOUGH TO BRING A THERMOMETER TO BOIL! A LITTLE LONGER AND I'D HAVE MELTED DOWN AND FLOWED OUT OF THE BUNGHOLE!
!
I DON'T WANT TO WALK THE PLANK—OR GET PLANKED MYSELF, EITHER AND IF THEY CAUGHT ME IT'S ONE OR THE OTHER—OR A GOOD HELPING OF BOTH!
SUFFERING BUNIONS!
WHAT DOES BLACKIE SEE?
Into what dire peril has his leap landed him?
YOU'D HARDLY BELIEVE IT?
7-20

GOLDBERG'S CARTOONS

They Always Come Back for More

Copyright, 1926 by R. L. Goldberg

By Rube Goldberg

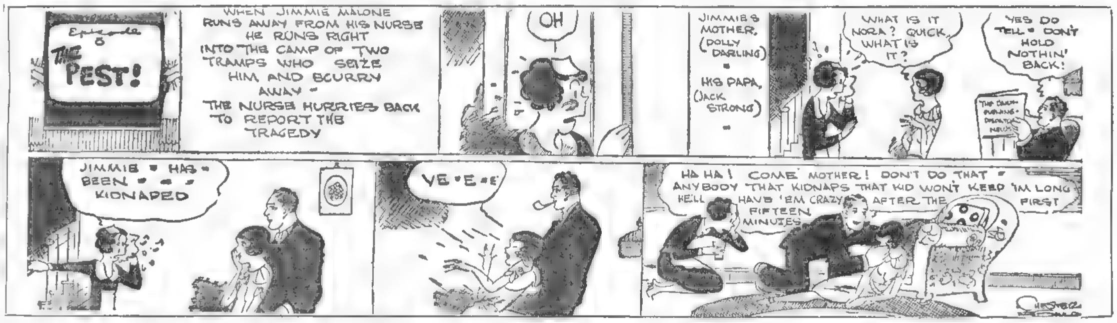


YOU TOOK ME IN THAT BUM HAMMOCK ON PURPOSE - I DON'T EVER WANT TO SEE YOU AGAIN
HOW CAN I HELP IT IF THE HAMMOCK BREAKS DOWN?
NEXT TIME I ASK SOMEONE TO SIT IN THE HAMMOCK WITH ME IT WON'T BE AN ELEPHANT
THIS IS THE SIXTH TIME I'VE HAD TO FIX THE HAMMOCK THIS SUMMER
AH, JUST ROOM FOR TWO MORE!
SNAP
SNAP
THEY ALWAYS COME BACK FOR MORE!
McNaught Syndicate, Inc., N. Y.
LET'S SIT IN THE HAMMOCK AND READ
BOLONEY! I JUST FOUGHT MYSELF LOOSE FROM ANOTHER GUY IN THE HAMMOCK

FILLUM FABLES

Breaking the News

By Chester Gould

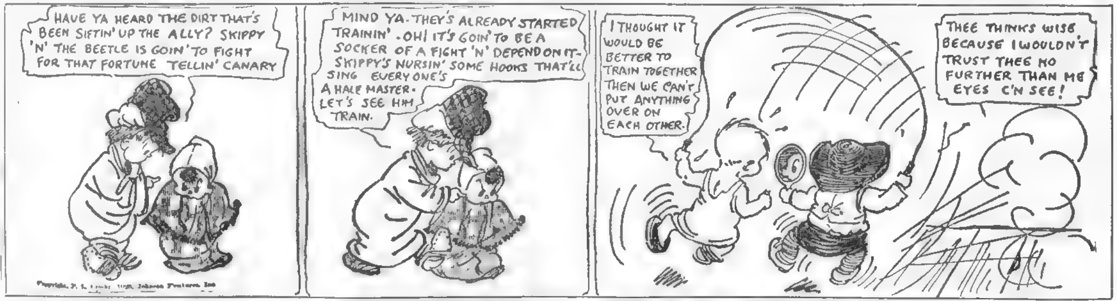


Episode 8
THE PEST!
WHEN JIMMIE MALONE RUNS AWAY FROM HIS NURSE HE RUNS RIGHT INTO THE CAMP OF TWO TRAMPS WHO SEIZE HIM AND SCURRY AWAY - THE NURSE HURRIES BACK TO REPORT THE TRAGEDY
OH
JIMMIE'S MOTHER, (DOLLY DARLING)
HIS PAPA, (JACK STRONG)
WHAT IS IT NORA? QUICK, WHAT IS IT?
YES DO TELL - DON'T HOLD NOTHIN' BACK!
THE DAILY BURNING DISPATCH NEWS
JIMMIE - HAS - BEEN - KIDNAPED
YE-E-E
HA HA! COME MOTHER! DON'T DO THAT - ANYBODY THAT KIDNAPS THAT KID WON'T KEEP 'IM LONG HE'LL HAVE 'EM CRAZY AFTER THE FIRST FIFTEEN MINUTES
CHESTER GOULD

Skippy

They Train Together

By Percy Crosby



HAVE YA HEARD THE DIRT THAT'S BEEN SIFTIN' UP THE ALLY? SKIPPY 'N' THE BEETLE IS GOIN' TO FIGHT FOR THAT FORTUNE TELLIN' CANARY MIND YA. THEY'S ALREADY STARTED TRAININ'. OH! IT'S GOIN' TO BE A SOCKER OF A FIGHT 'N' DEPEND ON IT—SKIPPY'S NURSIN' SOME HOOKS THAT'LL SING EVERY ONE'S A HALE MASTER. LET'S SEE HIM TRAIN.
I THOUGHT IT WOULD BE BETTER TO TRAIN TOGETHER THEN WE CAN'T PUT ANYTHING OVER ON EACH OTHER.
THEE THINKS WISE BECAUSE I WOULDN'T TRUST THEE NO FURTHER THAN ME EYES C'N SEE!

Copyright, P. L. Crosby, 1926, Johnson Features, Inc.

DAILY SHORT STORY

PARTNERS

By Lenore Nealy Cook

LAURA had been in bed all day. Not that this was at all unusual [illegible] but she'd been nursing a [illegible] that defied her to [illegible]. Anyway, what matter? Bob would be coming home from the [illegible] soon and he would [illegible] the [illegible] pain and [illegible] the [illegible] house in order.

Laura heard the front door open [illegible] heavy step across the hall. He hung his hat on the wall and then his head appeared [illegible] door.

"What's the trouble, girlie?" he asked Laura. "Is it the head again?" [illegible] a chair by the bed and sat down, rather wearily.

"What would you like to have for your supper?"

"Just some toast and tea, dear—I have no appetite," wailed Laura.

Bob went into the kitchen and there was the clatter of dishes as he stacked the breakfast things in the pan ready for the washing. Then, while the [illegible] eating he took the [illegible] and went over the [illegible].

Bob had [illegible] never [illegible] was doing [illegible] are that perhaps [illegible] were more [illegible].

After [illegible] Laura her tray [illegible] of anything [illegible] took away [illegible] Laura apologized for [illegible]. It was [illegible] to have [illegible].

"Want anything more, honey?" he asked when he [illegible] the empty tray.

"I don't think I shall have any more, dear," she [illegible]. "But if there are any more of those cakes, you might put one on the table there for later in the evening."

It was nine o'clock before Bob finally placed the kitchen in order, laid out his breakfast things and settled himself with the paper. But in ten minutes, [illegible] was drowsing.

It was the next afternoon that little Mrs. Galloway breezed in with a tempting tray of food for Laura.

"Well, how's the sick lady today?" she asked as she set down the covered tray and perched herself lightly on the edge of the bed.

"Not so good, Molly," sighed Laura. "My, how I wish I had your good health and energy."

"Nonsense. You could have [illegible], Laura, if you wanted it," retorted Molly frankly. "Just try! Did you ever scrub your kitchen floor? Did you ever clean your whole house in half a day?"

Laura was staring at her wide-eyed. "Molly Galloway! What a thing to ask an invalid, you know——"

But Molly put in bravely, "Doctors have never been able to find your trouble. Just think it over. Why, Laura, you haven't even tried to [illegible] housework."

Laura lay back among her pillows. She would just rest for a [illegible] to the [illegible] Molly had. She saw her [illegible] of [illegible] as Molly [illegible] was.

[illegible] popped [illegible] as a new [illegible] into her mind. [illegible] what [illegible] Bob? Would he miss her? [illegible] he would be [illegible]. She was a burden [illegible]. And while Laura was [illegible] so frank with herself, she went a step farther. Bob would not grieve very long for a wife who had not done her share. Dear old [illegible] Bob had taken on everything, his work and hers, too.

There was a new light in Laura's eyes as she rose, bathed and dressed. She felt strange in a house dress, so seldom had she worn one.

She carried rugs out of the living room and started there. The work made her very tired, since she was unaccustomed to it. Her muscles ached by the time she had swept and dusted everything but the [illegible] Laura's eyes were burning even brighter [illegible] two spots of color [illegible] to her cheeks. She did want to try. She did want to be a regular partner to Bob.

After the house was in order Laura sat down and took stock of her physical pains. She was surprised to find that she felt very well. Save for weary muscles she was better than she had been in some years. After ten minutes rest she went to the little kitchen and wiped the dust off the cook book her husband's mother had given her.

For half an hour she pored over it religiously, then she telephoned the grocer. Poor Bob hadn't had the time to keep the icebox and the supply shelf well filled.

Bob came home that night, hung his hat in the hall and peeked around the door into Laura's room. There was the [illegible] freshly made. Bob [illegible] uneasily at the room.

"Laura!" [illegible]ly. "Where are [illegible]?"

He [illegible] eyes so blue [illegible] It must [illegible]

She laughed [illegible] swered [illegible] sheet of [illegible] of the [illegible] and but [illegible] She laughed again. [illegible] this is going to be a DINNER."

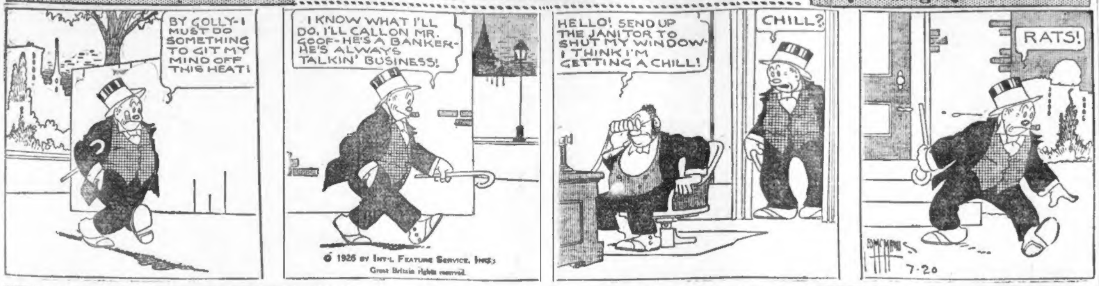
He held her tight. "All right, old dear," he said huskily. "But don't overdo it the first day. Take it easy and by and by you will be a full-fledged partner."

That was the beginning of their partnership.

BRINGING UP FATHER

Jiggs Seeks Relief From the Heat

By George McManus

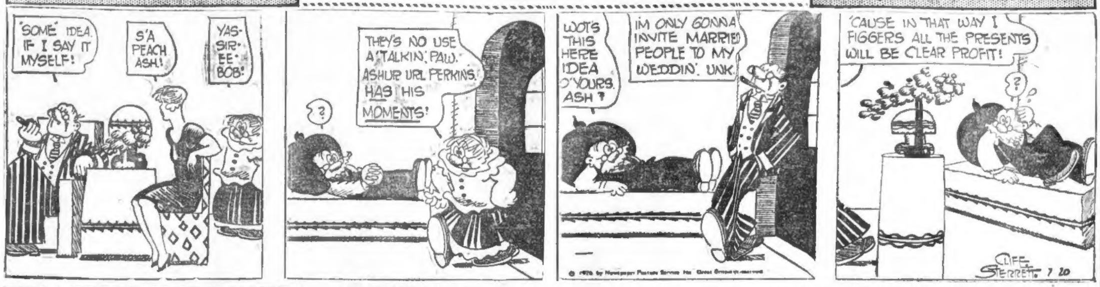


BY GOLLY-I MUST DO SOMETHING TO GIT MY MIND OFF THIS HEAT!
I KNOW WHAT I'LL DO, I'LL CALL ON MR. GOOF-HE'S A BANKER-HE'S ALWAYS TALKIN' BUSINESS!
HELLO! SEND UP THE JANITOR TO SHUT MY WINDOW-I THINK I'M GETTING A CHILL!
CHILL?
RATS!
© 1926 by Int'l Feature Service, Inc. Great Britain rights reserved.
7-20

POLLY AND HER PALS

Clear Profit

By Cliff Sterrett

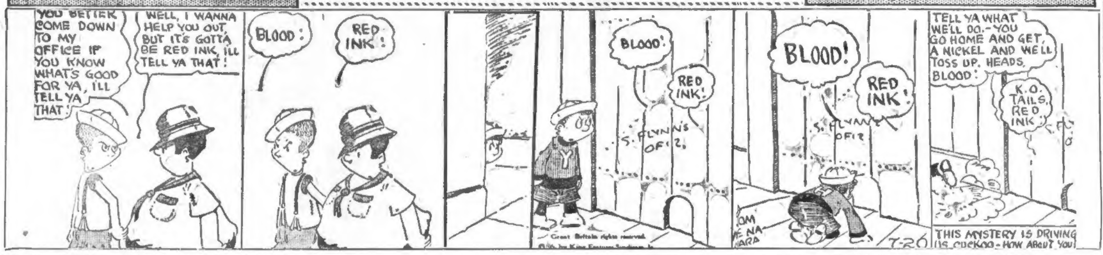


'SOME' IDEA IF I SAY IT MYSELF!
S'A PEACH ASH!
YAS-SIR-EE-BOB!
THEY'S NO USE A TALKIN', PAW, ASHUR URL PERKINS HAS HIS MOMENTS!
?
WOT'S THIS HERE IDEA O' YOURS, ASH?
I'M ONLY GONNA INVITE MARRIED PEOPLE TO MY WEDDIN', UNK.
'CAUSE IN THAT WAY I FIGGERS ALL THE PRESENTS WILL BE CLEAR PROFIT!
?
CLIFF STERRETT 7 20

US BOYS

Sounds Like a Pirate's Den

By McNamara

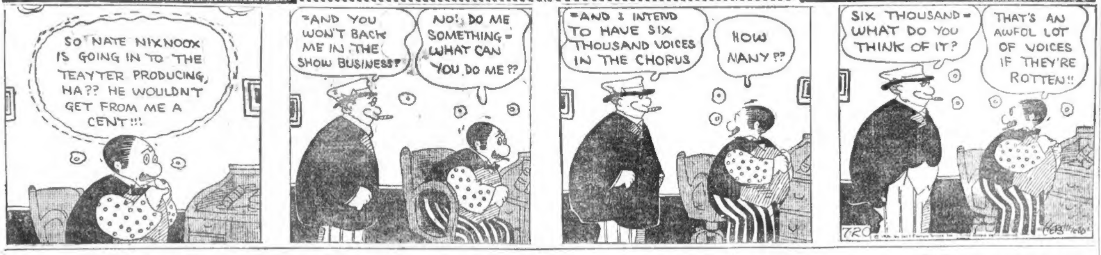


YOU BETTER COME DOWN TO MY OFFICE IF YOU KNOW WHAT'S GOOD FOR YA, I'LL TELL YA THAT!
WELL, I WANNA HELP YOU OUT, BUT IT'S GOTTA BE RED INK, I'LL TELL YA THAT!
BLOOD!
RED INK!
BLOOD!
RED INK!
S. FLYNN'S OFF'C.
BLOOD!
RED INK!
TELL YA WHAT WE'LL DO.-YOU GO HOME AND GET A NICKEL AND WE'LL TOSS UP. HEADS, BLOOD!
K.O. TAILS, RED INK!
THIS MYSTERY IS DRIVING US CUCKOO-HOW ABOUT YOU
Great Britain rights reserved.
7-20

ABIE THE AGENT

A Sound Argument

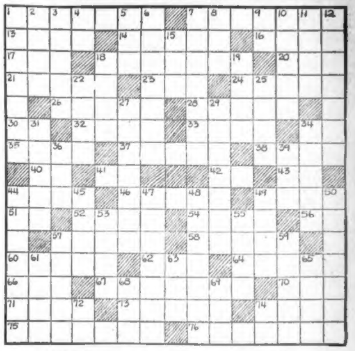
By Hershfield



SO NATE NIXNOOX IS GOING IN TO THE TEAYTER PRODUCING, HA?? HE WOULDN'T GET FROM ME A CENT!!!
"AND YOU WON'T BACK ME IN THE SHOW BUSINESS?
NO! DO ME SOMETHING - WHAT CAN YOU DO ME??
"AND I INTEND TO HAVE SIX THOUSAND VOICES IN THE CHORUS
HOW MANY??
SIX THOUSAND - WHAT DO YOU THINK OF IT?
THAT'S AN AWFUL LOT OF VOICES IF THEY'RE ROTTEN!!
7-20
HERSHFIELD

Today's Cross-Word Puzzle

A TARANTULA, NO. 252



HORIZONTAL.

1—a breastwork
7—to alleviate
13—wanton or unrestrained behavior
14—to efface
16—to reach from side to side of 17—bustle
18—mitigate
20—to free
21—progeny
23—a vegetable
24—a choice or select body
26—a foot journey or excursion
28—of or pertaining to one's birth
30—that thing
32—joy
33—an urn for holding ashes
34—conjunction
35—repose
37—a small, venomous serpent
38—cuts with an axe
40—exist
41—forward
42—in such manner
43—indefinite article
44—to shut with force
46—demise
49—to irritate
51—myself
52—word used to denote concurrence or assent
54—white frost
56—accomplish
57—to move suddenly
58—separately; aside
60—one who rates
62—a wand
64—seizes suddenly with the teeth
66—a bond
67—those who or that which spades
70—a domestic animal, used as a pet
71—paradise
73—a musical drama
74—to beget
75—reclines
76—marked with spots

VERTICAL.

1—an extensive tract of land, destitute of trees and covered with coarse grass
2—assists
3—a perch
4—near
5—elongated fish
6—ensnared; caught in a trap
7—sideways; with a side glance
8—perceive
9—ourselves
10—one of the twelve months
11—manner of walking or stepping
12—makes dear or more dear
15—a unit
18—that which closes or makes secure
19—snares
22—to drive; to impel
25—one of the narrow strips of wood nailed to the rafters
27—to wind, turn or twist
29—a machine for navigating the air
31—to tabulate
34—possessed
36—ocean
39—organ of hearing
44—cleverer
45—companion
47—inveigles
48—merchants; those engaged in trade
49—a flowerless plant
50—dried and browned by the heat of a fire
53—a planet
55—bulk; magnitude
57—precipitous
59—silent
61—assistant
63—lyric poem
65—to peel
68—an author of weird tales
69—to strike a sharp blow
72—negative
74—street (abbr.)

ANSWER TO PUZZLE NO. 251

DEFORMS
SURE▨EATS
COBRA▨GLYPH
TO▨SORTIES▨AD
HAVE▨REAMS▨ABEL
EMEND▨DIE▨SMILE
AERIAL▨L▨BOATED
D▨▨GLAMOROUS▨▨G
WARMED▨R▨ALSACE
AREAS▨GIN▨SEVER
YAPS▨DONEE▨DORS
BE▨BEGGARS▨WE LYING▨TAELS
RAIL▨ESNE
SMEARED

Copyright 1926, King Features Syndicate, Inc.

THE BEST JOKE I EVER HEARD

The Boston Evening American will pay $1 for "Best Joke" published. Address "Best Joke," Boston Evening American.

First Stude: "Why is the ankle between the foot and the knee?"

Second Stude: "I give up."

First Stude: "It's there to keep the calf from the corn."

RUTH A. WISENTANER.
No. 13 Linwood square, Roxbury.

DANDRUFF
AND SCALP ECZEMA
Millions of Happy Users testify to the merits of Lucky Tiger. A single application stops that miserable itching. MONEY-BACK GUARANTEE. At Barbers and Druggists. Also makers "Whyte-Fox" Skin Remedy
LUCKY TIGER

-and they lived happily forever after

WHENEVER we see a picture or play end like that, we wonder where they are going to live.

Undoubtedly he will let her find their future home or apartment, and we'll wager that she will pick it from the Boston American or Boston Advertiser classified ads.

MEDITATIONS OF A WIFE, BY HELEN ROWLAND

ONE good-looking man will do more to brighten up a Summer hotel piazza than a row of flower-boxes and a whole bolt of cretonne.

• • •

It may take nine tailors to make a man—but one woman can spoil him, without half trying.

• • •

Cats and men are instinctively cautious; women, like dogs, learn discretion by experience—but they seldom make the same fool mistake twice.

• • •

In the modern girl's philosophy, marriage apparently has nothing more to do with love than night has to do with sleep or nature with the shade of your complexion.

• • •

Pity the poor chorus lady, who used to be the sauce piquant of a bachelor's life. Alas, now, beside, the co-ed, the flapper and the debutante she is only its orange marmalade.

• • •

Love, without the hors d'ouvres of sentiment, uncertainty, romance and curiosity, deteriorates from a banquet into a quick-lunch.

• • •

When a woman discovers that her husband's flirtations arouse nothing in her but a mild astonishment that another woman should waste her time on him, she is as good as packed and started for Reno, Paris or Mexico.

• • •

A girl never notices what the clergyman who marries her looks like; but somehow, she seems to feel that a good-looking lawyer will make her divorce a lot more binding.

• • •

When a girl marries she loses the devoted attentions of a lot of men—for a little while—and of one man for life!

• • •

Alas, if a man could only put the same enthusiasm and eloquence into his love-making that he puts into shouting for the home-team!

Copyright 1926, King Features Syndicate.

FOR Acid Stomach
PHILLIPS' Milk of Magnesia

Instead of soda hereafter take a little "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" in water any time for indigestion or sour, acid, gassy stomach, and relief will come instantly.

BETTER THAN SODA

For fifty years genuine "Phillips Milk of Magnesia" has been prescribed by physicians because it overcomes three times as much acid in the stomach as a saturated Solution of bicarbonate of soda, leaving the stomach sweet and free from all gases. Besides, it neutralizes acid fermentations in the bowels and gently urges this souring waste from the system without purging. It is far more pleasant to take than soda.

TRY A 25c BOTTLE

Insist upon "Phillips." Twenty-five cent and fifty cent bottles, any drugstore.

THE RHYMING OPTIMIST

By Aline Michaelis

THE new moon hints of promise when its tilted crescent lies adrift against the sapphire dusk of darkening twilight skies, and dropping westward as it goes with gleam of fairy gold, it whispers of the lovely things the morrow yet may hold. The new moon has a wistful air that stirs the heart of men and lends for but a fleeting time their youthful dreams again; it bears strange magic on its beams, strange sweetness in its glow, the little, lucent crescent moon that speaks of long ago. I love to watch it as it lies, a shining flower of light, whose beauty casts its subtle lure across the realm of night; I love it for its promises and for its memories, too; but most of all for thoughts it wakes, for tender thoughts of you!

I LOVE to live in spacious, quiet rooms to know the sense of peace that like a flower in their four walls blooms and grants tired men release from vexing bondages of sordid things, and from each petty care that all too closely round the spirit clings and leaves its imprint there. I love old rooms that strangely still retain the joy of days gone by, that guard old blisses time can never stain however years may fly. Old rooms are sweet with pinks and lavender and sweet with vanished love, with incenses that drift from days afar and through these doorways move. I love old rooms that someway hold and keep, through silence and decay, dreams sweeter than the dreams men know in sleep, dreams dawn takes not away.

JUST for an hour on a wind-swept hill youth and its joys come back; just for an hour, while the pulses thrill, life shows no loss, no lack. All is again as it was of old, back in the glowing dawn; only the beauties of life unfold, naught of its gladness gone. Swept are the ways where youth's steps are set, treading them once again, nothing is left us of wild regret, nothing of grief or pain. Happy in dreaming, though dreams are brief and, in a springtime mood, gone are the days of the withered leaf, life surges back at the flood. Just for an hour while the linnets sing, wonderful dreams return; just for an hour at the crest of Spring, hearts with their old dreams burn.

Clear The Pores
Of Impurities With Cuticura Soap
Soap, Ointment, Talcum sold everywhere.

'You Said It, Marceline!'

By MARCELINE D'ALROY

ON "WOMEN OF THIRTY-FIVE"

WHEN A WOMAN reaches
THIRTY-FIVE she has Accomplished SOMETHING
That SHE is often
UNAWARE OF.
AT 15 A GIRL'S LIFE
IS HER PARENTS'; at Twenty-five the responsibility is USUALLY her HUSBAND'S;
AT THIRTY-FIVE—
It's HER OWN.
That is to say, she KNOWS she is really RESPONSIBLE for EVERYTHING that happens
To her. She is ALSO Responsible if NOTHING
HAPPENS.
This is WONDERFUL!
AT THIRTY-FIVE a Woman can LOOK ON LIFE with a CONQUERING EYE. She Can SMILE AT MEN
And WOMEN alike
(Though for different Reasons) BECAUSE she
Is no longer so afraid
Of being LAUGHED AT.

Copyright, 1926, Premier Syndicate, Inc.

BITES-STINGS
For all insect bites, red bug, chigger, bee, wasp, mosquito, etc., apply wet baking soda or household ammonia, followed by cooling applications of—
VICKS VAPORUB
Over 17 Million Jars Used Yearly

SMART SAYINGS OF CLEVER CHILDREN

The Boston Evening American will pay $1 for published smart sayings. Address "Smart Sayings," Boston Evening American.

My little boy, aged five, was playing with a gas filled ball, when suddenly he punctured it and squeezed the gas out. Then turning to his mother he said, "Look, Ma, the ball is all out of breath."

ELMER NELSON,
No. 48 Lexington ave., Cranston, R. I.

Summer-Heat Depresses Vitality
SCOTT'S EMULSION
Rich in Cod-liver Oil Vitamins
Builds Strength
Scott & Bowne, Bloomfield, N. J.

OPINIONS ARE DIVIDED ON MARKET

By FRANK H. MELOON,
Financial Editor

Never has the writer seen a time when opinions on the future course of the stock market were more sharply divided than at present, as voiced by members of the Boston Stock Exchange. Some are wildly bullish, some as wildly bearish. A few follow the middle course, believing prices over most of the list are unlikely to show much change in the coming few weeks.

* * *

One Wall street writer says the act of Jeremiah Smith, Jr., in returning to Hungary for charity his $100,000 salary check for services rendered as reorganizer of Hungary's finances should go a long way toward altering a rather prevalent European belief that "all Americans are after is money." Mr. Smith, a Boston lawyer and economist, was appointed League of Nations commissioner for Hungary in April, 1924, being entitled to $100,000 salary for his two years' service in straightening out the finances of that nation, and his act in returning his full pay appears particularly magnanimous in view of the fact that he is not generally known as a "rich man."

J. Smith, Jr.

L. K. Liggett

* * *

Mr. Smith is a native of Dover, N. H., took his baccalaureate and law degrees at Harvard, and has been connected with the Boston law firm of Herrick, Smith, Donald & Farley. During the World War he served as an officer in the A. E. F. and has been with the American Mission to Negotiate Peace as counsel to the Treasury Department and adviser on financial matters. He is a trustee of Phillips Exeter Academy, as was his father, the late Judge Jeremiah Smith, and is connected with various societies and welfare organizations. Home again in Boston, he modestly disclaims credit for many of the bouquets flung in his direction.

* * *

Boston News Bureau remarks: "It is difficult for Louis K. Liggett to drop the reins of business entirely and take a vacation in the strict sense of the word. For the first time in five years, however, he is taking what to his mind is a complete vacation. From now until September he will be cruising throughout New England waters, making his headquarters at his place on the Cape, yet keeping in daily touch with his office in Boston.

* * *

"His United Drug Company, paying 8 per cent. on its common stock and earning at the rate of $20 a share, takes care of itself; the Winchester company is now on a self-supporting basis, with earnings steadily increasing, and the Liggett organization there can 'carry on.' But though his personal presence may be missing, his organizations will still feel his guiding hand through almost constant communication with executive offices. In this way he will combine vacation with business, and while his family thinks otherwise, Liggett's idea of a vacation is to continue to work as hard as before, but if necessary to shift the scene of action from your office to your place of 'rest.'"

* * *

King Philip, who fought the colonists a full century before the Liberty bell proclaimed American independence, is revived in present day realty projects. South Sudbury, "down Henry Ford's way," is erecting a community of "Colonial homes." North Weymouth boasts of King Philip's Creek off the Monatiquot River, where considerable building is also going on.

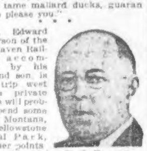
* * *

Chinese say a dog is not considered a good canine because he is a good barker. H. and M. G. Mitchell of Kittery, Me., which was named Boston long before our own city adopted that name, advertis "loud-voiced tame mallard ducks, guaranteed to please you."

* * *

Advice Free

Before you buy or sell any stocks or bonds, you should have expert advice. Send inquiries with stamp to Frank H. Meloon, financial editor, Boston Evening American, 5 Winthrop square, Boston, Mass. No replies can be made other except by mail.



E. J. Pearson

Pres. Edward J. Pearson of the New Haven Railroad, accompanied by his wife and son, is on a trip west in his private car. He will probably spend some time in Montana, visit Yellowstone National Park, and other points. He was expected to go over the Northern Pacific, of which he was at one time chief engineer, and also to have a look at some of the other Western railroads.

State Street Notes

ARBITRATION of wages of Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway, due to begin this morning, after several postponements, has been postponed until July 26, due to illness of James H. Vahey.

BROOKLINE has awarded to Harris, Forbes & Co., at 101.34, $353,090 4 per cent. bonds maturing 1927 to 1946.

PRODUCTION of lead by principal countries of world in June amounted to 114,151 tons, compared with 113,889 tons in May, 105,966 tons in April and 112,588 tons in March.

AMOSKEAG Manufacturing continues to run its Manchester plants at about same ratio as for first half-year, viz., between 60 per cent and 70 per cent. capacity. Its operations have not varied a great deal from this ratio for several years.

Wall Street Gossip

READING loadings' total of 1,253,937 cars in six months ended June 30 compares with 1,157,257 in 1921 period.

POSTUM Cereal, including subsidiaries, reports for quarter ended June 30 net profit of $2,972,317 after Federal taxes, against $3,106,321 in the preceding quarter.

MEMBERSHIP of N. C. Wolffe in Rubber Exchange of New York has been sold at auction to F. H. Robinson, Jr., of P. A. Desmond Co. for $5,500. Previous sale was at $6,000.

ARTHUR D. LORD of Summit, N. J., appointed ancillary receiver in equity for DeForest Radio Co. and will take charge of its properties in New York State.

NEW interests with whom Pres. Franklin of International Mercantile Marine is said to be negotiating for sale of White Star Line are Viscount Inchape and Sir John Reeves Ellerman.

BANK STATEMENT

TUESDAY, JULY 20

Bos. Cl.	78,000,000	Bos. Bal.	30,000,000
Bos. Bal.	30,000,000	Bos. Cl.	78,000,000
N. Y. Cl.	963,000,000	N. Y. Bal.	75,000,000
N. Y. Bal.	75,000,000	N. Y. Cl.	963,000,000

Washington, July 20.—U. S. Treasury balance, $210,196,144.

Most "Tips" Worthless

Brokers Would Soon Be Millionaires If They Knew of "Sure Things" in Market

Selling worthless securities by claiming to have "tips" obtained through "wire tapping" is not exactly new.

That a man could get many thousands of dollars in Greater Boston by such a method would seem incredible to many. "Tips" are generally worthless, anyway.

Boston brokers, big or little, would soon be all millionaires if they knew of "sure things" in the stock market.

There is rarely a millionaire who dies without leaving worthless securities in his strong boxes.

Millionaires can afford to gamble, however, where the rest of us are not entitled to take too long chances.

NEW YORK STOCKS

	July 20 High	Low	Latest	July 19 Close
Ahumada L.	8	8	8	8
All Ch & Dye	129¾	129	129	129⅝
Allis Chal Mfg	88	88	88	88¼
Am Bosch M.	20⅝	20¼	20¼	20⅝
Am Br'n Bov.	40⅞	40⅞	40⅞	40
Am Can	58⅛	57⅛	57⅛	57⅝
Am Chain A.	26	24	26	25¼
Am Express	67	67	67	—
Am Ice	125	125	125	125
Am Safety R.	63⅞	63⅝	63⅝	63
Am Smeltg	135½	135	135	135
Am Tel & Tel.	141⅝	141⅞	141⅝	141⅝
Am Tob B.	119⅞	119⅞	119⅞	119⅞
Am Zinc pf	37	37	37	38
Anaconda	50⅝	50	50⅝	49½
Armour Ill A.	15⅛	15⅛	15⅛	15⅛
Asso Dry Gds.	41⅝	41⅝	41⅝	41¼
Atch T & S F.	137⅝	137	137	136½
Baldwin Loco.	119⅝	118½	118½	116½
Balt & Ohio	96⅝	96⅜	96⅝	96⅝
Barnsdall Cl A	25⅝	25⅝	25⅝	25½
Beth Steel	45½	45½	45⅛	45⅞
Briggs Mfg	28¾	28⅝	28⅝	28½
Bklyn Edison	142⅝	142⅝	142⅝	—
Butte & Sup.	11½	11½	11½	11½
Calif Pete	33⅛	33	33	33
Can Pacific	163⅞	163½	163½	164
Cerro de Pasco	68	67¾	67¾	67½
Ches & Ohio	143	142⅜	152¾	152¼
Chi & Alton pf	7⅞	7⅞	7⅞	8
Chi Gt W pf	24¼	24⅛	24¼	24¼
Chi Pneu Tool	114⅝	114	114	—
Chi R I	52½	52⅛	52⅛	52½
Childs Co	53½	53½	53½	53¾
Colo Fuel & I	47⅛	47	47	46⅝
Col Gas & E.	83⅞	83⅞	83⅞	83
Com Solv B.	165	165	165	165
Con Distrib	3⅝	3⅝	3⅝	3
Congoleum	22¾	22⅛	22⅛	22⅛
Consol Cigar	69	69	69	67½
Consol Gas	102⅞	102⅛	102⅞	102⅛
Corn Prod	45⅝	45⅜	45⅝	44½
Chrysler	38½	37⅞	37⅞	38
Crucible Steel	75⅝	75⅝	75⅝	74⅝
Cuban Am	25	25	25	25
Davison Ch	36⅜	36	36	36½
Del & Hud	163⅝	163⅝	163⅝	164
Del L & W	146	146	146	143
Dodge Bros	35⅝	35⅜	35⅝	34
Dodge Bros pf	89⅞	89⅝	89⅞	89½
Dome Mines	11	11	11	10⅞
Douglas P.	24	24	24	24⅛
Dupont d N.	260½	260½	260½	259½
Eaton Axle	29	29	20	28⅞
Elec P & L	20⅛	20	20	19½
Elec S Bat	83⅝	83⅝	83⅝	83⅝
Erie 1st pf	44½	44½	44½	44½
*Eureka Vac.	54¾	54¾	54¾	55
Famous Plyrs.	116⅝	116¼	116¼	115½
Fox Film	72½	72	72	72⅝
Freeport	32⅞	32⅞	32⅞	32⅞
Gabriel Snub'r	33	32⅝	32⅝	33⅝
Gardner Mot.	7	7	7	7
Gen Am Tank	45½	45½	45½	45
Gen Asphalt	68½	68½	68½	68⅝
Gen Electric	362	360½	362	361½
Gen Elec spec	11⅛	11⅛	11⅛	11¼
Gen Elec new	90½	89⅞	90½	90⅝
Gen Motors	168¼	166⅝	166⅞	168⅝
Gen Ry Sig.	89⅝	88½	88½	89¼
Gimbel Bros	50½	50½	50½	—
Gold Dust	53½	52½	53	53
Goodyr T pf	106¼	106¼	106¼	—
Gulf M & Nor	35¼	35¼	35¼	35¼
Household Pr.	43⅞	43⅞	43⅞	—
Hd & Mn RR.	39	39	39	39¾
Hudson Motor	66¼	64¼	65	62⅝
Hupp Motor	25	24⅝	24⅝	24⅞
Ill Central	121½	121½	121½	122
Independ Oil	23	23	23	23⅝
Indian Refin	11⅝	11½	11½	11⅝
Int Harvester	130	129¼	129¼	129¼
Intl Cement	56½	56½	56½	56⅝
Intl Com Eng	55	54⅝	54⅝	55
Intl Mer Ma pf	32	32	32	31⅞
Intl Nickel	39½	39⅛	39½	39½
Intl Paper	51	51	51	52
Inland Stl	41⅝	41⅝	41⅝	41⅝
Intl Tel & Tel	124⅝	124¼	124⅝	124½
Jordan Motor	22¼	21⅝	21⅝	22½
Kan City & So	43½	43⅛	43⅛	43⅝
Kennecott Cop	56⅝	56⅜	56½	56⅛
Kresge Co	55¼	55	55¼	54¼
Lehn & Fink	40⅝	39½	39⅝	39⅛
Liggett Ser B.	86½	86	86¼	86
Loews Inc	38⅝	38⅝	38⅝	38⅝
Loft Inc	8	8	8	8
Lorillard & Co	38⅝	38	38	38½
Louisiana Oil	16⅛	16⅛	16⅛	16⅛
Mack Trucks	126¼	125¼	125⅝	125⅝
Magma Copper	47⅝	41⅝	41⅝	41⅞
Lago Oil	22⅝	22⅜	22⅝	22⅝
Lambert	67¼	67	67¼	66⅝
Marland Oil	58¼	57⅝	57⅝	58¼
Mex Seabd Oil	13	13	13	12⅞
Miami Copper	15	15	15	15
Mid Cont Pet.	28⅝	28⅛	28½	28⅝
Mo Kan & Tex	37⅝	37⅛	37⅝	37⅝
Mo Pacific	39½	39	39	39¼
Mo Pacific pf.	90⅝	90⅝	90⅝	91¼
Montana Pow	80¼	80⅜	80⅜	80⅝
Montgy Ward	71⅝	71½	71½	71⅝
Moto-Meter	44½	44½	33½	44⅝
Motor Wheel	24	24	24	24
Mother Lode	6	6	6	6
*Nash Motors	55¼	55¼	55¼	57
Nat Biscuit	93¼	93	93	93½
Nat Cash Reg	44⅝	44¼	44⅝	44½
Nat Dairy Pr	68⅝	68⅝	68⅝	68⅝
Nat P & L	23⅛	23⅛	23⅛	23½
Nat Supply	64	64	64	64
Nev Cons Cop	14⅛	14⅛	14⅛	14
NY Caners	44	44	44	44½
NY Central	131⅝	131	131⅝	131
NY NH & H.	47	46⅝	46⅝	47⅛
North Am.	52	51⅛	51½	51⅝
Nor Pacific	72⅝	72⅜	72⅝	72⅞
Oilwell Sup	35	35	35	34½
Pac Oil	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝	—
Packard Motor	41⅝	41⅝	41⅝	42
Pan-Am Pet B	69½	68⅝	68⅝	69⅛
Pan-Am West	38⅝	38⅝	38⅝	38⅝
Pathe A.	57	57	57	57
Penn RR.	54¼	54¼	54¼	54¼
Pere Marq	97½	97¼	97¼	97⅝
Phila & R Co	38⅛	38⅛	38⅝	38½
Phillips Petrol	47⅛	46⅝	46⅝	47⅛
Pierce Arrow	30	29⅛	29⅛	30½
Pierce Ar pr.	113	113	113	113
Postum Cereal	103⅝	103	103	103⅝
Pub Serv NJ.	88	88	88	87⅝
Pullman Co	179¼	179¼	179¼	179
Punta Alegra	34¼	34¼	34¼	34½
Pure Oil	27⅛	27	27	27
Radio Corp	43⅝	43½	43½	43⅝
Reading	96	96	96	96½
Reading 1st pf	52½	52¼	52¼	—
Rep Iron & S.	55⅞	55⅞	55⅞	—
ReynoldsTob B	98	97⅝	97⅝	98
Royal Dutch	52⅝	52⅝	52⅝	53⅛
Rutland RR pf	51⅛	51⅛	51⅛	51
Shattuck FG	65¼	65¼	65¼	65¼
Shell Union O	28¼	27⅞	27⅞	27⅞
Sinclair Oil	20⅞	20⅝	20⅝	—
Simms Petrol.	17¼	17¼	17¼	17¾
Skelly Oil	33	33	33	33⅛
Sloss Sh S&I.	129¾	129⅝	129⅝	130½
Southern Pac.	106½	106⅝	106⅝	106⅝
Sou Cal Edi	32⅝	32½	32½	33
So P R Sug	110	109⅝	109⅝	110¼
Southern Ry	118⅛	118	118	117
Std Gas & El.	55	55	44	55
Std Oil Calif	59⅞	59	59⅝	59½
Std Oil N J	44	44	44	44
Std Oil N J pf.	116½	116½	116¾	116⅝
Stewart-W Sp.	75⅝	75½	75½	75⅝
Studebaker	55⅞	55⅝	55⅝	56
Tenn Cop & C	12½	12½	12½	12½
Texas Co	53	53	53	53¼
Tex Gulf Sul.	159½	158	158¼	159⅝
Tex & Pac RR	54⅝	54⅝	54⅝	54⅝
Tobacco Prod.	104½	104¼	104½	104⅛
Transcontl Oil	4⅞	4⅞	4⅞	4⅞
Un Bag & P.	47⅛	48	47⅛	45½
Union Carb	85	84⅞	84⅞	—
Un Oil of Cal.	55⅝	55⅝	55⅝	56½
Union Tank C.	93¼	93½	93½	93
Un Drug	158¼	158	158	158¼
Un Fruit	114	114	114	115
Univ Pipe	23¼	23¼	23¼	—
U S C I Pipe	244⅛	241½	244	244⅛
U S Distrib	56⅝	56⅝	56⅝	57
U S Ind Alc	56⅞	56½	56½	56⅝
U S Rlty & I	60⅝	60⅝	60⅝	60
U S Rubber	58⅝	58⅝	58⅝	59
*U S Rub 1 pf.	105½	105½	105½	107⅝
U S Sm & Ref	42	42	42	41⅝
U S Steel	144	143⅛	143⅞	144⅛
U S Stl pf	129½	129¼	129¼	129
Va-Car Chem n	15⅝	15½	15⅝	15⅝
Wabash R R	45⅝	45⅝	45⅝	46
Walworth	17	17	17	16½
Warner Pic	15	15	15	—
Western U T	145½	145½	145½	145⅝
Westing'e El.	70⅛	70⅛	70⅛	—
Wheel & L E.	25½	25½	25½	25⅝
West A B.	133¼	133¼	133¼	133¼
White Eagle O	26⅝	26⅝	26⅝	26⅝
White Motor	61	60½	60½	60⅝
Willys-Over	30	29⅝	29⅝	29⅝
Willys-Over pf	95½	95½	95½	96½
Wilson & Co.	11⅝	11⅝	11⅝	11⅞
Woolworth	171⅝	170¼	170⅝	171½
Yellow Coach	25¼	25	25¼	25

*Ex-dividend.

Boston Stocks

	July 20 High	Low	Latest	July 19 Close
Am Can	58¼	57⅞	57⅞	57⅞
Allied Chem.	130¼	130⅛	130⅛	129⅝
Smelt	135⅝	135⅝	135⅝	136½
Am Tel	142	141⅞	142	141⅝
Am Tel rts	6½	6 7-16	6 7-16	6 7-16
Atlas Plywood	60½	60½	60½	60
Balt & Ohio	96¼	96¼	96¼	96⅝
Bos. & Alb'y.	172	171⅝	171⅝	172½
Bos Elev	84¼	84¼	84¼	84¼
Bos & Maine	56½	56½	56½	56½
B & M pr pfd.	103	103	103	102
Cal & Aris	69⅝	69½	69⅝	69¼
Cal & Hecla	15⅝	15½	15½	15½
Ches & Ohio	142⅞	142⅞	142⅞	—
Congoleum	22⅝	21	21	23½
Cop Range	17⅝	17⅛	17⅝	17¾
Chrysler	38⅝	37⅞	38¼	37⅛
Dom Stores	65	65	65	—
Eastern S S.	61⅝	61⅝	61⅝	61
Edison	230	230	230	229
Eastern Mfg	4⅝	4⅝	4⅝	—
Engineers pf.	94½	94½	94½	94½
Gen El new	90½	90½	90½	90⅝
Gen Motors	168¼	166½	166½	169
Greenfield	13	13	13	—
Gilchrist	36	36	36	35
Hudson	64⅞	64⅞	64⅞	62¼
Int Comb	54⅝	54⅝	54⅝	55
Isle Royale	13⅛	13	13	13⅛
Loew's Th	7	6⅞	6⅞	7
Lib McN L	8⅛	8⅛	8⅛	8⅝
Marland	58⅝	58	58	58½
Mass Gas	83¼	83¼	83¼	83¼
Mohawk	39	38⅞	39	38⅝
*Nash	55½	55	55	57
NE Pub Ser	90	90	90	90
New Cornelia	23¼	23¼	23¼	23
NY Central	131⅝	131⅛	141¼	—
NY & NH	47½	46⅝	46⅝	47¼
Nipissing	5¼	5¼	5¼	5¼
North Butte	2⅞	2⅞	2⅞	2⅞
Pan Am B	69¼	68⅝	68⅝	69¼
Pacific Mills	36¼	36⅛	36¼	36½
Quincy	24½	23½	24	23
Rutland	52	52	52	—
St Mary's	32½	32	32½	32
Sinclair	20½	20½	20½	20⅞
So Pacific	105⅞	105⅞	105⅞	106⅝
Swedish-A	107	107	107	106⅝
Swift & Co	113	112⅝	113	112⅝
Texas Co	53	52⅝	53	52⅞
Tower	8⅝	8⅝	8⅝	8⅝
Un Drug 1 pf	57⅝	57⅝	57⅝	58
Un Fruit	114½	114	114½	113½
Un Shoe	47⅝	47⅝	47⅝	48
Un Shoe pf	28	28	28	—
U S Smelt pf	49½	49½	49½	49
U S & F S p p	82	81⅝	82	81
Waldorf	19⅝	19½	19⅝	19⅝
Waltham W.	39	29	39	39
Wal W pf	59	59	59	60
Warren Bro	46	46	46	—
War Bro 1 pf.	40⅝	40⅝	40⅝	40⅝
Willys-Ov	29⅝	29⅛	29⅝	30¼
Winona	40c	35c	40c	30c

*Ex-dividend.

Liberty Bond Prices

Liberty bond quotations: 3½s, $101; first 4¼s, $102.7; second 4¼s, $100.25; third 4¼s, $101.5; fourth 4¼s, $102.20; new 4¼s, $107.20; new 4s, $104.2; new 3¾s, $101.32.

RADIO STATIONS MUST OBSERVE TIME LIMITS

Judge Holds Them Governed by Licenses They Accepted; Grants Injunction

Chicago, July 20 (A.P.)—An injunction restraining one radio station from infringing on the broadcasting time of another station of the same wave length with which it had a time division agreement has been granted in Kansas City, but whether the decision will have any effect on the air confusion resulting from a recent ruling that the Commerce Department has no regulatory authority appeared doubtful.

MUST OBSERVE TERMS.

Judge Albert L. Reeves held in District Court at Kansas City that a radio broadcasting station having accepted a license from the government, was bound to observe the terms of that license. The injunction restrained Station WOS, the State marketing bureau at Jefferson City, from infringing on time granted Stations KLDS, operated by the Reorganized Church of Latter Day Saints at Independence, Mo.

Judge Reeves held that the stations, on accepting licenses requiring them to yield a division of time, recognized the Federal government's power to regulate and license radio, that power, he said, being assumed by Congress acting under the commerce clause of the constitution.

NO GENERAL VALUE.

Officials of the Commerce Department at Washington tentatively expressed the belief the decision would have no general value except as to stations having written agreements between themselves regarding broadcasting hours.

TODAY

Continued from First Page.

ing "glorious" seems to have been misunderstood and the "automatic" is becoming as powerful, in the United States, as the vote ought to be.

MR. RICKARD, greatest prize fight impresario, plans to "pull off" the Dempsey-Tunney prize fight in Chicago.

He predicts a bigger "gate." Which means more money than was ever paid for any prize fight in the history of the world.

The Dempsey-Carpentier fight drew a crowd of 80,000 that paid $1,600,000 for their pleasure. Mr. Rickard expects Chicago to do better, also that Chicago will appreciate the great honor, as it should.

WE ARE a rich people. Twenty-eight thousand two hundred and eighty-nine banks in the United States have deposits of $54,000,000,000. That sounds like a great deal, but it is only $540 apiece for 100,000,000 Americans, of whom many are worth $100,000, many others worth $1,000,000, many worth ten, twenty, thirty millions, some worth $100,000,000 and a good deal more. This is a rich country, and we are getting richer every day.

THIRTEEN, burned to death in a mountain inn at Haines Falls, N. Y., cannot be identified and will go to their graves with religious rites of two kinds. Yesterday, Roman Catholic rites were celebrated. Tomorrow, Protestant rites will be added. If there happens to be a Buddhist, Mohammedan or Confucian among the thirteen he will have to take his chance.

MR. SAM WING, accomplished gunman of the On Leong Tong, went to the electric chair, but first gave orders for funeral services, both Chinese and Christian. He was never a Christian, but told his friends that the electric chair, being unknown to Chinese gods, they might have no provision for a corpse from that source.

CHRISTIANS having invented the electric chair, doubtless have a God that would know what to do with the remains, so the thoughtful Chinese decided on both religions for the funeral services.

WE SPEND our lives watching men and women passing through a door labelled "death," and we all have theories, but nobody, apart from faith, has any knowledge of what is on the other side of the door. By and by our time comes, and we go, then we know—perhaps.

NEWS ABOUT one kind of "bad business" from the West will please everybody. The jail in the Yellowstone National Park has been closed for lack of "trade." It stood there thirty-two years, with never a customer, and now it is torn down.

KEARNS WINS BATTLE OVER WEIGHTS

Continued from Page 9.

others strictly for us.

Factions Kept Apart

My part of the business was to keep these factions as far apart as possible, and when any of my fighters came to the ring, you could bet that they'd all be there, some to root against and some to root for us, but, happy though, all having paid for the privilege.

I kept "Major" steamed up to the boiler explosion point all the time I was in Australia. I used to burn him up when I'd come in, slap him on the back and sit on the edge of his desk to broadcast the latest achievement of Billy Murray, Red Watson or some new wonder that I was going to import from the States.

He couldn't get me at all and I was happy over his bull headedness. He had decided to dislike me and my stable and thank the gods he never changed in that respect. I was always good for a yard or two of copy while his peeve was on. He was one those peculiar souls who won't accept the inevitable.

I was in a strange land and my men were fighting before big houses. And after all, that was just what brought me to Australia. "Major's" only chance to do me any injury would have been to shut right down on panning me.

Boxing Game Revived

I was for taking him home with me for a town plant. I told him so one day and he grew purple with rage. I know that I ruined the "Major's" whole life.

Boxing had drifted on the rocks in Australia so to speak until Hugh McIntosh steamed it up with the Jack Johnson-Tommy Burns fight. Johnson, a good showman, helped Hughie put over the fight, the greatest thing Australia has ever known. He helped by pretending he was a broken down old shell of himself.

He walked around the streets wearing blue goggles and his legs looked quite unsteady. The fans shook their heads and said it would be a cinch for Burns.

I'm afraid that even McIntosh fell for Johnson's kidding. I'm not so sure that Burns didn't. He must have known that Johnson was a great fighter, though I'm afraid that Burns had a pretty good opinion of himself. He was always a cocky fellow and fearless too. But when he saw the bathrobe fall off of Johnson's shoulders that day he knew he had been tricked, for there never was a finer looking speciman stripped for action than Johnson. He ate Burns alive.

This bout revived interest in boxing and on the strength of it McIntosh organized the three great stadiums that now play such a part in Australian boxing. The pity of it is that the boxers themselves have not kept pace with the stadiums.

They've had as long drawn out a slump as any country will have in boxing and boxing material, but the Darcys, the Griffos, the Jacksons and the Fitzsimmonses will come again to Australia. They may come in a bunch and as suddenly as Darcy did.

Cause of Slump

The real cause of the slump is the lack of competition from the outside world. It is competition that makes for boxers and with this in mind, the stadiums have sent an agent on a world tour, to book men for Australia so that the home talent will meet up with new opposition.

It is certain that a country that produced so many champions will come again with a new Darcy or even a heavyweight who could have whipped Bill Land or Bill Squires.

They treat an invader with more than passing fairness. If you can fight you will get along with them. Jimmy Britt was a big hit with them. They liked his swagger, well dressed ways and Jimmy knew how to sell himself.

They have a peculiar way of letting you know whether they like you or not. They count you "out" if you're a bust. Actually count over you as if you had been floored.

Pity the bird who flops in their eyes. They don't hiss or boo. You can be a dancer, a singer, a violinist, a story teller or a fighter. It makes little difference. You come out to do your stuff. You get a fair hearing, but make good or you go "out!"

They begin to count—"One, two, three, four, five, six, seven, eight, nine, TEN." You're finished.

Copyright, 1926, by The Christy Walsh Synd'

Tomorrow Kearns tells of slang language widely used in Australia. Kearns finally leaves Australia without Darcy but with his contract.

RADIO BY THE HOUR

LOCAL STATIONS

WNAC—Boston—280

THE SHEPARD STORES

4:30 P. M.—News Bulletins.
5:00 P. M.—"The Day in Finance."
5:05 P. M.—Livestock and Meat Report, furnished by U. S. Department of Agriculture.
6:00 P. M.—The Smilers, conducted by Clyde McArdle.
6:30 P. M.—Dinner Dance, "Jimmie" Gallagher and his Orchestra.
7:00 P. M.—"What's Going On Tonight."
7:20 P. M.—Baseball Results and News Bulletins.
7:35 P. M.—Weather Report.
8:00 P. M.—Concert Program.
9:00 P. M.—Musical Program.
10:00 P. M.—News Bulletins.
10:05 P. M.—Dance Music, Crescent Gardens Orchestra.

WEDNESDAY A. M. PROGRAM

10:30 A. M.—WNAC Women's Club: Rev. David S. Kligh, People's Baptist Church of Boston; Guests from Massachusetts Federation of Women's Clubs; Jean Sargent.

WEEI—Boston—349

THE EDISON ELECTRIC ILLUMINATING CO.

4:15 P. M.—Eddie Diggs and His Five Black Aces.

FROM WEEI MAIN STUDIO.

5:45 P. M.—Stock Market and Business News.
5:55 P. M.—Lost and Found.
6:00 P. M.—Keith's Radio Review from B. F. Keith Theatre.
6:10 P. M.—Events of the Day and Baseball Scores.
6:20 P. M.—George Joy and Nell Cantos in Popular Songs.
7:30 P. M.—Tommy Martin and His Sunshine Boys.
7:50 P. M.—Frederick M. J. Sheenan, candidate for District Attorney of Suffolk County.
8:00 P. M.—From New York, Salon Concert.
8:30 P. M.—From New York, Twins.
9:00 P. M.—From New York, Eveready Hour.
10:00 P. M.—From New York, Bruce Benjamin, tenor; Walter Golde, accompanist.
10:30 P. M.—From New York, Jack Albin's Orchestra.

WEDNESDAY A. M. PROGRAM.

6:45 A. M.—Tower Health Exercises.
10:15 A. M.—From Houghton & Dutton Studio, Houghton & Dutton Chorus, "Some Summer Recipes," Melinda Talcott, Anne Bradford, "Midsummer Fashions."
10:45 A. M.—Events of the Day.

WBZ—Springfield—333

WBZA—BOSTON—333

6:55 P. M.—Markets.
7:00 P. M.—Trio.
7:30 P. M.—Baseball results.
7:35 P. M.—Orchestra under the direction of W. Edward Boyle.
9:00 P. M.—WBZ Radio Movie Club.
10:00 P. M.—Dorothy F. Simons, contralto.
10:15 P. M.—Irene Simpson Rommel, pianist.
10:30 P. M., Eric Teachs, tenor.
11:00 P. M.—Weather reports; missing persons; baseball results.

WJAR—Providence—306

1:05 P. M.—Studio program.
1:30 P. M.—Weather report.
8:00 P. M.—Baseball scores.
8:05 P. M.—"In the Good Old Summer Time," one of a series of safety talks under the auspices of the Providence Safety Council to be given by Frederick W. Bliss.
8:10 P. M.—Musical program.
8:30 P. M.—Twins.
9:00 P. M.—Eveready Hour.

WTAG—Worcester—268

2:00 P. M.—Daily news bulletin.
8:55 P. M.—Baseball scores.
9:00 P. M.—From New York studio—Eveready Hour.
10:00 P. M.—From New York Studio—Moment Musicale.
10:30 P. M.—Daily news bulletin.

Editor's Note:

Owing to the recent legislation of Congress that they were "hands off" the present radio situation many stations have changed their frequencies primarily assigned by the Department of Commerce.

The Boston Evening American Radio Department will endeavor to place these new wave lengths before the radio public as fast as they can be obtained.

OUTSIDE STATIONS
8:00 P. M. to 10:00 P. M.

8:00 P. M.—WJZ (455) New York—Out-Ups.
WLW (422.3) Cincinnati—Talks; dinner music.
WPG (299.8) Atlantic City—Studio program.
WRC (469) Washington—Willard Orchestra.
8:30 P. M.—WBAL (246) Baltimore—Organ recital.
WGY (379.5) Schenectady — Gems of Romance.
WHN (361.2) New York—Vocal and instrumental.
WPG (299.8) Atlantic City—Studio program.
9:00 P. M.—KYW (536) Chicago—Studio program.
WBAL (246) Baltimore—Musical program.
WGY (379.5) Schenectady—Minstrel show.
WJJD (370.2) Mooseheart — Children's hour.
WJZ (455) New York—Orchestra.
WLW (422.3) Cincinnati—Burnt Corkers; male quartet.
WRC (469) Washington—Railroad hour.
9:30 P. M.—KDKA (309) E. Pittsburgh—Sacred songs.

10:00 P. M. to Midnight

10:00 P. M.—KYW (536) Chicago—Classical Concert.
WBAL (246) Baltimore—City Park Orchestra.
WGY (379.5) Schenectady—Grand Tour.
WLW (422.3) Cincinnati—Orchestra concert.
WEAF (492) New York—Tenor.
WORD (275) Batavia—Musical program.
WSM (282.8) Nashville—Violin and soprano.
WSB (428.3) Atlanta—Concert.
10:30 P. M.—WPG (299.8) Atlantic City—Recital.
WMC (499.7) Memphis—Musical program.
10:45 P. M.—WJZ (455) New York—Dance Orchestra.
WSOE (246) Milwaukee—Movie Critic.
11:00 P. M.—CNRA (312.4) Moncton—Dance Orchestra.
WPG (299.8) Atlantic City—Dance music.
WTAM (389.4) Cleveland—Studio program.
11:30 P. M.—KYW (536) Chicago—Congress Carnival.
KDKA (309) E. Pittsburgh—Concert, Grand Theatre.
WEAF (492) New York—Dance music.
WHN (361.2) New York—Orchestra program.
WPG (299.8) Atlantic City—Silver Slipper Club.
WRC (469) Washington—La Paradis Band.

Midnight to 2:30 A. M.

12:00 Mid.—KGW (491.5) Portland—Educational program.
KPSN (315.6) Pasadena—Concert hour.
WHN (361.2) New York—Entertainers.
WLIB (303) Chicago—Correl and Gosden; ensemble.
WORD (275) Batavia—Service program; lecture.
WTAM (389.4) Cleveland—Wilson's Orchestra.
WQJ (447.5) Chicago—Popular program.
12:30 A. M.—WBBM (226) Chicago—Supper Club.
12:45 A. M.—WSB (428.3) Atlanta—Concert.
1:00 A. M.—CNRV (291) Vancouver — Studio program.
WGHP (270) Detroit—Mark's Orchestra.
WHT (400) Chicago—Your Hour League.
WMC (499.7) Memphis—Musical program.
1:30 A. M.—WJJD (370.2) Mooseheart—Bettin' Up Hour.
1:45 A. M.—WDAF (365.6)—Kansas City—Nighthawk frolic.
2:00 A. M.—KGW (491.5) Portland—Dance orchestra.
KFOA (454.3) Seattle—Souder's Orchestra.
KPO (428.3) San Francisco—Dance orchestra.
WQJ (447.5) Chicago — Dance music; popular (1 hr.)
2:30 A. M.—CNRV (291) Vancouver—Belmont Orchestra; vocal.

HOW TO TUNE IN TO GET ANY STATION

The handy knack of tuning wave lengths to the desired station is no mean accomplishment—as any home experimenter will tell you as he proudly recounts the details of his distance reception record. But "Big Brother" Bob Emery's stunt at Keith's this week is confounding the "fans" in his audience who marvel at his command over the moving meters until the finale of his act shows them how simple it all is.

In addition to his trick of tuning in on the "Eskimos" and the Lopez orchestra at will, Bob nonchalantly "commands" them to play for him hours before or after broadcasting! But remember, it's all very simple and a visit to the piano-playing, ukulele-strumming gentleman will reveal the secret.

BASEBALL STATISTICS

AMERICAN LEAGUE

	W.	L.	Pc.	IF Win	IF Lose
New York	56	32	.636	.640	.629
Philadelphia	49	39	.557	.562	.551
Chicago	47	42	.528	.533	.552
Cleveland	48	43	.527	.533	.522
Washington	44	40	.524	.524	.518
Detroit	45	44	.506	.511	.500
St. Louis	36	52	.409	.416	.404
BOSTON	27	60	.310	.318	.307

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS

Chicago 5, Boston 4.
New York 11, St. Louis 2.
Detroit 8, Philadelphia 3.
Washington 4, Cleveland 1.

GAMES TODAY

Chicago at Boston.
Cleveland at Washington.
St. Louis at New York.
Detroit at Philadelphia (two games).

NATIONAL LEAGUE

	W.	L.	Pc.	IF Win	IF Lose
Cincinnati	51	39	.567	.571	.560
Pittsburgh	46	37	.554	.560	.548
St. Louis	48	41	.539	.544	.533
Chicago	47	41	.534	.539	.528
Brooklyn	46	41	.529	.534	.523
New York	44	43	.506	.511	.500
Philadelphia	33	52	.388	.395	.384
BOSTON	33	54	.379	.386	.375

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS

Pittsburgh 10, Boston 4.
Chicago 9, New York 5.
Cincinnati 5, Brooklyn 2.
Philadelphia 4, St. Louis 3 (10).

GAMES TODAY

Boston at Pittsburgh.
New York at Chicago.
Brooklyn at Cincinnati.

N. E. League

Lewiston 12, Lynn 3.
Haverhill 1, Nashua 1 (9, darkness).
Salem 9, Portland 5.
Lawrence 8, Manchester 3.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

	W.	L.	Pc.		W.	L.	Pc.
Lynn	29	21	.580	Lewiston	22	25	.468
M'chester	28	22	.560	Lawrence	26	30	.464
Haverhill	28	23	.549	Portland	23	28	.451
Salem	24	24	.500	Nashua	22	29	.431

GAMES TODAY.

Manchester at Haverhill.
Lawrence at Nashua.
Lynn at Portland.
Salem at Lewiston.

International League

Toronto 4, Newark 3, first game.
Toronto 5, Newark 1, second game.
Rochester 11, Reading 5.
Buffalo 12, Baltimore 6.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

	W.	L.	Pc.		W.	L.	Pc.
Baltimore	62	32	.660	Rochester	45	45	.500
Toronto	60	38	.612	Jersey City	42	53	.442
Buffalo	57	39	.594	Syracuse	34	54	.386
Newark	55	41	.573	Reading	23	65	.261

American Association

(No games scheduled.)

	W.	L.	Pc.		W.	L.	Pc.
Milwaukee	67	32	.648	Toledo	45	46	.495
Louisville	57	34	.626	St. Paul	42	50	.457
In'apolis	55	36	.604	Min'apolis	38	48	.437
Kan. City	48	44	.522	Columbus	18	63	.222

Don't worry and fret—Shop thru the Classified Ads.

Twilight League

Somerville 5, Lynn G. E. 3.
South Boston 8, Malden 5.
Dorchester 10, Waltham 1.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

	W.	L.	Pc.		W.	L.	Pc.
Somerville	1	0	1.000	Waltham	0	1	.000
So. Boston	1	0	1.000	Malden	0	1	.000
Dorchester	1	0	1.000	Fore River	0	0	.000

GAMES TONIGHT.

Fore River at Waltham.
Lynn G. E. at South Boston.
Malden at Somerville.

Southern Association

Birmingham 7, Mobile 6.
Nashville 5, Little Rock 4.
Memphis 17, Chattanooga 14.
Atlanta-New Orleans, postponed, wet ground.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

	W.	L.	Pc.		W.	L.	Pc.
N. Orleans	64	31	.674	Atlanta	44	48	.478
Memphis	58	33	.637	Mobile	44	48	.478
Berm'ham	52	38	.578	Chat'nooga	34	56	.371
Nashville	49	42	.538	LittleRock	31	63	.330

Eastern League

Albany 6, Providence 6, 14 innings.
New Haven 4, Springfield 6.
Bridgeport 3, Hartford 2.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

	W.	L.	Pc.		W.	L.	Pc.
Bridgeport	53	32	.624	Hartford	42	45	.483
Providence	53	35	.602	Albany	39	46	.459
N. Haven	49	37	.570	Waterbury	32	52	.381
Springfield	46	38	.548	Pittsfield	26	55	.321

GAMES TODAY.

Springfield at New Haven.
Hartford at Bridgeport.
Albany at Providence.
Waterbury at Pittsfield.

BOSTON Renters Know That in American-Advertiser Classified Ads They Can Find a Good Selection of Vacancies Alphabetically Listed and Grouped by Districts Every Day.

Turn Now to the Next-to-the-Last Pages.

EVEREADY HOUR

8 P.M. Eastern Standard Time
9 P.M. Daylight Saving Time

Tonight

The Eveready Hour presenting Max Jacobs and the Eveready Chamber Symphony Orchestra—in selections from standard composers with Jackson Kinsey, baritone, as soloist.

THE PROGRAM

March Bacchus - - - - Delibes
Serenade - - - - Albeniz
5th Hungarian Dance - Brahms
6th Hungarian Dance - Brahms
Gems from "The Chocolate Soldier" - - - - Strauss
Madrigale - - - - Simonetti
Polish Dance - - - - Scharwenka
Solo—Lunti del Caro Bene - - - Jackson Kinsey
Serenade - - - - Moskowski
Cortege du Sardar - - - Ippolitow
Bandanna Sketches - - - White
Waltzes from "The Firefly" - Friml
Solo—Munter's Halloo - - - Jackson Kinsey
Tango - - - - Albeniz
Scherzo—"Midsummer Night's Dream" - - - Mendelssohn
Prairie Sketches - - - Cadman
Serenade - - - - Drigo
Alabama - - - - Spaulding

Broadcast by National Carbon Co., Inc.

WEAF New York
WJAR Providence
WEEI Boston
WTAG Worcester
WFI Philadelphia
WGR Buffalo
WCAE Pittsburgh
WSAI Cincinnati
WTAM Cleveland
WWJ Detroit
WGN Chicago
WOC Davenport
WCCO Minneapolis St. Paul
KSD St. Louis

For Pleasure and Profit Read the Classified Ads Daily!

EDWIN CAREWE JOINS UNITED ARTISTS

Director Will Start Work on "Resurrection" for Joseph M. Schenck

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS,
Motion Picture Editor of Universal Service.

LOS ANGELES, July 20.—United Artists gets Edwin Carewe. This is a piece of news I feel will interest Mr. Carewe's friends, for it means that he will make Count Leo Tolstoy's "Resurrection" on a lavish scale for Joseph M. Schenck.

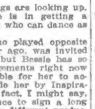
Anything as serious as "Resurrection" is a decided departure from the usual convention cut and dried movie and those of us who know Mr. Carewe's work as a First National director will watch for this picture because of the opportunities for drama that it offers.

Negotiations for Carewe's services have been pending for a month. At least, it was that long ago that I telephoned John Considine, Jr., for a confirmation and was told that the contract had not yet been signed.

I was very glad to hear that Harry Wilson will be associated with the Carewe productions as personal representative. He recently resigned as publicity head of Associated First National. He had also regained his health, a fact his friends will be glad to learn.

CISSY FITZGERALD, she of the famous wink, has lost her wink, but in place she seems to have gained a niche in the motion picture world. I understand she is kept busy considering offers. One of these which has not only been considered but accepted is "The City," Clyde Fitch's play which is destined to be an important Fitch production. Tully Marshall, who is said to have been in Fitch's mind when he wrote the play will also have an important role, and R. William O'Neil will direct. Miss Fitzgerald has just finished "The Arizona Wildcat," which sounds western and probably is.

ALMA RUBENS has one more picture to make for Fox and then her contract expires. One of the big producing companies has made her a most interesting offer to star in a series of Rubens productions. Whether or not Alma will accept is a question. She has had some very good pictures at the Fox company and, there is no doubt about it, she is a good drawing card in the theatres throughout the country. So she is in a position to move slowly, and that is exactly what she seems to be doing, weighing her opportunities carefully and making no hasty decisions.



R. Barthelmess

RICHARD BARTHELMESS has been persuaded that "Four Feathers" is all right as a novel but that the motion picture possibilities are limited. Dick, who had his heart set on filming this story, was greatly disappointed at first, but now that he has been given "The Black White Sheep," an original story by Violet Powell, things are looking up. The great trouble is in getting a leading lady, a girl who can dance as well as act.

Bessie Love, who played opposite Dick about a year ago, was invited to play the lead, but Bessie has so many other engagements right now that it is impossible for her to accept the offer made her by Inspiration Pictures. In fact, I might say, Bessie has a chance to sign a long contract with three different producing companies—an embarrassment of riches, certainly.

GLORIA GREY, wampus baby star of 1924 and nineteen-year-old motion picture actress, is having a busy time sending back wedding presents and denying to her friends and acquaintances that she is married. It all happened when Gloria Gray (notice the difference in spelling), and Hal Jerome were married. The latter Gloria Gray is a vaudeville actress of the team of Jerome and Gray, and the similarity between the two names has caused all the difficulty.

Miss Grey, motion picture actress and leading woman in "The Girl of the Limberlost," "The Temple of Venus," and other films, is now at Universal City, so her father tells me.

DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS, JR., is learning what it means to concentrate on one particular role. He visited the De Mille studio and had a test made for John, the Beloved, in "The King of Kings," and when I saw him on Friday he confided that he wasn't going to give any picture a thought until he knew the De Mille verdict. What would life be without these uncertainties?

ROBERT OBER is nothing if not versatile. He is not only an actor but a writer as well, having just finished "Purple Alabaster," a motion picture drama. I wish I knew what "Purple Alabaster" means, but I confess I am in the dark. However, one of our well known directors thinks well enough of it to plan to bring it to the screen. Mr. Ober also has a sketch which will be produced on the Orpheum circuit this coming season.

I HEARD yesterday that Raymond Griffith had invested in three dozen silk hats. Not that he ever wears a silk hat and not that he owns one outside of the screen, but that he breaks so many that he decided he would have a supply on hand.

THE BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN
NEW ENGLAND PRESS BLDG.
5 Winthrop Square
Liberty 4000
Classified Advertising
Indexed, Standardized and Popularized.

All ads are restricted to their proper classification and to the regular Boston Evening American style of type.

Advertising ordered for irregular insertions takes the one-time insertion rate.

Count six average words to the line.

Ads stopped before expiration will only be charged for the number of times the ad appeared and adjustments made at the rate earned.

Rate per line for white space is the same as a line of type.

Special rate for yearly advertising upon request.

Publishers reserve the right to edit or reject any classified advertising copy.

Telephone Liberty 4000.
Ask for an Ad-Taker

Announcements

Phone Ads to American — Liberty 4000

Deaths 1

AHEARN—In South Boston, July 18, Richard J., beloved son of John J. and Hanna McMahon Ahearn. Funeral from 301½ Broadway, Wednesday, July 21, at 8 a. m. Requiem mass at St. Augustine's Church at 9. Relatives and friends invited.

MAGUIRE—In Winchester, July 19, James, beloved husband of Mary Maguire (nee McCarthy), father of Rev. Eugene A. Maguire of the Immaculate Conception Church, Stoughton, and Rev. Edward D. Maguire of St. Angela's Church, Mattapan. Funeral from his late home, 21 Lincoln St., Thursday, July 22, at 8:30 a. m. Solemn high mass of requiem at St. Mary's Church at 9:30. Interment at Calvary Cemetery, Woburn. Relatives and friends invited.

Personals 7

HEALTHY—Baby girl for adoption, 3 mos. American. Write Y 14, this paper.

For any information concerning LOST and FOUND ARTICLES call the LOSERS' SERVICE BUREAU, Liberty 4000, at Classified Corner, 92 Summer St., Boston. Ask for Miss Beals, Boston Evening American—Advertiser.

Strayed, Lost, Found 10

FOUND BY THE POLICE—Tire—On Div. 14, a Goodrich Commander Cord tire, 30x3½. License—On Div. 16, an elevator operator's license in the name of Henry F[illegible]. Dog—On Div. 16, a small collie dog, no collar on; sent to the Animal Rescue League. Call Liberty 4000. Ask for Miss Beals.

BAG—Black silk, lost Saturday, July 10, between Leicester St. and Cypress St. Box W-101, this paper. Reward.

BAG—Underarm, purple; lost near Loew's State. Reward. Regent 01[illegible].

DOG—Doberman Pinscher, lost in Roxbury, July 1; liberal reward. H. Gaston, 36 Fernwood Rd., Brookline; Regent 4821-M.

DOG—Brown and black female Airedale; last seen Cambridge bridge; notify E. Brown, 46 Cooper St., Boston; reward.

DOG—Lost, English setter puppy, male, 4 mos., white; 1 black ear, eye; reward. Milton 5340.

NECKPIECE—Russian sable, single skin; reward. J. D. Carney, 44 Orkney Rd., Brookline. Tel. Aspinwall 5344.

PAY ENVELOPE—Lost near McLean Hospital, Waverley. Tel. Belmont 1098.

Automotive

Phone Ads to American—Liberty 4000

Automobiles for Sale 11

BUICK TOURING CAR—1924. Has four wheel brakes, etc. A wonderful value at $415. A small amount down, balance monthly. Boston Flint Co., 790 Commonwealth Ave. Aspinwall 7100.

CLEVELAND—

1924 De Luxe Sedan; new rubber; good condition throughout. Call Mr. Hale, Kenmore 2430.

FLINT TOURING—1924, 5-passenger. One of our model 40 Light Sixes; rebuilt and refinished, balloon tires, 4 wheel brakes. Price low at $495; terms if desired. Boston Flint Co. 790 Commonwealth Ave. Aspinwall 7100.

FORD SEDAN—1921; needs slight repairs, $65. Burnett & Sherman, Inc., 1019 Commonwealth Ave. Stadium 3400.

FORD SEDAN—1926. A bargain, $125. Jeffrey-Nichols, 971 Commonwealth Ave.

JEWETT—Touring car, mechanically O.K., clean inside and out, bumper, spare tire, stop light, automatic windshield cleaner, motometer, $235. Boston Flint Co., 790 Commonwealth Ave. Phone Aspinwall 7100.

HUDSON SEDAN—1923; new tires, paint; perfect mechanically; $200 down, bal. monthly. Oldsmobile Co., 940 Com. Ave.

OAKLAND COUPE—1925. Here is a beautiful 2-passenger car with good tires and many extras. Finish is extra fine, $575; terms if you wish. Boston Flint Co., 790 Commonwealth Ave. Aspinwall 7100.

STUDEBAKER—1923 Touring Car, has three new cord tires, paint, upholstery and top good. Motor just overhauled. Equipment includes snubbers. $285. Boston Flint Co., 790 Commonwealth Ave. Phone Aspinwall 7100.

Merchandise

NORRIS 181 Tremont St.

Fifty used Pianos from $75 to $285. We all ow full price paid toward purchase of new Piano later. Open every evening. Whatever you need will be found at our Warerooms at lowest prices. Terms to suit. Chas. S. Norris, 181 Tremont St.

CORONA DISTRIBUTORS
S. A. RAPHAEL CO., 37 Bromfield St.
All makes rented, $5.00 three months.

JOHN J. KIRWIN TAKEN BY DEATH

John Kirwin

John J. Kirwin, long a resident of the South End, died at the Cardinal O'Connell House, St. Elizabeth's Hospital, following an illness of several weeks. Solemn requiem mass will be celebrated at Holy Cross Cathedral at 9 o'clock tomorrow. Interment will be in St. Joseph's Cemetery, West Roxbury.

Mr. Kirwin came to this country from Ireland when a boy. He settled first in Providence and then in New York. Later he came to Boston to associate with one of the largest Catholic church supply houses in the country.

For many years he was one of the chief ushers at the Cathedral. He was a member of the Cathedral Young Men's Catholic Association, Pawtucket Lodge 920, B. P. O. E.; New Amsterdam Council 217, Knights of Columbus, the Ancient Order of Hibernians and many other organizations. In his earlier days he was a captain in the Meagher Guards of Rhode Island and military instructor at LaSalle Academy in Providence. During the World War he served as a Knights of Columbus secretary in France.

The Room You Live In

—plays a most important part in your life. It can make you or break you.
If your room is dark and tiny, airless, gloomy and depressing—that's the way you'll be—depressed and gloomy.
But if your room is light and airy, large and cheerful—then you'll be cheerful, too. For you reflect the spirit of your room.
You'll find the finest, cheeriest rooms in all Boston advertised in the

Classified Columns Below

Automotive

Phone Ads to American — Liberty 4000

Automobiles for Sale 11

1922 VIM—½-ton covered truck, excellent mechanical condition, good tires; $150 for quick sale. A. W. Woodruff, 1027 Commonwealth Ave. Bri. 4402. Open evenings.

MAXWELL TOURING—1924, newly painted, bumpers front and rear, motor meter, window wiper, tires very good shape, engine quiet and powerful, upholstery excellent. Price $425.00. Terms if desired.

JEWETT BROUGHAM—1924, paint unscratched, bumpers front and rear, motor meter, rear view mirror, automatic wiper, snubbers, upholstery like new, 5 good tires, trunk, engine that eats hills, car driven by woman, price $675.00. Terms if desired.

CHRYSLER COACH—1925, paint like new, window wiper, rear view mirror, stop light, 5 good tires, upholstery very good, engine quiet and powerful, 20 miles to the gallon, drive it and be convinced. Price $875.00. Terms.

CHRYSLER CROWN SEDAN—1925, purring, powerful engine, giving wonderful mileage, bumpers front and rear, 5 balloon tires, wiper, rear view mirror, windshield spotlight, upholstery and paint like new. Car broken in just right, a buy for $1550.00. $600.00 down.

CURRY MOTOR SALES CO.
2150 MASS. AVE. NO. CAMBRIDGE
PORTER 1624

CHALMERS ROADSTER—Engine runs smoothly, no gas eater, 4 good tires, rear view mirror, window wiper, paint in fair condition. Price $75.00.

FRANKLIN SEDAN—Engine in good running order, 4 good tires, rear bumper, window wiper, rear view mirror, upholstery good. Needs painting, therefore the low price of $200.00.

OLDSMOBILE 8 ROADSTER—Rumble seat, 3 tires good, 1 fair, engine has lots of pep. Car can be parked outdoors to save garage rent. This sale $75.00.

MITCHELL ROADSTER—Painted robin's egg blue, powerful engine, large carrying space in rear, 4 good tires and spare, upholstery good. See the country for $75.00. Many other good values at knockout prices.

CURRY MOTOR SALES CO.
2150 MASS. AVE. NO. CAMBRIDGE
PORTER 1624

CADILLAC PHAETON—V63 (cared for by chauffeur mechanic). Has beautiful Cadillac Blue with white striping; upholstery like new; five splendid tires; motor exceptionally good; this is a real bargain; $1500. Terms.
BUICK COUPE—3-passenger; has all extras; tires, motor, upholstery good; $300. Terms.
FORD SEDAN—Reconditioned throughout; appearance excellent; late 1923, $275.
NASH TOURING—Just taken in for a bigger car; late 1924; 5 pass., $650.
BUICK COUPE—1925; Master Six; used by local college professor; splendid condition, car would pass for a new one on performance; $1200. Terms.
J. C. HARVEY
846 COMMONWEALTH AVE.
ASPINWALL 5200. OPEN EVENINGS

Auto Trucks for Sale 12

FORD PANEL—Late model Ford ton with large panel body; A-1 mechanical condition, fine tires, new paint. Terms, $100 cash, balance in small payments. Linscott Motor Company, Used Truck Dept., 685 Beacon St. Kenmore 2480.

FORDS—Pleasure cars and trucks at reasonable prices and easy terms; all models. Harvard Auto. Co., Authorized Dealers, 1230-36 Mass. Ave., Camb. Uni. 9400-1-2.

GMC'S—Rebuilt; 1, 2, 2½ and 5-ton guaranteed; can equip with bodies to suit purchaser; we also have late model Whites, Federals, Reo, Dodge, International, Ford; every truck exactly as represented; can arrange easy terms to reliable parties. Noyes Motor Truck & Coach Co., 880 Commonwealth Ave., Boston.

OVERLAND ½-TON—Overland ½-ton panel body truck, A-1 mechanical condition, new tires, new paint. Terms $85, balance in small monthly payments. Linscott Motor Company, Used Truck Dept., 685 Beacon St. Kenmore 2480.

Auto Accessories, Tires, Parts 13

TIRE — Special 30x3½, 1st quality cord, $6.90. Write at once. A-1 Tire Co., 296 Columbus Ave., Boston.

TIRES — Five floors, all sizes, good used tires, $2 up. Call Boston Auto Tire Exchange 304 Columbus Ave., Boston.

USED TIRES—$2 up, all sizes, all makes. Write or call. Royal Tire Co., 300 Columbus Ave.

Garages—Autos for Hire 14

PORTABLE GARAGES—Write for our free catalog. A. Whittredge Portable Buildings Co., 976 Broad St., West Lynn, Mass.

Motorcycles and Bicycles 15

MOTORCYCLE—With tandem and side car; will sacrifice. Call Univ. 2074-W.

Business Service

Phone Ads to American — Liberty 4000

Moving, Trucking, Storage 25

AUTO—Trucking, Providence, etc. Carroll Trucking Co., 39 Court St., Main 726.

LIGHT TRUCKING—Local and long distance reasonable rates. C. E. Blondiet & Son, 23 Russell St., Arlington.

FOR hire, 1-ton truck and driver, will go anywhere. Granite 5213-R.

Professional Services 28

ADVICE—Free in legal maters; all cases, reliable, confidential; reasonable terms; specialists marriage troubles. White's Law Office, 338 Washington St., Room 828.

PERMANENT waving $10 if appointments are made mornings. Licensed, experienced operator, Mrs. Studley, 128 Tremont St., room 503. Phone Beach 1403.

SPECIAL—For this week, Permanent wave $8. Grace Thrasher, 125 Tremont St. Beach 5030. Room 509.

Employment

Phone Ads to American — Liberty 4000

Help Wanted—Female 32

LADIES—Young ladies(2), traveling position, with lady manager to California, $20 wk. guaranteed with bonus and transportation. Apply 306 Alpine Hotel, 329 Tremont.

NURSE—Wanted matured colored woman, to care for small children in Southern family. Comfortable room. Waltham 0902-W.

WOMAN—For responsible position; personality essential; oppor. for advance. give phone. Address this paper, Box W 28.

WANTED—Partner to train for exhibition dancing, pianist preferred. B. B. 3637.

Help Wanted—Male 33

MAN—Wanted, one now employed preferred. Experience not necessary. Position just vacated. Good salary. Old established firm. Apply 6 Beacon Street, Room [illegible]

Employment

Phone Ads to American — Liberty 4000

Help Wanted—Male 33

SALESMEN WANTED—

Men who now hold good positions, but are looking for good future with largest concern of its kind in the world. Can use several good men in Metropolitan Boston. Also Hartford and New Haven, Connecticut, and Springfield. Very liberal commission with drawing account. Territory restricted. Company does full page national advertising to help salesmen. Men with some heating experience will find it to their advantage to answer this advertisement. Can use automobile salesmen. Opportunity good to get branch of New England territory. Apply with references. Mr. B. N. Roche or Miss Burns, Vocational Bureau, Boston Advertiser-American, 92 Summer St., Boston, Mass.

IF YOU have ambition and are energetic, alert and honest, I have the job for you; a car is essential; a hard worker can get quick promotion and earn about $50 a week to start; not a house to house proposition; have room for three real men. Apply 3 to 5 p. m., Mr. Randal, 433 Cambridge St., Allston.

WANTED AT ONCE—

RIVETERS HOLDERS-ON HEATERS
JOINERS
CARPENTERS
CHIPPERS AND CAULKERS
SHIP FITTERS
MARINE PIPE FITTERS
LABORERS

APPLY TO MR. ROCHE,
VOCATIONAL BUREAU, BOSTON ADVERTISER-AMERICAN,
92 SUMMER ST. BOSTON, MASS.

Help—Male and Female 34

STEAMSHIP POSITIONS—Europe, Orient, good pay, experience unnecessary; men and women; send self-addressed envelope for list. Box 354 Mount Vernon, N. Y.

Financial

Phone Ads to American — Liberty 4000

Business Opportunities 38

CONTRACTORS—Business in Dedham; horses and all equipment, house, buildings, widow wishes to sell; will arrange terms, reas. Ded. 1441 or write Y 16 this paper.

DELICATESSEN—Restaurant; very good loca.; price reas. Owner, Talbot 6836.

MEAT—Market, doing between $600-$700 weekly; must be sold; good location; good stock; fixtures; reasonable. Col 9572.

STORE—Fruit; for sale, good business 3480 Washington St., Jamaica Plain.

VARIETY—Store; cash trade. 41 Warrenton St. Beach 7333.

MUST SELL—Cigars, tobacco, confectionery, stationery store; fine location. Cheap rent with lease; $800. Call Roxbury 10456.

Money to Loan—Mortgages 40

F. E. HOVEY—Second mortgage money; no delay. 53 State St., Rm. 807. Cong. 5727.

LOANS — Up to $300 to housekeepers; easy repayment terms; only lawful interest. Personal Finance Co., 552 Mass. Ave., Cambridge. L 71, Porter 2-9-7-0.

LOANS — To housekeepers on personal property. Beneficial Loan Society, 73 Tremont St., Rm. 209; L 22; Haymarket 2-0-3-3.

SAVINGS BANK — First mortgages at 6%. Owners write loca. of property and address of owner. Address Box Y 40, this paper.

A PRIVATE PARTY will invest money in a few first, second or third mortgages; lowest rates to home owners. Write Box Y 18, this paper.

MONEY—For 1st, 2nd and construc. mtgs. Lowest rates. Write Box Y-15, this paper.

WORKINGMEN'S LOAN ASSOCIATION — (State No. 2) Robert Treat Paine, 2d, Treas. Loans made on furniture and pianos at 1% per month plus small charge for making loan. 1 Beacon St., Room 503.

Instruction

Phone Ads to American — Liberty 4000

Local Instruction Classes 43

BARBERING AND BOBBING TAUGHT; the only up-to-date school in Boston, day-eve. Vaughn's Barber School System. 1089 Wash. St., Boston. Special Summer rates.

FRANCES BEAUTY SCHOOL — Expert instruction; reduced rates; send for letter. Rm. 202. 125 Tremont St.

HALL UNIVERSITY Barber College, chartered by State; special Summer course; entire bldg., 548 Washington St., Boston.

Livestock

Phone Ads to American — Liberty 4000

Dogs, Cats, Other Pets 47

POLICE PUPPIES—Thoroughbreds, male $25, female $10. H. L. Stanley, 223 Moody St., Lowell, Mass. Tel. Lowell 237.

Livestock

Phone Ads to American—Liberty 4000

Dogs, Cats—Other Pets 47

POLICE PUPS—$25-$35. Day, 17 Temple Boulevard, Melrose. Call Melrose 0372-W.

Merchandise

Phone Ads to American — Liberty 4000

Articles for Sale 51

NO-BOIL HOPS and malt extracts $1.25 qt. P. P. prepaid in N. E. Green River Malt Co. of Mass. 181 Hanover St., Boston. Distributors everywhere.

Musical Merchandise 63

STEINWAY piano; it is very seldom one of these fine pianos come to us in exchange; see this piano before you purchase; offered at half value. Chas. S. Norris, 181 Tremont St.

100-YEAR-OLD—Ophicleide brass instrument, with scale; good cond. High 4298.

Wanted—To Buy 66

HIGH PRICES—Paid for diamonds, gold, platinum. 387 Washington St., Rm. 813.

Rooms and Board

Phone Ads to American — Liberty 4000

Detailed information regarding any Room ad marked with one star is on file in the Boston Evening American and Boston Advertiser office. Call or phone for information, Liberty 4000, or call at our Room Rental Bureau, cor. Summer and Devonshire Sts. Ask for Miss Black.

Rooms With Board 67

★BROOKLINE—Home for refined, elderly people convalescents or chronic cases; nice location. Call Aspinwall 1178.

SOMERVILLE—Large furnished rm. board optional; suitable for 2. Call Som. 2013-W.

★WANTED—Child to board, any age, country home, reas. Parkway 0459-R.

Rooms Without Board 68

★ALLSTON—101 Glenville Ave; pleasant homelike rm., pr. fam., rea. Brigh. 4181-J.

★ALLSTON—Large fur. fr. rm., twin beds; priv. family; gentlemen. Sts. 1995.

BACK BAY—Parlors, squares, sides, basements and kitchenette rms., $2 to $10. Connaughton, 48 Union Park.

★BACK BAY—Connecting living room and bedroom, run'g water; reas. Cop. 3190-W.

★BROOKLINE—Pleasant furn. rms., fine location, reas.; men pref. Regent 4289-M.

★BOSTON—2 rooms, furnished suite, newly renovated all imps. 40 East Brookline St., Suite 1. Seen eves or Sun.

★BOSTON—42 Fayette—Rooms, running water, elec., near Statler Hotel. Dew 4693-M.

★CAMBRIDGE—Rooms, $6 single, $10 double. Days Lib. 7492, eves., Univ. 2273-R.

★CAMBRIDGE—Nicely furn. rooms, front and side; reasonable. Porter 2042.

★CHANDLER ST., 44—Large, front room, also back room. 10 mins. downtown.

★COMMONWEALTH AVE.—1066, Suite 17; furn. cor. rm. Reg. 7633-M. See janitor.

★DORCHESTER—Large airy room, suitable 2 people, near cars, beach. Talbot 5225.

★EVERETT—Large, airy room, bath floor, 31 Forest Ave. Everett 1537-M.

★ROSLINDALE—Front furn. rm.; all con.; private family; references. Milton 2826.

★SHAWMUT AV.—289; homelike, comfortable sq. rm., $4; side $2.60. Dewey 2454-RK.

W. NEWTON ST., 87—Every room a dream, $5, $6, $7, $8 wk. Men only. Tel. in every room. Shower bath. Private baths. Day $2, $2.50. Call before 9 p. m. B. B. 7300.

WE WILL FIND—
For you exactly the kind of a room you want—anywhere, any price and at a moment's notice. Consult Miss Black, Rooms for Rent Dept., "Classified Corner," Boston Evening American and Advertiser, 92 Summer St. Liberty 4000. Free service to room seekers.

Rooms for Housekeeping 69

★BEACHMONT—3 pleasant furn. rooms, gas, elec.; adults only. Revere 0841-R.

★CAMBRIDGE—2 rms., furn.; also housekpg. rm. 141 Mt. Auburn St. Univ. 2887-R.

★CHARLESTOWN—Best section, large, pleasant rooms for housekeeping, everything furnished, $6, $7. Chas. 0764-M.

★COMMONWEALTH AVE.—1822, Suite 6; large, double room, with kitchen privileges; reasonable. Tel. Regent 5244-M.

★DORCHESTER—17 Robinhood St.; 2 large, furn. h. k. rooms; also single rm.; private family. Highlands 4885.

★MEDFORD—2 rm. fur. suite, bath, $8.; near Fellsway cars. Mystic 0287-W.

ROXBURY—74 West Cottage St.; room with large kitchenette, gas range, dishes; furnished complete for housekeeping.

★ROXBURY—4-room apt., nicely furn., for housekeeping. 67 Waverly St.

★SOMERVILLE—2 unfurn. hskpg. rms., and kitchenette; rent reasonable; no objection to children. 24 Ellington Rd.; mid. floor.

★UPHAM'S CORNER—90 Alexander St., 2-room furn. kitchenette suite. High. 3071.

★WEST SOMERVILLE—Large, pleasant furn. rm.; refined Protestant business woman preferred; meals opt., priv. family. Somerset 8103-R.

DID YOU EVER STOP—To consider that the spare room in your house is costing you money every day? Do you know that it can be easily rented? Do you realize that a year's rent at only $3 per week means $156.00; $4 a week means $208.00; $5 a week means $260.00? This is extra money that you can easily get. Just mail us your ad with full particulars about your room, phone number, location and rent desired, etc., and we will help you as we have already helped many others in securing tenants. Address Miss Black, Rooms for Rent Department, Boston Evening American and Advertiser, 92 Summer St., Classified Corner, Boston. Tel. Liberty 4000.

Vacation Places 70

MOUNTAIN VIEW FARM—Situated in the heart of Green Mts., within walking distance of Barre Country Club; ideal place for city-tired vacationists. Further particulars write Mountain View Farm, Route 1, Plainfield, Vermont.

OAK BLUFFS, MASS.—
"The Marion," Board and room. Three minutes from water, parks and attractions; year around house with improvements, home cooking; reasonable rates; write for reservations. P. O. Box 1172.

★ONSET—Fine rooms, centrally located, 59 West Central Ave. Wareham 198 ring 2.

REVERE—Housekeeping rooms for August; 1034 North Shore Rd. Revere 1419.

Real Estate for Rent

Phone Ads to American — Liberty 4000

Apartments and Flats 74

ARLINGTON—6 rms. all improvements, good location. 78 Warren St. Arl. 1845-M.

BOSTON—5-6 rooms, rents $40, $45, baths, electricity, back piazza; just off Huntington Ave. Arthur P. Pearce, Jr., 15 St. St., Boston. Congress 2856.

BOSTON—49 Mountfort St., 6 rooms, all impts., $65. Mr. Mauris, Main 2884.

★BOSTON—Off Comm. Ave.; 2-3 rm. furn. apts.; kitchen, bath. Ken. 2652.

BROOKLINE—Att. 6 rms. Comm'h Ave., reas. for imme. occupancy. High 2869.

CAMBRIDGE—3-room suites, $25 per month, 179 Harvard St., near Central Sq. Electricity. Apply Mr. Stone on premises.

EVERETT—To let 3-4 rooms, all improvements. Tel. Everett 1127.

FENWAY—2-3 and 4-room suites; also Beacon St. apts., 2-3 and 4 rooms. Standish, Old South Building, Room 1153.

MEDFORD—14 Frederick Ave., 5 rms., all impts., hot water heat, hardwood floors, elec.; first floor, $45. Mystic 2857-M.

NORWOOD—1-4 rooms, bath, kitchenette, heat; new bldg., $25-$40. Nor. 0864-M.

ROSLINDALE—Attractive 6-rms., heart, new sec., all mod., impts. Park. 3128-WK.

ROXBURY—3, 4, 5-room suites. All improvements; rent $28-$35. Apply Mr. Son, 105 Humboldt Ave. Tel. Highlands 9135.

ROXBURY—Two 8-room apts., modern, steam heat, janitor service, newly renovated. 98-106 Winthrop St. High. 9181.

ROXBURY—Six-room apt.; all improvements; steam heat, electric lights, janitor service. Call Highlands 6604.

ROXBURY—4 rooms, modern, steam heated apt. Janitor serv, best location. Ocean 0659.

ROXBURY—4 rms. $25, 4 Langdon St., near Dudley. Key Suite 1, 2 Greene. Hay. 5716.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY
Phone Ads to American — Liberty 4000
Automotive

20 Closed Car Bargains

An Emergency Sale to clear the decks for action! NEW LOW PRICES—NEW LOW DOWN PAYMENTS, NEW LOW MONTHLY TERMS. These 20 cars are all late models of popular makes—every one carefully conditioned—READY TO GO AND GIVE THOUSANDS OF MILES OF UNINTERRUPTED SERVICE.

Start driving a better car tomorrow. Follow the crowd right here. Open Tonight.

OAKLAND MOTORS

655 BEACON ST.—Just Above Kenmore Station

Real Estate for Rent

Phone Ads to American — Liberty 4000

Apartments and Flats 74

ROXBURY—4 rms., Valentine St., $34. Apply Mr. Lucas, 83 Valentine St.

ROXBURY—6 rooms, all impts., $85. 116 Fisher Ave. University 7864-W.

SOMERVILLE—To Protestant Christian family, 4 or 5 rooms, furnished; sunny exposure, near Tufts College, trains, trolleys, bus lines. Somerset 5203-W.

SOMERVILLE—Heated apt., 4 rms. and reception hall; A1; handy corner location, 1st floor, 121 Hancock St., Som. 2579-M.

SOMERVILLE—3 rms., alcove, all improve., pleasant loca., rent reas. Som. 9230-M.

SOUTH END—4 clean rms., only $20 month. 4 Oak Pl., off Washington St., nr. Boyle Bros. Copley 1613-M.

WATERTOWN—6 rooms and garage, all improvements, nice location. N. N. 4626-W.

WINTER HILL—5-room apt., all impts. 74 Moreland St., Blackstone 2156-M.

Business Places for Rent 75

JAMAICA PLAIN—Store to let; $40 a month. Tel. Jamaica 4070.

Shore and Mountain for Rent 79

NANTASKET BEACH — New Rockland House, Park Ave. Clean rooms, day, week or season, reasonable rates. Tel Hull 1388.

REVERE BEACH—Cottage $15, furnished $100, balance season. Briggs, 18 Tremont.

DESIRABLE COTTAGE—on lake for rent, reasonable, due to late season, or for sale for $3200. Braintree 1377.

Real Estate for Sale

Phone Ads to American — Liberty 4000

Farms and Land for Sale 83

EQUIPPED FARMS—Business chances. Catalog free. Strout Agency, 900 EE Old South Bldg., Boston, Mass.

Houses for Sale 84

BEACHMONT—3-family, 19 rooms, 5-car garage, 14,000 ft. land; corner location. Price, $14,000. Revere 1907-R.

CAMBRIDGE—Select dis., beautiful home, h. w. floors, elec., all impts.; garage, 10,000 sq. ft. land, home just refin. Owner leaving for South; best offer takes it. Call Mr. Raymond, Porter 8065.

CAMBRIDGE—2-apt. 5 and 7 rooms, 2-car garage, fine street and land, $125 monthly; $11,400; cash $2,000; 2-apt. 5-6 rms., new, $10,600; cash $1,600. Best reliable buys in Cambridge. T. J. Daly, 1884 Mass. Ave., Har. Sq., Por. 2970 Eve. Univ. 3171-M

DORCHESTER—

Corner block, on Geneva Ave., two 3-family houses, 6-6-6 rooms, reception halls, separate entrances, all improvements. Apply C. F. Weinberg, 46 Tremont St., Boston, Room 1115, or Haymarket 2901.

LYNNFIELD CENTER—5-room house, flush toilet, 2½ acres land; centre of town; gas, elec. L. J. Tenney, Beaver Ave. Tel. Lynnfield Centre, 87 ring 12.

MEDFORD—$300 down, price $4,800, 8-rm. house, all improvements, fine repair and location; vacant. 10 Winthrop Ct., off 161 Winthrop St., open daily 2-4. Hay. 8940.

MALDEN—7-room cottage, h. w. floors, elec., open plumbing, furnace, extra lot land, good neighborhood. Price $5800; $300 cash, bal. as rent. Porter & Kearney, 851 Main St., Malden. Mal. 5305; nights 8833-W

ROSLINDALE—West Roxbury and Jamaica Plain, 1-2-3-family houses, stores land and apartments for sale. Jamaica 4070.

SQUANTUM—Sale or rent, modern 7-room corner house; 1-car garage; very good location; 12,000 ft. land; price reasonable. Terms arranged. Owner, Univ. 6834.

WALTHAM—For sale, bungalow, 5 rms., impts., 6,000 ft. land. Waltham 1637-R.

WINTHROP Court Park district, mod. 9 rooms, single, facing water, screened piazzas, awning; always cool; conven. to services; good buy. Kenmore 5060.

A RARE FIND—Brick veneer, beautiful lot, excellent location; one of those homey, comfortable houses that makes an evening home a pleasure; not too large—8 rooms, conveniently planned; near Wellesley Hills Station, schools, churches, cars and stores; can be seen only by appointment. Cole & Smith Co., Agents, 290 Washington St., Wellesley Hills. Wellesley 0583-M.

5 2-FAMILY HOUSES—One 3-decker, good condition, near Park St.; reasonable, block or separate, 527 Western Ave. Jackson 69.

$300 DOWN—116 W. Ninth St., So. Boston, 9 rooms, gas, two kitchens and toilets, newly painted inside and out, large yard, Price $2650. E. J. Holmes, 1874 Mass. Ave., Cambridge. University 1293.

Lots for Sale 85

LOST LAKE — Groton, Mass., call Beach 9218. Reserve seats for free bus ride over Mohawk Trail, Saturday or Sunday.

MUST SELL—Lot land, 4,000 sq. ft. nr. W. Roxbury parkway. Granite 1848-W.

SEND FOR FREE DUOTONE BOOKLET—Containing beautiful views of Lucerne-in-Maine. 580 Washington St., Boston.

CLASSIFIED DISPLAY

Phone Ads to American—Liberty 4000

Dancing

Prepare for Vacation Now!
Learn to Dance at Lerner's and Be Popular
"BOSTON'S COOLEST DANCING SCHOOL"
LERNER'S DANCING ACADEMY
335 MASS. AVE. AT HUNT. AVE.
Phone Back Bay 9383
SPECIAL SUMMER RATES!
Beginners Learn Quickly!
BALLROOM COLLEGIATE CHARLESTON WALTZ FOXTROT TANGO
STAGE BUCK AND WING, BALLET, SOFT SHOE, ACROBATICS, CLOG, TAPS, ETC.
SPECIAL SUMMER NORMAL COURSE, CIRCULARS

Latest Ballroom Steps Guaranteed in (3) Lessons by PROF. LESLIE'S SCHOOL OF ALL KINDS OF DANCING
330 MASS. AVE. KENMORE 5672
CHARLESTON Collegiate, Half-Time, Fox-Trot, Waltz, Tango, Etc.
Buck-Wing, Eccentric, Soft Shoe, Waltz-Clog STAGE DANCING

"DISTINGUISH THE BEST FROM THE REST"
PROF. RITTER 230 TREMONT ST. Tel. Beach 5972
STAGE DANCING Buck & Wing, Soft Shoe, Charleston.

For Ballroom Dancing See N. E.'s Best Teacher
PROF. WISEMAN 230 Tremont St., Boston Tel. Beach 5972
Exhibition Dancing, Argentine, Tango, Waltz, Apache

LEARN TO DANCE WELL
Class Lessons 50c; Private $1
FLORENCE KELLY
340 Huntington Ave. Tel. Back Bay 1507

PRIVATE LESSONS $1
MABEL G. HALL 235 Huntington Ave. Back Bay 8163

Travel and Transportation

BANGOR by Steamer

Sailings Daily and Sunday

From India Wharf 6 P. M. Daylight Time, for Bangor and landings on Penobscot Bay and River. Connections at Rockland for BAR HARBOR, BLUE HILL and way landings.

Also frequent, regular sailings to PORTLAND, BOOTHBAY HARBOR, ME.
YARMOUTH, N. S.
SAINT JOHN, N. B.

Affording service to all points in Maine, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick

Daily Sailing to New York
All the Way by Water via Cape Cod Canal

Reduced rates on automobiles accompanied by passengers.

Tickets at Wharf Office, Tel. Han. 1700, or City Office, 12 Milk St., Tel. Lib. 5526.

EASTERN STEAMSHIP LINES.

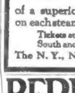
FALL RIVER LINE
Established 1847

To New York

The Comfortable Way via the Inside Route

Lv. BOSTON
So. Sta. (Special Daily Boat Train) 5 P. M.
Due NEW YORK (Pier 14, N. R.) 8 A. M.
Eastern Standard Time

To New York $6.50
Round Trip $10.00
Good for 10 days



THE finest passenger ships in coastwise service, providing all the comforts, luxuries and conveniences of a superior hotel. Orchestra on each steamer.

Tickets at 67 Franklin Street, South and Back Bay Stations.
The N. Y., N. H. & H. R. R. Co.

BERMUDA
Ideal Summer Vacations
Only 2 Days from New York
8 Days $97. and up
Including All Expenses For Steamer, Hotel and Interesting Side Trips
Average Summer Temperature 77°
Frequent Sailings via Steamers
"Fort Victoria" & "Fort St. George"
For Illustrated Booklets Write
FURNESS BERMUDA LINE
10 State St., Boston, or 34 Whitehall St., New York City or any Local Tourist Agent

PROVINCETOWN
PILGRIMS' FIRST LANDING

100-mile round trip Daily to CAPE COD on large wireless-equipped iron STEAMSHIP DOROTHY BRADFORD Fare—Round Trip $2; One Way $1.75 Leaves Long Wharf, foot State St., 9:30 A. M.; Sundays and Holidays 10 A. M. D. S. Time. Tel. Congress 4255. Staterooms; Refreshments; Orchestra, Ship's orchestra over WEEI Mondays, 8 P. M.

New York $5.39
Via Rail and Boat Daily and Sunday. Outside Staterooms with running water $1.50 up. Latest connecting train from South Station 5:05. Steamer from Providence 7:00 P. M.
DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME
Colonial Line TEL. CONG. 2788 196 Wash. St.

BAY STATE LINE NEW YORK $4.84 VIA RAIL & BOAT

STATEROOMS $1.00, $1.50 and $2.00. Steel Steamships Georgia and Tennessee leave Providence 6 P. M. (Standard Time) daily and Sundays. Tickets and staterooms at South Station, Back Bay and Consolidated Ticket Office, Boston.

MASSACHUSETTS

ENLARGED REDECORATED
"THE RONALD INN"
OPEN ALL THE YEAR
Lobster, Chicken and Steak Dinners
Meals a la Carte Daily
West Central Ave., Onset, Mass.
Estab. 39 Years. Tel. 144 Wareham Exchange
JOHN A. RONALD, Manager

NEW HAMPSHIRE

THE BALSAMS Dixville Notch, N. H.
Seven Miles from Canadian Border—Open June to October. Golf, fishing and all outdoor and indoor amusements. Hay fever unknown. Attractive rates. J. J. LANNIN CO., Inc.

[illegible]NEY IN BUYING THE AM[illegible]AN CLASSIFIED WAY

GILCHRIST CO.

To make this week's mark down a big success we offer

19 Cars Including

Buick	Durant
Hudson	Overland
Essex	Chevrolet
Dodge	Studebaker

At prices from $49 to $949

Many of them have been refinished in very pleasing colors and thoroughly tested, with all necessary repairs made, to place cars in good running order.

These cars may be bought on our thrift payment plan.

Convenient Terms

USED CAR SALESROOM
703 BEACON ST.
PHONE LIBERTY 0011
NIGHTS BEACH 1477

TIRES on CREDIT
as low as $1.00 per Week
BALLOON
1st Quality
All Styles
Tires on Credit at Cash Prices
CENTRAL AUTOMOBILE TIRE CO.
119 STANIFORD ST. BOSTON
Uptown Store 179 MASS. AVE.
Back Bay Store 380 MASS. AVE.

Real Estate

Cape Cod Cottage $3500

Located at Tahanto—Pocasset. New house with old-time features. $300 down, balance monthly. Boating, bathing. BROWN & STACKPOLE, 512 Park Square Bldg., or Gray Gables office. Tel. Buzzards Bay 8125-2.

LUNCHROOM FOR SALE
126 Main St., Charlestown.

Instruction

7 AUTO LESSONS $5
LICENSE COURSE $12. 815A HUNTINGTON AVE., OPP. Y. M. C. A. PHONE GENEVA 6710. FORD CARS ALSO.

Professional Services

FACE Expert
All Facial Irregularities, Wrinkles, Face Sag, Defective Noses, Moles and all blemishes corrected.
DR. E. P. REID 100 Boylston St., Room 830
Over 30 Years' Experience—Hancock 1386

X-RAY
Dr. Walsh, 13 Boylston Street, Boston, will give you FREE an examination and trial treatment with the new light treatment, provided you call at his office before July 25th, 1926, no matter what your disease may be.

BOSTON AMERICAN

Entered as second class matter at the postoffice at Boston, Mass. Also at the Postoffice Department, Canada.

Published daily (except Sunday), Winthrop Square, Boston 6, Mass., by NEW ENGLAND NEWSPAPER PUBLISHING COMPANY.

Domestic rates (Subscription by Mail). Postpaid: One Month, 50c. Six Months, $3. One Year, $6. Foreign Rates: One Month, $1. Six Months, $6. One Year, $12. One cent extra per copy in the Postal District. Subscriptions payable strictly in advance.

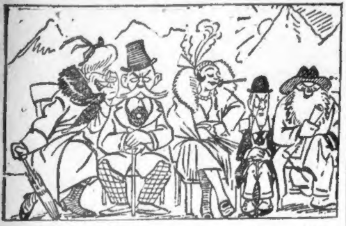
The Boston Evening American assumes no financial responsibility for typographical errors in advertisements but will reprint that part of an advertisement in which the typographical error occurs. Advertisers will please notify the management immediately of an error which may occur.

MEMBER ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Associated Press is exclusively entitled to the use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper, and also the local news published herein. All rights of republication of special dispatches herein are reserved.

EDITORIAL PAGE OF THE ☆ ☆ BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN ☆ ☆ BOSTON JULY 20, 1926

The League of Nations Illustrated

How It Looks to the British



Madame Intrigue. General Owen Debt. Miss Understanding. Sir Austen Chamberlain. Herr Suspicion

A PICTURE OF THE LEAGUE OF NATIONS.

It may interest you to get for a change a British view of that precious League of Nations. You have heard what some American newspapers and voters think of it.

The picture above, taken from Lord Beaverbrook's paper, The London Daily Express, expresses the opinions of millions of Britishers. They know that the League of Nations CANNOT stop war.

Many wish that Great Britain were OUT of it. And incidentally, Great Britain isn't RELYING on it. The names that Lord Beaverbrook's artist puts under the various League of Nations personalities tell what the British opinion is.

"Madame Intrigue, Miss Understanding, Herr Suspicion, etc.," are well named.

It is "General Owen Debt" that is especially anxious to get old Uncle Sam over there.

All of these League of Nations characters would take on a much happier expression if our high international finance could only push Uncle Sam into the League with his fat pocketbook and his good nature.

Let's hope, however, that Uncle Sam's common sense, and especially the recent voting by American citizens against the World Court—the back door to the League—will keep Uncle Sam where he belongs.

HE BELONGS HERE IN THE UNITED STATES, MINDING HIS OWN BUSINESS, AND LETTING THE PEOPLES OF EUROPE MIND THEIR BUSINESS.

Kemal and the Prince

Also Will Rogers and Peter

If you have ever said anything unpleasant about Kemal Pasha, dictator in Turkey, take it back and apologize, for he is a swift and angry man. A few days ago at Smyrna he hanged thirteen who had plotted against him and twenty more are to be tried, and MAY be hanged. You must strike hard and swiftly in the dictator business.

The Prince of Wales, joking, said, "It is a pity kings can no longer execute men in the Tower. It would be a pleasure to have Mr. Will Rogers beheaded there just for the fun of hearing what he would say when he felt the axe."

That's only FUNNY, now. It wasn't so funny when Peter the Great of Russia visited the King of Denmark, saw the instruments of torture and asked the king kindly to put some criminals in the various machines and let him see how they worked.

When the Danish king, more civilized, objected, Peter, turning around toward his courtiers, said, "Well, take anybody here among my people and torture him." He was amazed when told that wouldn't be legal.

Peter could and would act as swiftly as any modern Kemal Pasha. Amazed when told all the men he saw with white wigs in the British law courts were lawyers, he said, "I have only two lawyers in Russia, and I am going to hang one of them as soon as I get back."

Also when he tortured on a high platform men that had conspired against him, he took up from their graves other conspirators, hauled them to the place of execution on sleds drawn by swine and put them under the scaffold that the blood of their fellow conspirators might drop upon them. He was a man of strong emotions.

Essentials of Character

No Respectable System for Teaching Some of Them

President Atwood, of Clark University, says that there are needed on his faculty men with three qualifications: Creative imagination, intellectual power and intellectual independence.

Strangely enough, these three requisites to a man who desires to be on the faculty of Clark University, or a man who desires to be on any other job, cannot be taught. At least there is no respectable system for teaching them.

You can teach a man knowledge. By sheer effort he can cram his brain with an immense amount of information. While knowledge may be power, it is only power when rightly used.

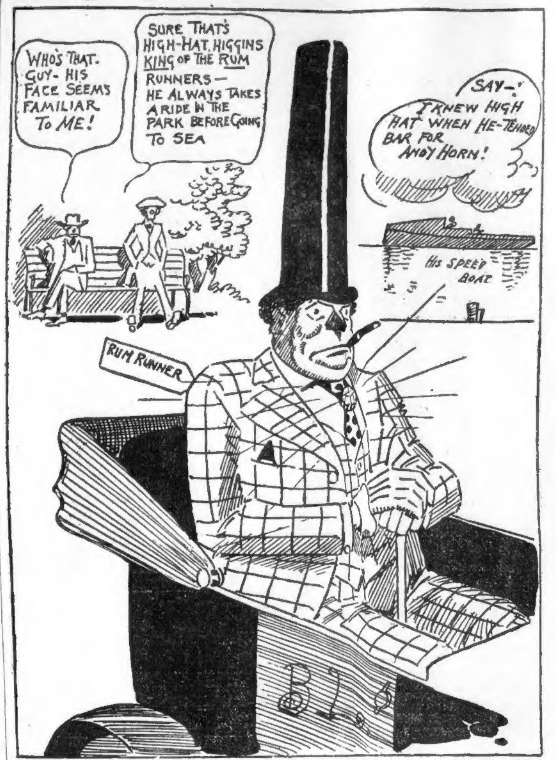
A man can write a good play or a good novel or compose a good editorial only with creative imagination. All the knowledge in the world will not keep him from being dull.

He may have a well-stored intellect. Indeed, the learning of facts may be a sort of a play with him or a fad, but the intellectual power to use these facts may be lacking.

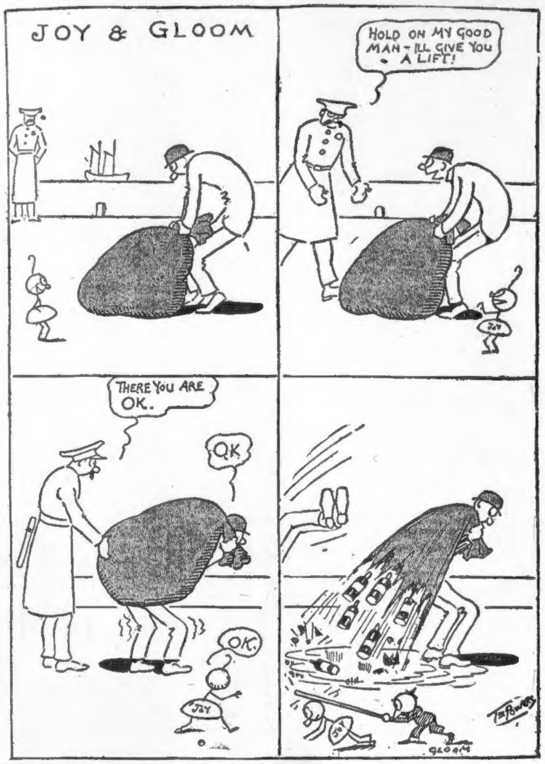
Intellectual independence is also a very rare quality. Most men rely upon someone else or the statements of someone else for their facts. In fact, to a certain extent all of us do. To find a man who relies merely upon the fact itself is not common.

In short, President Atwood's demand seems to be for a genius, for only genius has these three qualifications: First, creative imagination; second, intellectual power, and third, intellectual independence.

Going Up! -:- -:- A Day inle Life of a Rurunner -:- -:- By T. E. Powers



WHO'S THAT. GUY- HIS FACE SEEMS FAMILIAR TO ME!
SURE THAT'S HIGH-HAT HIGGINS KING OF THE RUM RUNNERS— HE ALWAYS TAKES A RIDE IN THE PARK BEFORE GOING TO SEA
SAY—! I KNEW HIGH HAT WHEN HE TENDED BAR FOR ANDY HORN!
HIS SPEED BOAT
RUM RUNNER



KINGDOM OF HENRY FORD UNIQUE

By DR. FRANK CRANE

ONE of the strangest anomalies of modern times is the realm established by Henry Ford.

Strange to say, we do not find many criticisms of him in the press.

Ordinarily any great accumulation of money would be soundly hated by those who do not have it.

Mr. Ford does not seem to have gone out of his way to palliate the public. He attacked the Jews, he was the target of many bitter arrows shot by the newspapers, and he seems pretty generally to have been deficient in the arts of mollifying public opinion.

But he has always treated labor more than fairly and apparently stands very well among the wage earners.

Yet a recent writer points out that he is worth probably more than a billion. His profits last year were a hundred and fifteen million, which is the earning power of two billions.

There has never been a private fortune like this before in the history of the world.

It is worth more than the wealth of many a nation. Mr. Hinman says that it is worth twice as much as Bolivia or Equador or Latvia. It is worth as much as all Bulgaria, Finland or Uruguay. It is worth as much as Greece or Guatemala, or as much as Haiti and Honduras together. It is worth more than Norway and almost as much as Denmark, coat and hat and boots.

Yet this vast accumulation has grown according to the natural laws of business. It is the product of the enormous manufacture and sale of a necessary commodity. It rests upon the cheap production of automobiles.

Instead of raising money by levying a tax upon thousands of people, it provides them with a living wage. It enables them with this wage to build their own schools and improve their own standards of living.

Nobody can say, "I have made Henry Ford rich." He has not begged from bank to bank. He has rather shown his independence of them.

We may not approve of his ideas, but they are his and he is not afraid to utter them.

Altogether the kingdom of Henry Ford is a unique thing in the world's history. It has grown up in the midst of a free country and rests upon a firmer foundation than that of many a State.

(Copyright, 1926, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

THERE IS STILL TIME TO MAKE A START TO TOP

Don't be so afraid of making a failure.

Undoubtedly you can look back a few years and see where you neglected to take advantage of many opportunities which were real openings.

You feared what your friends would say and think if you did not succeed, and so you hesitated till the opportunity was gone.

Possibly you did not take up certain propositions because you did not want to apply yourself as closely as you should to make a success. Perhaps you were unwilling to give up certain pleasures in order to put over the contemplated venture.

If these reasons held you back you have no reason to complain that you are not at the top.

It may be not too late for you to make the start.

Copyright, 1926, International Features Service, Inc.

LISTEN, WORLD!

By ELSIE ROBINSON

AILEEN was late again this morning. When she came in her eyes were red and she didn't have a bit of curl in her hair. She was so absent minded during dictation that the boss had to call her down. Then she went back to her desk and cried.

"I'll bet the old hen's been at her again," Evelyn whispered to Agnes.

"Sure. Same old thing. Wonder how long she's going to stand for it?" said Agnes.

Aileen doesn't know how long she's going to stand for it. Every day it grows worse. Every night she dreads to think of going home.

"Some day," she says to herself, "I won't go home. I'll go out to Ellen's and take a room in her apartment. She has been wanting me to come for ages. It'll be awfully mean to leave Aunt Emma when she's getting old—but she is driving me to it." And a great lump of anger and hurt rises in Aileen's throat and chokes even her thoughts.

Once upon a time she didn't hate to go home at night. Her heart was warm to the Aunt Emma who had given her a home since her own mother died when she was eleven. No, she didn't exactly love Aunt Emma. Aunt Emma wasn't the kind that made you love her. She was too taken up with herself—with her fine shape and her lovely skin and her marvelously curled hennaed hair—with her tea dances and her bridge parties and silly, furtive "affairs." Shy, serious Aileen couldn't admire giggly big women of forty who spent hours rubbing cold cream into their skins and whispering confidences about their latest "crush" to the woman across the hall.

Happy Home

"But I suppose she's just a big kid," said Aileen. "And she has been so good to me. I don't care if she a little foolish, I'm grateful."

So it wasn't hard to come home at nights and they made a happy home between them—the big, noisy woman and the awkward, timid young girl.

Then two years ago, when Aunt Emma was forty-three and Aileen twenty, something happened. Almost over night Aunt Emma's beauty seemed to wither. Her lovely shape vanished and she grew knobby in some spots, scrawny in others. Her carefully tended skin dried and puckered. Only the great pile of unnatural hair retained its brilliancy and under it Aunt Emma's eyes peered out like something cornered. She WAS cornered. SHE WAS GROWING OLD! The years were crowding down upon her like hounds which would seize her sagging, quaking throat.

All around her the world went on its careless, laughing way. But she who had been most careless and laughing of all now viewed it with envy and a rising hate. She would have stopped it all if she could—have made it all wither. For she was stopping—she was withering.

Jealous of Youth

And slowly her fury began to concentrate on Aileen. The year that had faded Aunt Emma had brought Aileen to bloom. She was warm and glowing and rosy sweet, like a bud just opening. The glances that had once been for Aunt Emma now fell at Aileen's little feet. The invitations that had come for Aunt Emma were now addressed to Aileen.

Aileen was young—Aunt Emma was growing old. Envy raised a jagged sword between them.

So now Aunt Emma picks and nags, jeers and suspects. She doesn't mean to. She doesn't realize she is doing this; at the core of her heart she is still the same kindly, childish woman. But this hatred of age and jealously of youth works like poison in her. And the pity of it is that neither she or Aileen know what is the matter and neither have the wisdom to heal the hurt that is separating them.

I HATE HER BECAUSE SHE'S YOUNG!
I HATE HER BECAUSE SHE'S OLD!
LOVE WOULD HEAL BOTH HATES
E.R.

Many a home is being wrecked by this same hurt. Many a mother turns against her own daughter as Aunt Emma has turned against Aileen. The breech is not always so open, but the poison is at work just the same.

"You ought to be ashamed of yourself," sneers neglected Age to courted Youth. "No nice girl would have acted that way with a young man when I was a girl. Throwing yourself at his head. And what's more—it's plain he doesn't think much of you. He is just playing around with you. And Age smears the slime of its envy over the fresh joy of youth. And Youth answers with cruel hate. Yet if each knew the other's heart, how quickly love could heal it.

Copyright, 1926, King Features Synd., Inc.

WORDS OF THE WISE MEN

He who would reach the desired goal must, while a boy, suffer and labor much, and bear both heat and cold. —Horace.

He is ungrateful who denies that he has received a kindness which has been bestowed upon him; he is ungrateful who conceals it; he is ungrateful who makes no return for it; most ungrateful of all is he who forgets it. —Seneca.

Thought is deeper than all speech,
Feeling deeper than all thought;
Souls to souls can never touch
What unto themselves was taught.
—Granch.

Prosecutor Sees Crime Growth Among Well-to-Do

The following letter, accepting membership in a nation-wide commission to study the causes and cures for the wave of crime now spreading over the United States, has been received by William Randolph Hearst from Judge Joseph H. Taulane of the Court of Common Pleas of Philadelphia:

Philadelphia, July 17, 1926.

MY DEAR MR. HEARST:

Your recent editorial presents mostly ably and eloquently the seriousness of the crime problem, and the urgent need of intelligent and comprehensive study and investigation of the sources of crime and its prevention. No thoughtful person will think you have overemphasized the situation. The problem is big and difficult.

The criminal law has serious defects, and its administration is sometimes indifferent, ineffective and unenlightened, yet I scarcely believe such things are responsible to any considerable extent for the present lawlessness. The causes are much more intricate and far-reaching and must be looked for elsewhere.

Some crimes are incident to the infirmities of human nature and have not usually caused apprehension or alarm, but the crimes of violence and indifference to honor and trust, so common today, seem in many cases to be so unnecessary and little expected in communities so far advanced in apparent social and economic well-being as our communities are.

Experience has long shown that law alone is no prevention of crime. Outwardly and seemingly the cause of crime is with the individual, but what the individual is is so often predetermined by forces of which he is unaware and over which he has little or no control. Society owes the individual the duty of controlling and regulating, as far as practicable, the forces and influences which predispose to crime. Just what these forces and influences are may be the subject of legitimate controversy, and how far such forces and influences may be ameliorated is a matter which can well engage the enlightened and disinterested study and investigation of those skilled in that line of work.

Poverty and maladjusted environment are causes of much crime, but not all. There is an increasing number of offenders whose lives have never been blighted with poverty and whose surroundings should be a protection against criminal impulse. The last few years have witnessed a remarkable shifting and weakening of our standards of conduct and sense of right and wrong, both as individuals and as members of the community. To these changes in our standards of conduct may be attributed some of the newer phases of crime. Whatever can be done must be along the lines of eradicating, or at least modifying, the impulses to crime. Many remedies have suggested themselves to those who have considered the subject.

I think the Voluntary Commission suggested by you is one of the best means of studying the problems involved and suggesting remedies. I am glad to accept your invitation to join the commission and will endeavor to co-operate with the other members.

Sincerely yours,

JOSEPH H. TAULANE.